

1 Segment.01 hello. I'm dr. Jerry scheidbach, pastor of the Lighthouse Baptist Church in 2 Santa Maria, CA—and your brain masseur—get ready for your brain massage.
3 The liberals are exploding—going nuclear!
4 Why? Well, for one thing, Trump just keeps winning. (He warned us we'd get tired of it 5 — but, well, I'm not! I'm ready for some more, how about you? Make no mistake about it; 6 this ship has not completed its turn from the brink — not yet!)
7 The Supreme Court has come down with some Constitutional rulings — one after 8 another —
9 Government Union's power to compel membership loses, freedom wins.
10 CA attacks on Christian free speech loses, freedom wins.
11 Liberals attack on the Constitutional powers of the President to protect and defend our 12 borders loses, and our right to live free under our own laws wins.
13 And, of course, you know that Gay Rights Nazis who want to force Christians to accept 14 and affirm their perverted lifestyle lost and the denver cake makers won!
15 And then, adding to the liberal's nightmares, Kennedy resigned—opening a chair on 16 SCOTUS that president Trump gets to fill —
17 Of course, this will raise the hopes of right to life Americans that wade will be reversed—18 WhoopI is panicked —screeches, "get out of my vagina" — and we agree, no doctor 19 should be invading that sanctuary of life to murder an innocent child.
20 We will get to vote on the gas tax in november.
21 And—so—friend—
22 It's time for your brain massage!
23 [truth]
24 The liberals are exploding—going nuclear!
25 Maxine waters (the most embarrassing voice out of ca and that's saying something) — 26 who only a short time ago was dubbed one of the nation's most corrupt elected officials in 27 washington for her role in pushing for a government bailout for a bank tied to her family.
28 She is screeching — and I mean screeching about Obama putting these children crossing 29 our borders into cages — she is so angry at Obama for all those pictures she saw of 30 children kept in cages like dogs in a dog pound — separated from their parents — she is 31 furious with that immigration rights advocate group that sued the clinton administration 32 back in, I think it was 1997, forcing them to separate the children from their parents — 33 and hold them in separate areas of detention while the parents were processed for illegally 34 crossing our border — I mean, you've never seen maxine more angry — she was fuming

35 mad at Obama, and hey, she made it clear, this happened because Obama wanted those 36 kids in those cages, and listen, Obama was not going to get a pass here — no way! Maxine 37 said she would hunt him down, find him where ever he is and let him no she wont take it 38 anymore —

39 She even called on all Americans — if you see one of Obama's administration in a 40 restaurant you make a crowd, and you tell them they are not welcome. If you see one of 41 Obama's administration at a gas station — you make a crowd and shout them down and 42 tell them — get out of town — I mean, what else does it mean to say "you are not welcome 43 anymore, anywhere"? And she insisted, she demanded, Obama—you return those 44 children to their parents.

45 Those liberals are so angry with Obama for what he did that created the situation that had 46 hundreds of children locked up in dog kennels — man!

47 Hmmm. Wait a minute. Friend, they did not care at all about this when it happened 48 under Obama — only when it happened under Trump. Oh, okay. I get it now. This is not 49 about anything like concern for the children, it's about hating Trump.

50 If they cared at all about helping these children, the DEMs would get behind Trump's 51 effort to do something about this.

52 Liberals are very unfunny these days. They are fuming about the recent SCOTUS decision 53 to respect the religious convictions of the owners of Masterpiece Creations — I think 54 that's the name of the cake store in Denver that those homosexuals sued because even 55 though they explained their convictions about Gay marriage and encouraged them to use 56 another store that was available in town, that they were not comfortable participating in a 57 homosexual weddings, rather than, you know, walk across the street, or drive across 58 town, they decided to make a federal case out of it — literally — and they finally lost on 59 the ground that this couple had the right not to bake a cake for a homosexual wedding if 60 they, for religious reasons, felt they could not in good conscience participate — but, but...

61 If Sarah Sanders-Huckabee, White House press secretary for President Trump, wants to 62 eat lunch at, well, let's say the Red Hen restaurant in Lexington, VA, well, the Trump-63 hating owner very ungraciously demands that she and her party vacate the premises, leave 64 her restaurant. That's right. Sarah was booted from the Red Hen.

65 But, it gets even weirder. When Mrs. Sanders and company obliged, and left the 66 restaurant, because that's what conservatives do in these cases, and Mrs. Sanders and her 67 husband went on home, the rest of the family proceeded across the street to another 68 eatery. The owner of the Red Hen followed them, and cajoled them. It was rather short 69 notice, you know, so she could only roust up one protestor with a sign to stand outside 70 the neighboring eatery and protest — creating a scene — Liberals are so nice!

