IMMUNITY QUESTION / THE COMING MONKEY-MEN

Segment.01 Hello. I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor of the Lighthouse Baptist Church in Santa Maria, CA—and your brain masseur—get ready for your brain massage.

“When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn” (Proverbs 29:2).

Cromwell coined the slogan: No King but Jesus, and some of our Revolutionaries during the War for Independence used it.¹ I wrote the book that proves it is what the Bible teaches! Get God's War — digital or hardback — go to booksatdbp.com.

The Super Bowl wasn't! And the mRNA vaccine that isn't!

What about Presidential Immunity? Should it be absolute?

Democrats invite foreign ambassadors to vote in DC.²

Fani's got her panties in a knot!³ Watch her here!⁴ Sounds like Fani is getting a taste of turn-about-fair-play.

While Fani has hers in the fire she started for Trump, not far from her Fulton Co. courtroom, a “mostly peaceful” riot broke out featuring the arrest of Teresa Yue Shen, daughter of James Shen, publisher of a CCP-controlled media outlet and a Chinese Pharma Tycoon, making Teresa a CCP Pharma's daughter.

Biden's DOJ arrested a former FBI informant — one of the few brave ones who saw something and said something! He saw bribe money going to Biden from a Ukrainian energy Company, Burisma, and blew the whistle. Now he is arrested — another political prisoner of the Bidenista Regime.⁵

Government propaganda Media is freaking out because a Russian leader was killed in a Russian prison. The same media had nothing to say about the American Journalist who was arrested and killed by the Biden-Zelensky regime in Ukraine.⁶

Not all the salt is depleted from US Justice: Idaho House Officials passed a bill allowing convicted sex offenders to face the death penalty if they abused children under the age of 12.⁷ Way to go, Idaho.

Oh, and in the meanwhile, they are working on what you might call a deevolution program — creating monkey-human hybrids.⁸

The Super Bowl wasn't! Super, that is! It lacked luster, even drama — something you always expect when Mahomes scrambles about in the pocket. But it appears Swift did not disappoint — at least in the drama department.

Glen Beck's Blaze put together a great analysis of the game; see it here.⁹ The article is titled "Satan wrote a funny Super Bowl script." Ice Spice wore an inverted Cross, and, I understand, she was observed flashing some Satanic hand gestures from the "Swiftly suite." [IBID. Go here if you are interested in Snopes' explanation of the cross; I noticed no mention of the hand gestures, so any away].¹⁰

Glen calls Swift the "gateway drug to Ice Spice." [IBID].

And the He Gets Us ads are a gateway drug to a fully neutered Christianity. I know that Jesus knelt to wash His disciple's feet and encouraged them to follow His example! So, by all means, wash the disciples' feet. And pass out bottles of water to thirsty homeless people in the name of a disciple — that is, as a representative of Christ Jesus. Go for it! I like it! We are working to put together such a ministry at the Lighthouse! The message, however, of neither of these loving gestures is "Jesus didn't teach hate." It's a bit more nuanced!

Of course, He offered God's goodwill gesture: "On earth peace, good will toward men" (Luke 2:14). You can't have "peace on earth" and love evil too—the WORD also said, "Ye that love the LORD, hate evil" (Psalm 87:10). And "the fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate" (Proverbs 8:13).

O, that's Old Testament! Okay, so. you don't believe the Bible is the product of the WORD Who was in the beginning; you never read, "In the beginning was the WORD, and the WORD was WITH GOD, and the WORD WAS GOD," and then in verse 14, "THE WORD WAS MADE FLESH AND DWELT AMONG US..."?

Well, anyway, Jesus actually used the word hate after His resurrection when He was offering His evaluation of His churches at the close of the Apostolic era—and he praised the Church of Ephesus because they "hated the deeds of the Nicolaitans" — just like He did (Revelation 2:6).

But that's not people, that's deeds! Got it! Have you got it? If you've got that, then He's got you! Intolerance against evil is prized by Jesus Christ. Evil-doers are appointed to wrath — the vengeance of the sword of civil judgment (Romans 13:1-6). If you want to go wash the feet of those strapped into the electric chair in Idaho for raping or otherwise sexually abusing children, just do it before they throw the switch.

If you think Jesus is going to kneel to the wicked and wash their feet on the day of judgment, just before He commands them to depart into the Lake of Fire prepared for the Devil and his angels, you've got it backward. Every knee will bow to Him, and every tongue will confess He is LORD.

Remember, the washing of the feet was intended for those who had "part with Jesus." That's what He told Peter: if I don't wash your feet, you have no part with me. Judas' was present, and Jesus did include him in the gesture but made it clear Judas was not among washed—showing His gesture was symbolic of the spiritual washing we receive when forgiven of our sins. Even though we are washed, our feet get dirty as we traverse this life and need regular washing: see Revelation 1:5-6 where we are told that we are washed from our sins by His blood, and see 1 John 1:7-9 where we are told that if we confess our sins He is faithful and just to "cleanse" us; and 1 Corinthians 7 where we are told to “cleanse ourselves of all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of GOD.” So, though our soul is washed, our “feet” get dirty and must be regularly washed—we need to be forgiving of one another.

