Portents of Civil War? / Is Manafort Mueller's Political Prisoner?/ Who Is Amy Coney
Barrett And Should She Replace Kennedy?

Jerry Scheidbach

Original Air Date: 07.07.18

1 Segment.01 Hello. I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor of the Lighthouse Baptist Church in 2 Santa Maria, CA—and your brain masseur—get ready for your brain massage.

3 The Portland riot in review — is it significant, does it portend things to come? The 4 tensions between right and left keep increasing — it's getting past dialogue and going to 5 dukes — as many have predicted, it's degenerating into open violence in our streets. Rush 6 is warning that these crazy lefties are going to start blowing up buildings — ala Obama's 7 friends Bill Ayers —

8 We are beginning to look more like the Middle East every day! Arab press praises Hamas' 9 arson terror on Israeli communities (lighting fires and kiting them over the border into 10 their fields) — while Palestinian growers gather in Israel to study Israeli strawberry 11 production methods. Yeah! And the IDF deploys IRON DOME air defense along the 12 Gaza border while a group of African business leaders and entrepreneurs tour Israel to 13 explore ways to increase mutually beneficent ties in business and development. America 14 seems to be on the verge of a not so civil war while on all most every other front, America 15 is making a major COMEBACK from the failed policies of Demoncrat deconstruction of 16 the Americaa Way. MAGA (Make America Great Again) is mega — but what's with the 17 jobless rate ticking up in June—after an 18 year low? Actually, it's a good sign! I might not 18 get to this so I'll finish it here — remember all those people who gave up looking for work 19 under Obama? They are coming back into the workplace—and it looks like job growth is 20 going to keep up!

21 Will Kim cave to US liberal pressure and decide to back away from Trump? (Now that's 22 an interesting take on latest developments in North Korea/US Relations). I understand 23 Kim has been waffling on his promises — what a shock! I'm sure Trump was totally 24 surprised—NOT! Perhaps Kimmy has been talking to Rodman and decided his best bet is 25 with the American Left—their track record for admiring and supporting dictators is 26 much better.

27 Trump Administration responds to Letfist attacks on his Zero-Tolerance policy by 28 assessing the situation and revealing that — it's worse than was thought! Estimates of the 29 number of families that are separated at the border has been raised from 2000 to 3000, 30 with about 100 of these being toddlers. The left wants those toddlers put into jail with 31 their parents immediately. I wonder how that policy would work for others accused of 32 crimes. Let's put Manafort's family in jail with him!

33 While MSM is zero-focused-in on Trump's zero tolerance policy they are giving zero 34 attention to yet another story of illegals committing heinous crimes in our country, 35 raping our teens —!

36 Trump's EPA chief Scott Pruitt resigns amid mounting scandals to the squealing delight 37 of his enemies, but Trump's replacement for the EPA is going to make them squeal in 38 terror. It's Andrew Wheeler, a former lobbyist for the coal industry. Someone said that 39 when it comes to the Trump agenda to release the power of American coal and oil, this 40 guy is even more aggressive than Pruitt.

41 But, the really big news is that Kennedy has resigned and the question is will we get a 42 replacement on the court that will swing the pendulum back to the RIGHT?

43 Okay my friends; it's time for your brain massage.

44 [TRUTH]

45 A quick shout out to new friends and old in Idaho, and some from Canada who joined us 46 there; enjoyed my time with you, thank you for your hospitality.

47 The Portland riot in review — is it significant, does it portend things to come? The 48 tensions between right and left keep increasing — it's getting past dialogue and going to 49 dukes — it is as many have predicted—the polarization is becoming so pronounced in 50 this country it's about to snap whatever remains of a common bond between Americans.
51 Our political arguments are degenerating into open violence in our streets, like some 52 third world country.

53 Rush is warning that these crazy lefties are going to start blowing up buildings — ala
54 Obama's friend Bill Ayers and their ilk — you know, the infamous bomber Terrorist Bill 55 Ayers, Ghost writer of Obama's book, Dreams From My Father — described as an 56 "Unrepentant LYING Terrorist" by Andrew McCarthy in the National Review—2008.