71 Sounds like it's right out of the Maxine Waters play book: you see one of those 72 conservatives that support Trump — well here is what you do —

73 Nice people, these liberals, tolerant, open to alternative viewpoints—yeah, so long as they 74 are in power, they behave civilly. But, when out of power, they are like babies — so long

75 as they have their chubby little hand on the lollipop stick they are content, take it away, 76 and whoa baby! Screaming and pounding their little chubby fists, and hey, I've seen it, 77 sometimes they'll reach out and scratch your face off while they turn beetp-red with rage

79 Liberals are going crazy — why? Because Trump keeps trumpin' them. (He warned us 80 we'd get tired of it — are you tired of it yet? No! Me neither!)

81 His Immigration ban has been upheld by the Supreme Court — all those lower courts just 82 got schooled on the Constitution — Trump was acting in accordance with the powers of 83 his office. So, thank God, we don't have to become like England, with enclaves of 84 communities governing themselves under separate laws, working subversively to bring 85 the entire island under Sharia Law.

86 So we can protect ourselves from what is going on in Germany, with Muslim men 87 prowling the streets raping German women claiming it is their right. So we can protect 88 idiots like Sophia Losche, who has been telling her German neighbors that Muslim 89 refugees are not dangerous, but instead, they are the ones that are in danger. She has been 90 a very vocal advocate for receiving more and more Muslim refugees into her country — a 91 28-year-old idealist — president of the Social Democratic Party youth organization in 92 Bamberg, a University student, who has been working on behalf of impoverished 93 immigrants — anyway, she was raped and killed by a Muslim migrant. Irony? Yeah!

94 Viva los Trump! He has the right idea about this and we need to support him. So, 95 SCOTUS handed down another victory to Trump and supported the President's 96 Constitutional power to protect and defend our borders.

97 And another victory: you know that Gay Rights Nazis want to force Christians to accept 98 and affirm their perverted lifestyle, their life threatening, life destroying behavior, their 99 presumed right to change the meaning of the word marriage and undermine that sacred 100 institution, well, they lost, and freedom of thought, freedom of speech, and freedom of 101 religion, and freedom from government political correctness coercion and intimidation 102 won — freedom won!

103 SCOTUS ruled that the Denver cake-makers have a right to their religious convictions 104 against homosexual marriage.

105 Trump keeps winning.

106 And winning! Americans' right to work without being forced to join a union was upheld 107 by the Supreme Court. Imagine being forced to pay dues to a Political Action Committee 108 in order to work for the government. Friend, the left understands exactly what this 109 means. Steven Vladeck, law professor, commented on this ruling: "This decision in 110 particular will likely have ramifications at the ballot box," Vladeck said, "since it will 111 weaken the economic health -- and political power -- of public-sector unions, which tend 112 to support Democratic candidates more often than Republicans."

113 No wonder the swamp is packed with blue alligators. Part of draining the swamp is 114 breaking the Demoncrat machine, and a large part of that machinery is the liberal unions

115 who, just like a DEM, force Americans to give them money they use to promote their 116 agenda to transform America into a socialist liberty-strangling society of jack-booted 117 politically correct thugs who will squelch free speech.

118 You know that Kagan actually said Free Speech is the enemy of liberal unions — and 119 complained that free speech is being used as a sword to destroy the unions.

120 Friend, anything Free Speech destroys needs to be destroyed. If unions cannot operate in 121 an environment of freedom they are defacto the tools of oppression. Nothing makes it 122 clearer that these unions that force people to pay them in order to have a job are the 123 essence of tyranny and oppression. Let the people be free. If allowing individuals to 124 decide for themselves whether it is in their best interest to participate in a union destroys 125 the union — then even so come lord Jesus.

126 And yet another ruling in favor of liberty: in National Institute of Family and Life 127 Advocates v. Becerra, Crises Pregnancy Centers will not be forced to advocate for 128 abortion — CA tried to force crises pregnancy centers to post a 29 word 48 point font 129 notice in up to 13 languages (really!) referring clients to free or low cost abortions.

130 Well, guess what? SCOTUS said no can do! Crises Pregnancy Centers have rights. They 131 have a right to Freedom of Speech that Trumps Commie-Fornias presumption that the 132 State can compel a citizen's speech to conform to state propaganda or state policies.

133 In the decision defending Free Speech against government coercion to promote 134 government propaganda, in this case supporting infanticide (the murder of babies in the 135 wombs of their mothers), the Court made reference to arguments put forward by Liberty 136 Counsel against CA laws that "ban change counsel." ("Change counsel" is counseling that 137 has as its aim to help a homosexual change his or her sexual orientation.)

138 In other words, part of the Court's ruling was based on arguments against the idea that 139 the government can forbid you to talk to homosexuals about alternatives to that lifestyle, 140 or, as it is called, sexual orientation change counseling — and these arguments are 141 premised on first amendment grounds.

