Original Air Date: 11.24.18

1 Segment.01 Hello. I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor of the Lighthouse Baptist Church in 2 Santa Maria, CA—and your brain masseur—get ready for your brain massage.

3 I'm wrapping up our vacation — we've had a wonderful time together! Looking forward 4 to getting back into the saddle — we plan to return Wednesday — I'll be back in my 5 pulpit at the Lighthouse Wednesday night. These things called vacations — the word 6 comes from the French word vacare, which means to be unoccupied — have some merit 7 — I am already feeling recharged and ready for a return to full service. I trust you have 8 enjoyed your Thanksgiving Holiday — and you are looking forward to Christmas.

9 What I'm going to do is throw down some commentary on some recent issues — and 10 intersperse that with some Christmas music and maybe I'll throw in a Psalm or two — 11 let's get started.

12 It's time for your Brain Massage.

13 [TRUTH]

14 What is the Brain Masseur's take on Acosta accosting the President and the Court's ruling
15 regarding his WH Press Pass creds? What about Trump's decision on the Crown Prince 16 Saud of Saudi Mohamed bin Salman — did the prince order the killing of Jamal 17 Khashoggi?

18 (Sounds like a Japanese name — anyway)

19 Okay, let's start here. I can't say I trust the CIA's assessment — it's ambiguous. It is not a 20 definitive report and the MSM are disingenuous in the way they are reporting on this — 21 what a surprise. And you surely get why Trump and his cabinet would be suspicious and 22 careful about moving aggressively on intelligence that is not 100% actionable on a matter 23 of such importance.

24 The CIA — I repeat, the CIA has NOT definitively determined the culpability of the 25 Crown Prince in the murder of the erstwhile journalist. There does seem to be some 26 evidence he was supportive of the riddance of Khashoggi who was increasingly annoying 27 the family of Saud, but whether he ordered the killing of Khashoggi (sound Japanese) 28 continues to be denied by the Saudis and emphatically by the Crown Prince himself, and 29 the king and the rest of the family is standing by his denials.

30 Personally, it's not the sort of thing that would surprise me coming from this family, why 31 America continues to entangle herself with this crowd puzzles me and probably has a lot 32 to do with things I am not privy to —I hope it is not simply about oil and arms deals and 33 economics. In fact, I'm certain it has more to do with national security concerns that are 34 tied to Middle East stability, an need to protect the interests of our Israeli friends while 35 keeping our Iranian enemies at bay, and an interest in avoiding driving the Saudis into 36 Russian or Chinese hands — you know, a lot of secret squirrel stuff like that.

37 I certainly hope Trump's simplistic answer — that he did not want to upset American and 38 world economic and oil interests — was not all there is to it. I agree that it would be 39 inappropriate to dissolve all ties with Saudi Arabia over this alleged human rights abuse 40 when neither Obama, nor Clinton, nor any President would dissolve ties with China over, 41 say, Tiannamen Square — something that happened right in front of our eyes, or when 42 Iran cracked down on a move for freedom back in the day — and Obama ignored their 43 plea for help — the hypocrisy of the left is appalling — but more on that later — so, I get 44 it! It would not be appropriate to cut off ties to Saudi Arabia unless we are willing to cut 45 off ties with Russia, China, and Turkey too, by the way, with Pakistan, and, well, you 46 name it — these countries routinely abuse the human rights of Christians, and other 47 dissidents — they kill, torture, imprison, journalists, refuse to allow free speech, and all 48 the things that American journalists cherish, except when it comes to Kim Jung Ill or — 49 you know what I mean? The swamp sludge is thick with Hypocrisy and almost impossible 50 to wade through —

51 But for my part, I want nothing to do with countries that refuse to recognize the 52 inalienable rights of all men. These rights are GOD given and they are the birth right of 53 mankind.

54 While Trump sounded like he was subordinating human rights to our economic plight — 55 I think I've learned how to read this President — it's really simple — he refuses to allow 56 the left to manipulate him into doing something for purely political purposes.

57 So, the stakes are way to high for President Trump to allow himself to be manipulated by 58 the hate-Trump media into taking action based on allegations that are not 100% proved.
59 The more serious the allegation, the more serious the consequences of action, the more 60 necessary it is that the evidence be compelling. If there is any room for, ready for this?
61 "reasonable doubt" (remember that old yarn?) — he would be foolish to act on it when the 62 consequences of action are in this case so very, very serious. But, again, the Left is taking 63 the sledge hammer to yet another valuable, cherished, American ideal — the bar has 64 always been set at "beyond reasonable doubt" — now they want to lower it to a believable
65 allegation — if it's believable, that's enough for the Left. A believable allegation warrants 66 investigation but does not warrant judgment.