57 It's what these people do when they are not in power. They turn to violence.

58 What happened in Portland? A group called Patriot Prayer started by Joey Gibson—who 59 has openly and repeatedly denounced racism, and the so-called "alt-right," and white 60 supremacy, by the way. But the MSM always add some note about the group being 61 identified with white supremacists, or White Nationalists, and so forth. You must 62 remember that, for example, anyone that believes abortion is an act of murder 63 perpetrated upon innocent babies in the wombs of their mothers under the color of law in 64 violation of the Constitution which is premised upon the principle that all men are 65 created equal and endowed by their creator with certain inalienable rights, and that 66 among these are LIFE — liberty, and the pursuit of happiness will be dubbed "alt-right" by 67 the left, and branded as "radical." Imagine! It's radical these days to believe life in the 68 womb is a gift from GOD and that the baby that leaped in the womb of Elizabeth when in 69 the presence of Jesus in the womb of Mary is proof enough that the baby in the womb is a 70 BABY PERSON — and that anyone so wicked, and twisted, that they can elevate the 71 values of a turtle egg over the value of the living baby in the womb of its mother is 72 degenerate — imagine — the radical, the out there, idea is that burning these babies with 73 saline solution, or carving them to pieces with a scalpel is wrong! Keep that in mind when 74 you hear the left denounce a group as "alt-left" or "far right." The so-called "far right" 75 today would include virtually every one of our Founders.

76 But I must confess I know little about Patriot Prayer—the founder tells us it's a group that 77 was organized in 2016 to respond to Trump supporters being bullied and attacked by the 78 hat-haters. They really hate that MAGA hat — MAKE AMERICA GREAT AGAIN!

79 I guess I will have to get one of those hats. Where can I get one of those? I want one 80 signed by Trump!

81 Anyway, Gibson organized this group to respond to the Trump haters during the 82 campaign — he gathers his group in areas known to be centers of liberal politics—and, of 83 course, this brings out the Liberals in counter-protest.

84 Of course, liberals have been doing this in our faces for decades now, gathering for 85 marches protesting the government, protesting against America, or marching for Gay 86 Pride, and all that; but when a conservative does it, suddenly it's an "antigovernment 87 group." So if liberals protest Trump, that's not "antigovernment," but if a conservative 88 group rallies for the President, that's "antigovernment." How twisted can this get before 89 truth is simply totally and irretrievably strangled out of our public discourse?

90 So, White Supremacists show up at some of the Patriot Prayer rallies, and that allows the 91 MSM to label the group as "connected with White Supremacists" — but Maxine Waters is 92 seen with Nation Of Islam leader Farrakhan — hater of America, hater of Jews, hater of 93 "whitey" — agitator and fomenter of dissension — but she is not repeatedly labeled with 94 Louis Farrakhan — you don't read, Maxine Waters, associated with Anti-Semetic Nation
95 of Islam, every time you read her name.

96 The Republican Jewish Coalition (RJC) has called for the resignation of seven Democrat 97 Representatives because of their association with Farrakhan. I found this statement from 98 the RJC in an ABCNews article: after calling for their resignations, the coalition went on 99 to say, "They include former Nation of Islam employee, Congressman Keith Ellison, who 100 is Deputy Chair of the DNC. Ellison has tried to excuse his 2013 meeting with Farrakhan, 101 while ignoring his more recent meeting with the NOI leader in Farrakhan's hotel room, in 102 2015. At least six other Democrats are known to have embraced Farrakhan. These 103 members of Congress - Maxine Waters, Barbara Lee, Danny Davis, Andre Carson, 104 Gregory Meeks, and Al Green - have all, while in office, sat down with Farrakhan for 105 personal meetings."

106 The RJC statement continues: "There can be no question about how abhorrent it is for 107 these Democrats to be connected to Louis Farrakhan. Farrakhan is first and foremost a 108 preacher of hate. He preaches about Jewish "control" over the government and media and 109 has claimed to have "pulled a cover off of that Satanic Jew," saying "your time is up, 110 your world is through." And those were just the comments from last week.

111 "Anti-Semitism is unacceptable. Farrakhan is the moral equivalent of a leader of the 112 KKK."