142 So this means CA supporters of AB 2943 have just received a telegram from SCOTUS — 143 Free Speech and Freedom Trumps (this is too fun) your "professional speech" argument.
144 That's what California courts have used to justify abridging the free speech rights of 145 Americans in California—they have created a category of speech called "professional 146 speech" that the government can segregate from Constitutional protections of free speech.
147 Yep! That's what Commie-fornia has been up to. We need a Governor in this State that 148 will give California a Trumping!

149 Okay, I need to take a short break.

150 I wonder! If CA adopts the Cal-3 plan, will the liberals secede from the Union? Then they 151 could go all Venezuela without using our tax dollars to do it. Then they don't have to 152 worry about the Constitution getting in their way any more. But watch! Then they'll be all 153 for building a wall, but it will be to keep people in not keep them out.

154 Segment.02 hello. Welcome back! I'm dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, your 155 brain masseur, and Paul Revere's lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the Church belfry 156 arch, signaling the enemy is on the march, an enemy that would steal from us our liberty.

157 Kennedy has resigned. He is not talking about resigning, he has tendered his resignation, 158 and Trump is on the hunt for his replacement right now. I understand Mike Lee is being 159 considered. Awesome!

160 Gorsuch shored up our loss of Scalia, so, while that was an important appointment, 161 essentially, it only maintained the court's 4 to 4 split with Kennedy as the swing vote.

162 Kennedy was a Reagan appointee in 1987. He is styled as having a Libertarian approach to 163 law — he is considered the swing vote on a polarized court. (It surprises people to find 164 out that the court actually votes together about 60% of the time; at least lately. Before 165 Trump they voted together about 49% of the time.) But when it comes to any of the social 166 hot-button issues, like Gay Rights, Abortion, Democrat control of unions—uh huh! It's a 167 pretty solid 4 to 4 split. The progressives on the court can be depended upon to vote 168 without regard for the Constitution as it was written and as originally intended by the 169 founders. They view it as a living document that should change with the culture. These 170 jurists will consistently use their power on the bench to advance their socialist agenda and 171 support the vast left wing conspiracy, a veritable army of political revolutionaries working 172 to fundamentally transform America, who share Obama's belief that the Constitution is 173 outdated.

174 Then there are four jurists that can be depended upon to vote consistent with the letter of 175 the Constitution guided by original intent; like Gorsuch, and Scalia before him, who 176 believe like Scalia, that the courts job is to interpret and apply the law not to create it or 177 shape it according to the shifting winds of political correctness — Constitutionalists, 178 Originalists, and so forth — these men may be depended upon to vote in line with the 179 letter of the law guided by Framers's intent.

180 These men do not presume to be the law, or to be a law unto themselves, but to render 181 their decisions under the constraint of the Constitution and the restraints of the moral 182 code upon which this country was founded: equal endowment by the creator of 183 inalienable rights and equal justice before the law, and the separation of powers with 184 strong walls between each branch.

185 And then there was Kennedy—the swing vote. We were not always clear on which way he 186 would vote, sometimes reversing himself from one case to the next. Consistently 187 opposing affirmative action and then in a surprise decision supporting the right of a 188 University to practice it, for example.

189 But he has behaved admirably in some cases, such as these that have come down lately—190 and we are glad for that.

191 Who is justice Kennedy?

192 Kennedy was a Reagan appointee in 1987. He is styled as having a libertarian approach to 193 law — a strict federalist, which would mean he is concerned about the separation of 194 powers, and States rights, about strict adherence to the rule of law and the protection of 195 the Union under the Constitution.

196 Now, his Libertarian leanings explains his support for Abortion, if that's what you want to 197 do "with your own body" (no thought given to the body of the baby in the womb); and if 198 you want to change millennia of common law understanding and precedent, if you want 199 to turn culture up on it's head, he'll support that in the spirit of "to each his own" — even 200 though there was obviously a way to address this issue that did not involve rewriting five 201 thousand years of common law understanding.

202 On the other hand, the Federalist in him, along with his Libertarian inclinations, object to 203 the idea of forcing others to affirm and accept what they consider an immoral personal 204 choice. So while Kennedy would vote to create a right to same sex marriage (which is an 205 oxymoron—since the whole point of marriage is a union between a man and a woman 206 who become one, something that cannot happen between persons of the same sex) but 207 then he would draw the line at homosexuals compelling others to affirm, accept, and/or 208 approve of the choices of others — so he would join the conservatives and vote against 209 forcing the Christian bakers to make a cake for a homosexual couple's wedding.

210 The simplest way to evaluate the importance of this development is to take a look at 211 Kennedy's record for using his swing vote: four social conscience issues came before the 212 court that were key swing vote cases. Here is how Kennedy voted.