Indeed, Judas was fully taken over by the “prince of this world” that Jesus said, “hath nothing in me” (John 14:30). At the time his feet were washed by the Master, Judas was “with” Jesus, but he departed, and as John, who observed these things later testified: those who go “out from us ... were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us” (1John 2:9). John was talking about those Judas’ that pretend to be believers but, like Judas, they hang around with the “washed,” but they are not washed.

Nevertheless, this was recognized as an exhortation to extend ministry to the saints (see 1 Timothy 5:10), and that included the custom of washing the feet of guests as they entered your home as a humble service, but I never noted any example of believers washing the feet of sinners in the streets, or, well, anywhere. But there certainly would be examples of believers rendering humble service to their neighbors throughout every day and wherever we may be. Be ready to serve — return the shopping cart, okay? At least move it out of the parking lot. I’m just sayin’!

Yes, be a servant! But not of men. Of CHRIST to men! Not as men-pleasers but as servants of CHRIST. (Ephesians 6:6).

Jesus never took a bowl of water and went into the streets to find some beggar’s feet to wash. He fed them instead! And the woman He forgave of adultery was instructed to “go and sin no more.”

The ad communicates a partial truth! Not surprising! Christianity has been preaching a “partial gospel” for a very long time.

I’ll have to address the mRNA vaccine that isn’t! on Brain Massage LIVE.

Hold on through the break! I'll be right back!

Segment.02 Hello. Welcome back! I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, your brain masseur, and Paul Revere's lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the church belfry arch, signaling the enemy is on the march, an enemy that would steal from us our liberty.

What about Presidential Immunity? Should it be absolute? The Constitution does not specify this as an absolute privilege of the office of the President. The argument on the side of executive immunity is political: without it, there will be a never-ending cycle of recrimination, with one Party attacking the next Party endlessly with law-fare. No question that something must be done to discourage that nonsense — the weaponization of the Department of Justice that we see in the Obama-Biden administrations makes that very clear.

But the legal basis for it is actually a bit weak. Back in Nixon's day (that's President Nixon—you know, the Watergate guy, who was accused of weaponizing the FBI against political opponents and got caught up in a huge coverup scandal. Well, before that, some contractor brought a civil lawsuit against Nixon based on losses he incurred connected with a political policy of his administration. This made its way to the Supreme Court, which, upon the rationale that if presidents could be sued in a personal capacity for perhaps unpopular policy, it would make it impossible for him to do the job.¹¹ To get more background, go here.¹²

¹² 973.5.2-Nixon v. Fitzgerald - Wikipedia https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Nixon_v._Fitzgerald

The closest thing the Constitution provides along these lines is the privilege from arrest.¹³ That is narrowly defined and specifically excludes treason, felony, and breach of the peace.

The argument on the other side of this is that Presidents are vulnerable to charges of “high crimes and misdemeanors” and so cannot hide behind a blanket immunity from prosecution of crimes.

Look, I’ll speak more to this, Lord willing, Saturday night during the Brain Massage® LIVE — let me just say I don’t think the Trump team should try to argue for blanket immunity from all prosecution of crime for any President or any other officer of the State. I don’t see that as a winning argument! His protection against legal harassment should arise from that argument in an honest court. I get it; the caveat is in the words “honest court.” But we cannot start creating laws in response to dishonest operators other than to make their operations also chargeable as crimes.

I believe the best defense for Trump is the fact that his actions to enquire into election fraud are fully within the purview of his function as the Chief Executive. The assumption he did it for political interests is a political, not a legal question. You can’t criminalize political motivation! To do so would be absurd! Whatever you could come up with, right or wrong, would reflect your political point of view. If you argue, well, the action cannot be politically motivated — are you kidding? What nonsense! Virtually every single action taken by any President can be tied, in one way or another, to some political agenda. If you say, well, it can’t be done to advance or protect one’s political power — that is also nonsense. Doing what constitutes a political interest is not itself right or wrong — you can’t prove motives; you can only assess deeds.

Actions that are contrary to law, well, that's a different thing!

Trump did not take any actions that were contrary to the law. Everything he did was within his prerogative as the Chief Executive and could as easily have been motivated by a passion to preserve transparency and integrity in our elections as some attempt to subvert an election. When a public official hires someone to stuff ballot boxes with fraudulently obtained and completed mail-in ballots in New Jersey — that's a crime with the obvious intent to subvert an election. When a President says, I want you to investigate some reports of voter fraud coming out of Fulton County — that action is not a crime. They need to remove Ketanji and put me on the court. Just sayin'! At least I know what a woman is!