113 But I thought the concluding thought expressed in this call for the resignation of 114 Democrats associated with Farrakhan was the most telling: "If it was discovered that 115 members of Congress had met with the leader of the KKK, they would need to resign."
116 But then I remembered Robert Byrd, former Senator for West Virginia — he served for 117 51 years as Senator, another 6 years before that as a Representative — a former Klan

118 member. But at least he renounced his former racists views and associations — these 119 characters today continue their fraternization with Anti-Semetic Farrakhan.

120 But you get my point — let a White Supremacist show up, uninvited and unwelcome, at a 121 conservative's rally and they get branded as associated with White Supremacy — let a 122 liberal hug Farrakhan and attend one of his rallies and — well, you know how it is with 123 Liberals these days.

124 So, the Patriot Prayer group gathered in the streets of Portland Oregon, to begin a 125 permitted and peaceful march through town, with flag waving Americans — but right 126 away, Antifa began showing up, and among them some who had rap sheets for violence, 127 and a few that were wanted for crimes of violence committed before.

128 As soon as the Patriot Prayer march began, Antifa "counter-protesters" began throwing 129 eggs and half-empty water bottles and firecrackers into the marching group. The Oregon 130 police positioned themselves between the Patriot Prayer group and the Antifa counter-131 protesters, fired some pepper spray into the crowd, and began to move in, but then it got 132 real weird. Words were exchanged, of course, and one thing led to another, and pretty 133 soon we've got bedlam. One red headed Patriot Prayer warrior took down an Antifa thug 134 and was pounding the dude into the pavement — yeah. A 5'6" 150 lbs chick was 135 pummeling what looked like a 6 something 200-pound-Antifa-Soros-funded-thug! (I 136 don't know if Soros money can be linked to this group — not yet anyway) — the leader 137 of the counter-protest group put out a notice to not send out that picture. Yeah, not too 138 good for the image to see a conservative chic putting a major beat down on a big-bad-139 Antifa dude. They won't be afraid when they see us coming.

140 But is this where we are going? Here is a young man, a Teenager, who stopped into a 141 Whataburger for a bite to eat. He was wearing his MAGA hat — you know, MAKE 142 AMERICA GREAT AGAIN hat. Some dude walks up to him, and takes his hat, starts 143 yelling at him about supporting Trump — "you ain't supporting nothing — you 144 EXPLETIVE" — then he picks up this kid's coke and throws it into his face — then walks 145 off with his hat.

146 Dinesh is telling us anytime this stuff happens, I mean when it's clearly an attack on you 147 because of your personal beliefs, you need to report it to management, and in the case of 148 physical assault, you need to file charges. How does that jibe with Jesus' instruction to 149 turn the other cheek? I've written on that in my paper titled War And The Christian 150 Ethos. Write me an email and I'll send it to you.

151 The bottom line is that Jesus was not talking about criminal behavior—obviously, if 152 someone rapes your daughter, you don't say, well, we need to turn the other cheek so let's 153 just forgive and let go. Right? How do you "turn the cheek" in a criminal situation without 154 exposing others to the criminal's abuse? Romans 13:1-6 says government is supposed to 155 execute wrath on the evil-doer—let government do its job.

156 Clearly, that is not what Jesus meant! I don't have time to go into it here, write an email to 157 me and I'll send you my paper War And The Christian Ethos.

158 So, I say the biblical thing to do in a case like that is to hold the individual accountable for 159 their actions.

160 Hold on through the break. I'll be right back!

161 Segment.02 Hello. Welcome back! I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, 162 your brain masseur, and Paul Revere's lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the church 163 belfry arch, signaling the enemy is on the march, an enemy that would steal from us our 164 liberty.

165 I understand Kim Jung Un has been waffling on his promises — I'm sure Trump will be 166 disappointed, only the liberals these days hope for continued hostility between the US
167 and North Korea, so while Trump will be disappointed, I don't think it will come as a 168 total surprise to him. Pompeo is over there right now, I think he is still there, talking to 169 Rocket Man to sort things out. Let's see how it goes. I think North Korea is dealing with 170 something they are not ready for if they mess with this President.