213 He protected Planned Parenthood and Abortion “rights” in Planned Parenthood v. Casey 214 — 1992. He supported Planned Parenthood in this case and in his opinion he expressly 215 declared his support for Abortion Rights — Scalia, Rehnquist, White and Thomas 216 dissented.

217 Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission — ruled that government cannot limit 218 corporate spending in elections under first amendment — 2010. Kennedy was the 219 deciding vote in favor of the plaintiff — he supported the rights of corporations to 220 participate in elections without government-imposed limitations that groups like Clinton's 221 Foundation don't obey anyway. So, Kennedy has one for the conservative side, and one 222 for the liberal side. Next?

223 Same Sex Marriage: Obergefell v. Hodges 2015 — the Libertarian in him sees no 224 problem with creating a right for same-sex marriage that never existed in the history of 225 mankind — not in any written code and certainly not in natural law. So, his idea of 226 Libertarianism is to say men should be free of any divinely appointed restraints whether 227 written or engrained in nature. So now he is 2 to 1 in favor of the Liberal side.

228 Kennedy voted in favor of affirmative action allowing colleges to establish admissions 229 policies based on race — in Fisher v. University of Texas — 2016.

230 So, in the last four cases where his vote was the deciding vote he voted with the Liberals 231 three times and with the Conservatives one time.

232 Now you understand why the liberals are going unhinged! They are about to be Trumped 233 again!

234 Of course, this raises the hopes of Right to Life Americans that finally the black and 235 putrid cloud of baby murder will be lifted — the millions of gallons of the blood of infants 236 slaughtered in the wombs of their mothers calls for justice and filling the ear of God is 237 their cries with our prayers — will we be heard?

238 Of course, right away, we start with the "my body, my rights," business. The baby is not 239 your body.

240 Whoopi is panicked — she screeches, "get out of my vagina" — you know what Whoopi, 241 that would be very good advice for these young ladies that get them selves into trouble — 242 if you don't want to become pregnant, there is one sure fire way to ensure it does not 243 happen.

244 It's been a good week for Trump — he is Trumping those Libs at almost every turn.
245 California needs a good Trumping — so Viva los Cox — and hey, we get to vote on the gas 246 tax — good night. Can you believe these people? No one gets hurt by these sorts of taxes 247 more than those who are already struggling to make ends meet. So now when you get gas 248 just comfort yourself in the knowledge that brown and his fellows are going to give all the 249 State employees a raise — yeah.

250 Okay, need to wrap it up! My friends please be patient with your Liberal friends—they are 251 blowing gaskets and frothing at the mouth, and it's scary. I've warned about this for many 252 years — the day we get past dialogue and turn to the dukes. It's beginning! Pray.

253 But, remember, it took democrats a very long time to recognize the evils of slavery —
254 republicans caught on to that very early on — but it took Liberals a long time to figure 255 that out. We can hope they will finally come around and see that murdering babies in the 256 womb is just plain wrong!

257 I preached a message that is doing quite well in the social media world — and I've written 258 a paper titled the law of strangers (what does the bible say about immigration). It will be 259 posted soon. If you want a copy, write to me an email and let me know, and I'll email a 260 copy of it to you.

261 I will be finishing part one of my prophecy course this coming Sunday. We will conclude 262 by outlining the prophetic implications of the seven letters to the seven churches. If you 263 missed last Sunday, you missed a really interesting study. I answered the question how 264 can God the son not know something God the father knows? It's still posted on our 265 Facebook page — find Jerry Scheidbach, or brain masseur, and you'll find it.

266 Also, my series Know Your Bible: Insights is becoming increasingly popular — and I'm 267 really enjoying it! This Sunday I'll be preaching on The Father's Blessing, examining 268 Isaac's blessing upon Jacob and Esau, and trust me when I say you are in for some 269 amazing insights from Scripture.

270 You should register right away for my prophecy course to get in on the most amazing 271 Bible study of the book of Daniel ever!

272 My friends, I have lit the lamps in the church belfry arch and now you let me know if you 273 see them. It's lights on if you see the lights are on and you will ride like revere and spread

274 the warning (essentially, it means you agree with what I'm saying), or you say lights off 275 — which means you reject what I'm saying and disagree strongly with me. So, what will it 276 be today, lights on, or lights off?

277 How do you register your vote?

278 Email me by going to our web site at branmassage.net. That's brainmassage.net. Find the 279 contact button and send me an email. Type lights on in the subject field, or lights off, and 280 hit send if you are in a hurry.

281 But if you will, please take the time to write a note to me. I'm calling on all lights on 282 listeners to contact me — I hope you will.

283 God bless you. God bless America! I'll see you in church.