Democrats invite foreign ambassadors to vote in DC.¹⁴ Yeah! No kidding! A non-US citizen from Hong Kong was appointed to the San Francisco Election Commission.¹⁵ May I remind you that Hong Kong is under the control of the CCP? Just in case you still think Bob Hope and Bing Crosby play there! The Road to Hong Kong — that's back in 1962. Things have changed! Back then, when it was under British rule, no one for one moment would even think about appointing a non-citizen from Hong Kong to any city Election Commission in America. I wonder if this guy knows Swalwell's spy girl, Christine Fang?¹⁶ Or maybe he knows Feinstein's driver—the Chinese spy who drove one of our Senators around for 20 years.¹⁷

What's with CA politicians and their love affair with the CCP? Do you Democrats really think it's a good idea to run Newsome for President? Xi likes the idea! At least that picture of Newsome with Xi grinning released by the Governor's office would make you think so. I saw one depicting their initial greeting, and it looked more like Xi was surprised he had to spend time with the most colossal failure of a Governor in the history of America! But he probably liked the APEC summit — you know, the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation summit? Newsome might be just the guy to tie down America under the Chinese.

Fani's got her panties in a knot!¹⁸ Watch her, here!¹⁹ Angry that she, the “high and mighty” District Attorney of Fulton Co, Georgia,²⁰ and would be “Trump Slayer,” would be so demeaned as to be compelled to sit in a witness box and answer questions for her unethical behavior. She considers her treatment to be “contrary to democracy.” How ironic! Or, rather, moronic!

And while we are talking about corrupt politicians in a Georgia county famous for its role in stealing the 2020 election, we should not neglect this news from Atlantic City, New Jersey. Former member of the City Council of Atlantic City and a political organizer for the Democrat Party, Craig Callaway, faces a criminal complaint alleging he illegally obtained and cast ballots in the Sounds like while Fani is getting a taste of turn-about-fair-play, in Atlanta, not far from her Fulton Co. courtroom, a “mostly peaceful” riot broke out featuring the arrest of Teresa Yue Shen, daughter of James Shen, publisher of a CCP-controlled media outlet and a big Pharma Tycoon, making Teresa a CCP Pharma’s daughter — yeah, total Maoists — and a member of Antifa. This chic was angry that a “non-binary” crackpot got shot by a cop. Never mind that the state cop was shot and returned fire that killed the non-bi dude. But Shen’s mother is a “global diversity expert” — so! You know, you can’t have any non-binary types shot by police, even if it is in self-defense.

You have no defense against perverts! If they are men who want to be identified as a woman, or the reverse, or if they want to marry, I don’t know, their favorite Jeep — or if they want to shoot you! They do what they want! If you don’t let them, they will come burn down your city. By the way, this is almost certainly a prelude to what’s coming this Summer from the Democrat BLM-Hamas terrorist wing to be deployed by Soros et al.

Talk about INJUSTICE?

It’s like the liberals to recognize something is a viable weapon and then do everything that they can to make sure they control it! Like guns. They are perfectly fine with guns, so long as the government controls them all!

Free speech will be their undoing. So long as the truth-tellers use it. It’s like this. Every gun-involved massacre ends when a good guy with a gun shows up. Every bad guy with a gun finally gets stopped by a good with a gun. The same is true of words! When the bad people control all the words — we are doomed! Words in the hands of the good guys are the ONLY WAY TO BEAT BACK so-called disinformation. SPEAK UP — good guys! Use your words!

Oh, and in the meanwhile, they are working on what you might call a reverse evolution program — creating monkey-human hybrids.²⁵ You understand that if you are going to put humans in cages, you will need to dehumanize them first. That's a lot easier than trying to do it after they have already lived as humans, you know. Ask Mao, Stalin too. Oh, wait, you can't. Okay, ask Ji what kind of problems he and his devil-worshipping wife are having with those pesky human rights-believing Christians. Very difficult to be always trying to reeducate people when all you really have to do is kill them all and make monkeys to replace them.

The Revelation describes some very weird creatures that are likely the product of monkeying around with genetics. Listen to this description of an organic weapon: a horse with breastplates of fire and brimstone with the head of a lion; when they open their mouth, they exhale fire, smoke, and brimstone, which kills 1/3 of the population of the planet. They also have power in their tails, which are like serpents, with a head that bites and hurts. They are ridden by horsemen — now, get the number of these that will come down across the earth, wiping out everyone in their path: there will be 200 million of these. 200 million weird genetically modified creatures made into weapons that will kill 1/3 of the world's population. that's over 2.5 billion people — that's almost enough to make Gate giggle.

I'll be in my pulpit Sunday. How about you come on out and let's meet?