171 Perhaps Kimmy (Rocket Man) has been talking to Rodman and decided his best bet is 172 with the American Left after all — their track record for admiring and supporting 173 dictators is much better.

174 Trump Administration responds to Lefist attacks on his Zero-Tolerance policy by 175 assessing the situation and revealing that it's worse than was thought — estimates of the 176 number of families that are separated at the border have been raised from 2000 to 3000,
177 with about 100 of these being toddlers. The left wants those toddlers put into jail with 178 their parents immediately. Even though it was a liberal group that complained about that 179 in 1992 and sued to have the children held in separate detention cells from their parents.

180 I wonder how that policy would work for Manafort—let's put Manafort's wife and children
181 in prison with him—Liberals don't believe in separating families of law breaking families, 182 right?

183 Manafort was Trump's campaign chairman, but when revelations about some of 184 Manafort's questionable past dealings began to surface, Trump dumped him and moved 185 on. There are some very concerning allegations that Manafort was in debt to Russian 186 interests to the tune of some, what was it, 17 million dollars, or something like that. Also 187 some shenanigans related to his work with the former President of the Ukraine — I 188 understand that Ukrainian officials want to question Manafort about what role he played, 189 if any, in the 2014 police killings of protestors in Kiev. With regard to anything related to 190 Mueller's investigation, it should be said that Manafort denies he has ever knowingly 191 spoken to any Russian intelligence officers or that he has ever had any dealings with the 192 Russian government or the Putin Administration.

193 Anyway, it's very obvious that Mueller really, really, hopes he can find a connection 194 between Manafort and Russia and link that to the election in 2016, and it would be a 195 special bonus if he can get Manafort to implicate "The Donald" directly. And that is what 196 this is all about my friends.

197 So, it's not okay to separate families from people who are accused of breaking laws — but 198 it's okay for them to deprive Manafort of his right to counsel — yeah, I understand 199 Mueller is obstructing Manafort's communications with his lawyers, and even has 200 obstructed his right to have counsel present when interrogated. Uh huh — the FBI has 201 Manafort locked away in isolation — trying to break him down like they did Flynn — and 202 just like the case of Flynn, they hope to beat Manafort down into confessing to something 203 that never happened. These people are getting increasingly desperate — I have been 204 warning you to pray, pray, and pray some more, and watch, and pay attention, and be 205 prepared — because when this all comes out, when it finally comes time to put Hillary in 206 cuffs and haul her off to jail, when it comes time to pull that tree from its roots and cast it 207 into the sea — her and Obama both — there is going to be a major reaction folks.

208 Look, I don't know whether Manafort is guilty or innocent about things related to his 209 personal business, but what I know is that Mueller really, really, hopes he is guilty and is 210 operating on the assumption that he is guilty of something that will tie the Trump 211 campaign to Russian collusion.

212 It's what I said months ago — Mueller is a bully, this is his modus operandi — he has 213 done this kind of thing before. He is handling this investigation like he did when he went 214 after Mob bosses — if you have to bend a few rules to get the job done, well that's the way 215 a cookie crumbles; you know, you can't make an omelet without breaking some eggs. Like 216 when Mao was questioned about the number of people being killed in his revolution and 217 he explained: a revolution is not a picnic. So!

218 After all, we watched Jack Bower do it and cheered. Yeah! Well, it's a totally different 219 picture when you don't have control of the script.

220 Remember Mueller's involvement in the framing and imprisonment of four innocent 221 men while Assistant US Attorney? The FBI withheld evidence proving the innocence of 222 these men in order to protect the cover of mass-murderer Whitey Bulger when Bulger 223 was considered a high value FBI Informant. Uh huh! Gotta break a few eggs — by the 224 way, this is not conspiracy theory — this has been prosecuted and the FBI had to pay out 225 over 100 million in restitution — it was PROVED that the FBI purposely withheld 226 evidence that exonerated these four men of the charge of murder. They rotted in prison 227 for TEN YEARS and the whole time Mueller and company knew they were innocent.
228 Three of them died before their lie was exposed.