67 I think Trump is on the right track in the Khashoggi matter. As for his former 68 connections with Bin Laden — well, after some investigation into that matter, there is 69 reasonable doubt that he was ever actually allied with Bin Laden and there is plausibility 70 to the argument that in fact he had a falling out with Osama Bin Lying — after the 71 conflict with Russia in Afghanistan, and that the issue was concern that Osama continued 72 the war beyond the conflict with Russia and was beginning to set his sites on targets 73 beyond the Russian occupation of Afghanistan. On the other hand, there is this picture of 74 Khashoggi holding an RPG in the company of Bin Laden — so!

75 I'll be right back!

76 [Break — etc.]

77 Segment.02 Hello. Welcome back! I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, 78 your brain masseur, and Paul Revere's lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the church 79 belfry arch, signaling the enemy is on the march, an enemy that would steal from us our 80 liberty.

81 What is the Brain Masseur's take on Acosta accosting the President and the Court's ruling 82 regarding his WH Press Pass creds?

83 And what's Roberts flapping about there are no Obama judges, and Clinton judges, and 84 Reagan judges, and Trump judges? Of course there are — all we are saying is there are 85 judges nominated by Reagan, judges nominated by Clinton, Bush, Obama — no body is 86 suggesting these Presidents own these judges in any way. Obviously, when a President 87 nominates a judge, he does so because he believes that Jurist shares some particular values 88 in common with the President — that has certainly become the issue, and increasingly so 89 since Roe — since the Court became a legislating branch of government, since the Court 90 politicized itself by weighing in on social conscience issues and making rulings that 91 amount to legislation.

92 Acosta is well named — he is an accosting sort of fellow — to accost is to address boldly
93 or aggressively — Acosta accosted the President during the fateful press conference — 94 you've all seen the video, you've heard about this ad nausea — the guy is just rude. The 95 Left has become a Party of rude, mean-spirited, bullies. It's sad!

96 But that is what Socialism does to people — it makes them mean! Millions have been 97 murdered and had their rights abused in the name of Socialism — Socialism is anti-social, 98 and it's anti-human rights. The cruelest people of history have been socialists — Lenin, 99 Hitler, Pol Pot — and that only gets us started. Have you ever heard of the China 100 Democratic Socialist Party? Is that what you want for America? And they all get their 101 power over the people the same way — promising them free cheese.

102 You know that mice die in mousetraps because they do not understand why the cheese is 103 free. Think about it!

104 Anyway, Acosta the accoster had his WH press pass revoked and he sued with CNN's 105 backing and a court ordered the White House to return the press credentials to Acosta 106 and the media make it sound like Trump suffered this great loss and Acosta won and they 107 make it out like it's about free speech — and it's all nonsense.

108 Essentially, the court said the White House (that is, Trump) needs to establish rules that 109 apply equally to everyone; it's a matter of due process and not first amendment rights, 110 since no one was denied their first amendment rights of free speech or a free press. The 111 fact is, the President is not obliged to hold press conferences and there is no free speech 112 infringement involved in denying someone access to the President.

113 Everyone forgets Obama's use of the Espionage Act to harass reporters — Times Reporter 114 Ali Watkins, Fox News reporters James Risen, and Rosen. Risen wrote, shortly after 115 Trump's election: "If Donald J. Trump decides as president to throw a whistle-blower in 116 jail for trying to talk to a reporter, or gets the F.B.I. to spy on a journalist, he will have one 117 man to thank for bequeathing him such expansive power: Barack Obama.”<sup>1</sup>

118 But, of course, today’s anti-Trump press corps — for a corpse it is — a pack of Zombies 119 with only one thing on their small minds — “eat Trump’s brain,” brings none of this out.

120 Anyway, I agree with the court’s ruling. Not real sure I get the connection of this case to 121 the fifth amendment, and its extension in the 14th amendment — that is, I’m not clear on 122 how telling a reporter he is not welcome to a press conference actually deprives a right — 123 I mean, the due process right is connected to, well, rights, right? — a right to life, or a 124 right to liberty, or a right to property. Does anyone have a right to life claim connected 125 with being invited to a press conference with the President? Does anyone have a right of 126 property associated with an invitation to a press conference with the President, or a right 127 of liberty — does everyone, or anyone, have a right of liberty guaranteeing an invitation to 128 participate in a press conference provided by the President? See what I mean?

129 These press conferences are not a right of the people — they are a service provided at the 130 pleasure of the President, and an invitation to attend is a courtesy extended to the press
131 who are invited at his pleasure and they have no obligation to attend — if the President 132 withdraws an invitation to an unruly guest to his press conference, isn’t that his business 133 to do so?