229 Don't talk to me about Trump denigrating the reputation of the FBI — are you kidding 230 me?

231 Mueller is up to the same tactics here. The FBI leaked lies about having evidence of a 232 Russian connection to Manafort to the press. They claimed to have evidence of a 233 connection between Manafort and Russian officials. The press ran with it.

234 In this way they created a cloud of suspicion as a cover to hold him, and now his lawyers 235 are demanding the release of this "evidence" that they told the press they had. Illegally, by 236 the way! These leaks from the FBI are illegal—with implications as serious as anything 237 Manafort has been accused of. Serious crimes are being committed here within the FBI — 238 and Sessions it would seem is curled up in a corner somewhere with his thumb in his 239 mouth afraid to act. What do they have on Sessions?

240 Manafort's lawyers have asked for the evidence the FBI claims that it has. You understand 241 what has happened here, right?

242 Evidence has come out that proves the FBI leaked this information to the press. So now 243 Manafort's lawyers are seeing evidence supporting the suspicion that the FBI is "after 244 Manafort" to get at Trump. In other words, that it's politically motivated. In other words, 245 that Manafort is a political prisoner. So they have demanded that this evidence be turned 246 over to Manafort's defense, which is reasonable, appropriate, and the Law. The special 247 counsel replies by saying "the special counsel's office has no evidence in its possession 248 responsive to Manafort's request for transcripts, notes, or tapes of any and all 249 conversation or contacts between Russian intelligence or government officials and 250 Manafort." You read this stuff long enough and you begin to recognize weasel-speak 251 when you hear it.

252 In other words, the basis of their leaks, their so-called "evidence" consisted entirely in 253 rumors they heard. But it does not constitute evidence. A rumor might serve as a lead, but 254 it's not evidence.

255 Unfortunately for Mueller, the leaks to the press indicated they had evidence. In fact, they 256 leaked it out that they had evidence produced by federal surveillance efforts. Then they 257 should have that evidence in their possession — but obviously they do not. Either that, or 258 they are withholding evidence, again.

259 Manafort's attorneys are saying that since the special counsel's office admits it has no
260 evidence supporting their allegations against Manafort that was used to justify their probe 261 of Manafort in connection with Mueller's investigation, then there is no legal basis for 262 Mueller's probe and Manafort must be released forthwith, and the people who 263 perpetrated this fraud upon him must be punished, and the "unfair prejudice to Mr.
264 Manafort must be remedied."

265 Now, here is where it gets really messy for Mueller and his mules. You see, these leaks 266 were lies — that much we have established — and they were leaked during the campaign 267 in 2016 — they were strategically leaked just as voters were making up their mind about 268 candidates — October 31, 2016, in fact — and it appeared in an NBC News Story — it was 269 leaked that the FBI had hard evidence that Manafort, connected to the Trump campaign, 270 was in communication with Russian intelligence officers.

271 In other words, the collusion to interfere with a campaign was Obamabots in the FBI at 272 that time trying to manipulate the election.

273 There are something like, let me count them — six specific accusations against Manafort 274 that the FBI leaked to the MSM saying they had evidence to support — sometimes even 275 explaining how they got their evidence.

276 So, Manafort's lawyers say, okay, let's see it! And Mueller and company respond by saying 277 — Uh, well, actually, we don't have any evidence.

278 You see, it was never supposed to get out there that the FBI was the source of the 279 "evidence."

280 1Cor. 4:5 "... judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to 281 light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts...."

282 Okay, what else do we have here?
283 You know what, I've only got a few minutes left, let's talk about how we need to pray 284 about Trump's next Supreme Court pick.
285 I heard Mike Lee was up for consideration — I'm reading now that the conversation 286 between Trump and Lee was for advice in whom to pick, not a job interview. Too bad! In 287 my view, Lee would have been the best pick of the six I understand was at one time on his 288 list.
289 Three names remain: Federal appeals court judges Kavanaugh, Barret, and Kethledge.
290 All are reputedly conservative, originalists, and textualists. In other words each of these 291 jurists has a reputation for ruling according to LAW and not according to the fluctuating 292 consensus of political correctness.
293 Kavanaugh is suspect. Some pro-life groups are concerned about his ruling in a case that 294 involved an illegal immigrant coming to the US who claimed to have a right to get an 295 abortion while in detention. He ruled against the idea that an illegal immigrant held in 296 detention could get an abortion on demand, which is good; but the concern is that that he 297 did not join the dissent written by Judge Karen LeCraft Henderson, who wrote that "the 298 teenager had no right to an abortion because she was not a citizen and had entered the 299 country illegally." If you think about it, it is surprising that he would not have signed on 300 to this dissent. Someone comes here to murder the baby in her womb under our laws 301 when she is not a citizen and so has no such "rights" under our laws.
302 Also, Judge Kavanaugh's 2011 ruling on Obamacare is disturbing. He did dissent from 303 the majority decision that upheld that wretched law; however, he did it on jurisdictional 304 grounds. In other words, apparently he sees no Constitutional problem with the 305 government provided mandated health care but felt the case was brought by persons 306 without jurisdiction to make a claim.
307 So, these things bother me about Kavanaugh. It sounds to me that he would be a Kennedy 308 but with a slightly rightward pull as opposed to Kennedy's leftward pull. An 309 improvement, but not!
310 Kethledge — well, there is not much I can find about him, yet. He clerked for Kennedy, 311 so it might be suspected he would be like him; but Gorsuch also clerked for Kennedy, so 312 that's not always a predictor. I would be interested in reading some of his work for 313 Kennedy — some of the cases he examined and studied while helping Kennedy prepare 314 his rulings — but nothing has come to surface yet. With Gorsuch, however, he sat on the 315 bench of the 10th circuit court of Appeals, let's see, he was appointed by Bush to that 316 court in 2006, so we had a lot of case rulings to evaluate. He was a proven 317 Constitutionalist, original intent, textual jurist.
318 We don't have that opportunity to see how Kethridge would rule; so, I'm not real excited 319 about Kethridge.
320 That leaves Amy Coney Barret — when some of my friends enthusiastically 321 recommended her I was not enthusiastic. The reason is that as per usual, it's all about how 322 the Demoncrats can't attack a girl like they can a guy — of course if she were not pro-life

323 or a Constitutionalist original intent textualist, none of my friends would recommend her, 324 I mean, we don't need another Bader. So I understood that she must be all of these good 325 things or my friends would not recommend her — but, I tend to resist that kind of 326 approach, in any case, and I was hoping for Mike Lee, or Ted Cruz — both of those men 327 are extremely well grounded in Constitutional law, and are committed to the principles of 328 textual reading of the Constitution as the law of the land guided by original intent in 329 preference to case law or precedent.

330 (As an aside: It's interesting that the liberals are all in favor of precedent so long as the 331 precedent was established long after the Founders passed away and especially when the 332 ruling deviated from what was precedent at the time. For example, they want to ensconce 333 Roe v Wade as the ancient law of the land, as if trying to reverse Roe would be 334 tantamount to overturning the meaning of the word marriage, you know, something 335 really radical like that. But as law goes, Roe v Wade was Avant Garde in its day, it was a 336 major break from precedent — in fact, it directly contradicted precedent — but now they 337 want to hold it up as if it has the honor of precedent. That is not going to fly!)

338 Okay, so, now, Mike Lee is not in consideration; and everything I'm reading about Amy 339 Coney Barrett is very encouraging. She has been consistent, her views have been made 340 clear on the issues of concern to us, including the issue of abortion and homosexuality — 341 there is good reason to hope she would be open to reexamining Roe v Wade and at least 342 throw it into the hands of the Legislature where it belongs.

343 So if it is down to these three, I'm hoping the Monday announcement will be Deorah!
344 Haha! I mean Barrett. Those of you who know your Bible can email me and let me know 345 you get it!

346 I have lit the lamps in the Church belfry arch and now you let me know if you see them.
347 It's LIGHTS ON if you see the LIGHTS ARE ON and you will ride like Revere and spread 348 the warning, (essentially, it means you agree with what I'm saying) or you say LIGHTS 349 OFF -- which means you reject what I'm saying and disagree strongly with me. So, what 350 will it be today, lights on, or lights off?