134 I suppose one could argue a sort of “right of way” has been established by long use — is 135 there a sort of adverse possession of a right to attend the press conferences established by 136 the fact that for years this is something President’s have done? Is there a claim of 137 “property right” on the part of the media whose “property in trade” is news, to have access 138 to these press conferences if any other competitor does? You see how convoluted this is?
139 Where is this judge coming from on this?

140 I’ll have to examine it longer — I’m on vacation at present, so! haha.

141 Anyway, let’s grant for the moment that there is a sort of “right” in the area of liberty? No!
142 That is a stretch too far. But maybe in the area of “property” — maybe, and I think it’s a 143 stretch, but maybe one could argue that if the President grants access to any media he has 144 an obligation to grant access to all media — but surely you can see how this could become 145 problematic — and so, if we accept this notion, it might be reasonable to argue in order to 146 withdraw that right, there must be previously established rules of decorum to which all 147 invitees are equally subscribed and there must be some formal procedure established 148 whereby this presumed “right” of access is denied or curtailed, blah, blah — I think you 149 see what I mean.

150 I don’t see any “rights” being denied here for which there would be any required due 151 process. Acosta can print whatever he chooses and say what he chooses, but there is no 152 right to take over a press conference and dominate it rudely. And what about his denial of 153 the access of others to the President by his rude behavior — this is the most NON-story 154 on which I have ever had the displeasure to offer commentary — it's a sideshow.

155 Acosta accosted the President and was rightly rebuffed for doing so. End of story!

156 Here, enjoy!

157 Segment.03 Hello. Welcome back! I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, and 158 your resting brain masseur.

159 I understand the Anglican Church has decided God is too masculine. They want to 160 neutralize the gender of Deity — at least the Christian Diety — not Aphrodites, or Venus, 161 or Amaterasu, or Hina, or Ireland's Morrigan — all female deities — no gender problems 162 with these female deities — so only the male deities need to be well, de-gendered, or 163 neutered, shall we say. Although, I must say, I've heard no complaint about Zeus, no need 164 to neuter Zeus! Only the Christian GOD must be neutered. Is that tacit admission He is, 165 after all, the only true GOD?

166 Odd. It's like this back and forth I watched between Tucker and some Liberal Lady on the 167 issue of toxic masculinity. He kept saying there was no definition of toxic masculinity, 168 and she kept insisting there was — and on that issue, Tucker made the mistake of going 169 to a Dictionary of the English language where no such term exists, and forgot that the 170 Liberal Lady was talking about some book a liberal wrote where this term was used to 171 describe men that abuse women — so in her mind it's a settled term in the nomenclature 172 of American parlance, it's a, well, it's a politically correct term — but Tucker hit it on the 173 head when he asked for the meaning of toxic femininity — why is it always something 174 that bashes men, and especially white men? What is this all about?

175 It's about destroying the foundations of our society — the bedrock upon which this 176 country was founded — the beliefs and values of white European men who back in the 177 early 18th century hit upon the idea of the American Republic — who happened to be 178 Christian in their values and perspective and worldview which perspective and worldview 179 was informed by the Bible. It's about casting off Christian heritage — it's about the raging 180 of the heathen, saying, "we will not have that man (JESUS) to reign over us" — just as 181 Jesus predicted — and screaming, "let us break their bands asunder and cast away their 182 cords from us," as prophesied over 3,000 years ago in Psalm 2.

183 But here is the thing — for, well how long has it been — when I was in Bible College 184 doing my undergraduate work back in the 70s and taking courses in Contemporary 185 Theology we were tracking theological trends, which included this idea that God is 186 neither He nor She — actually, what they wanted then was to make out that God was a 187 SHE, and then later it went to that God was neutered — neither male nor female — 188 gender neutral, and that was all back in the 70s and we, the hated "fundamentalists," were 189 speaking out against this way back then and the Protestant churches, most of them, 190 refused to listen, and their members continued supporting the corrupted denominations 191 — and even now, when these things come out, many complain about it and speak against 192 it but continue to support those dead and putrifying denominations — I'll tell you why we

193 can't get justice in the land — it is because we can't get it in the HOUSE of GOD — the 194 Churches need to repent of having turned their backs on the GOD of the BIBLE.

195 Judgment will come — and many will be surprised because they are looking for it to fall 196 on all the really bad people out there in the world — but my friend, it begins with the 197 HOUSE OF GOD. The Church will be purged first. So I call on you, dear remnant, repent 198 toward GOD and get ready — Ezekiel 9.

199 Okay, gotta go. See you in church.
