CHRISTIAN NATIONALISM - BIDEN VERSUS AMERICA

Original Air Date: 03.08.24

Segment.01 Hello. I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor of the Lighthouse Baptist Church in Santa Maria, CA—and your brain masseur—get ready for your brain massage.

In show no. 974, I began a conversation with you about Christian Nationalism. I offered a general definition and explained somewhat of my own understanding of the term and the issue it raises. In show no. 975 I discussed the context in which the current debate is framed. Today, I want to dig more deeply into rightly understanding the movement that is being called Christian Nationalism.

But, of course, I want to speak to the State of the Union. Biden's bloviating Barbara Streisand (BBBS).

Buckle up, my friends; it's time for your Brain Massage®.

[TRUTH]

Christian Nationalism is likely to be the focus of Biden's campaign. It's an attack on Christian patriots — an old trick! One used by the Soviets and by the Nazis. It's important to understand what we, as Christian Patriots, believe about the role of Christianity in the world, specifically with reference to politics.

Before I offer my third installment in my series on Christian Nationalism, it's necessary for me to address Mr. Biden's remarks in his latest SOTUS — State of the Union Speech. Here is the full text of the speech.<sup>1</sup> I'm shocked at how poorly this is written. I thought it must be some AI thing produced by transcribing software, like Otter,<sup>2</sup> or Turbo Scribe,<sup>3</sup> or some other, like Apple’s Dictation.<sup>4</sup> I obtained the USA Today posting March 7, 2024, which offers the following source statement: “The White House released the transcript to President Joe Biden’s State of the Union address shortly after the speech started on Thursday night. Below is the full transcript of the address:” and the speech follows. I’m literally stunned. This is, without any question, the most poorly written SOTUS I’ve ever read. And I mean on the most mundane levels, like grammar and punctuation. It’s embarrassing! The weird formatting glitches might be ignored, except this came from the White House, folks.

It happens that the content of the speech does not fare better. Mike Johnson, our honorable Speaker of the House, remarked there was nothing in Biden’s speech with which we (Republicans) could agree — it’s supposed to be a unifying moment, he said, where the President reaches out to all Americans and attempts to unite us, this speech did not do that, said our Speaker! I read the speech; I agree with the Speaker. This was a nasty and divisive tirade aimed at painting more than 75 million Americans—a military term used for identifying targets for an air attack. Biden “painted” MAGA Americans.

However, with my tongue tightly jammed into my cheek (he said tongue-in-cheek)—hehe—I beg, somewhat, to differ! At least a few opening remarks should solicit at the least a smirking assent: Biden said, “Not since President Lincoln and the Civil War have freedom and democracy been under assault here at home as they are today.” [IBID—1. Transcript] Well, that’s the truth!

Pelosi, Biden, et al. approved a plan to embed Federal agents in a peaceful protest to instigate a riot in order to create the impression that MAGA Patriots are violent insurrectionists.<sup>5</sup> Hiding from the American public over 40,000 hours of video that would have exonerated 90% of the J6ers unjustly detained and stripped of their rights Americans and their human rights as bearers of the Imago Dei (Im-A-go Day — Image of GOD) — I say “would have” because now that these videos have been released, many are being exonerated from the evidence that was kept from the court when they were originally tried. Bogus indictments against Biden’s political opponent, instigated by the Biden administration, egregious violations of 1st, 4th, and 8th amendment rights that are guaranteed by our Constitution by Biden’s Justice Department, outrageous and unjust rulings from many of our courts—excessive bail — 450 million dollars for securing a loan on statements for property values that the BANKS who made the loans accepted but Biden’s Trump-hating friend in New York, Prosecutor Letitia James, who has zero knowledge in Real Estate values, decided was inflated, the loans repaid in full, and the Banks actually testifying in Trump’s defense that they desired to do more business with Trump — IT’S MIND BLOWINGLY OUTRAGEOUS — the Prosecutor twisted the language of the law to try Trump on this bogus claim, and then the Trump-hating judge, Engoron, stretched a little used legal device in order to require TRUMP TO PAY THE FINE BEFORE HE CAN APPEAL THE DECISION — and denied his request to use a BAIL BOND — this is table pounding outrage!

Listen, we are only getting started here. The list of abuses of judgment, justice, and equity is literally piling up. The whole COVID thing, the universal distribution of mail-in balloting, it goes on and on and on! All the way to the FBI targeting people of faith, did you hear Josh Hawley go after Wray? Way to go, Josh! You should view this.<sup>6</sup> I mean, we have not even talked about the payola Biden received from the Chinese Communist Party and the crude way he bullied Ukraine into protecting his family honey pot in Ukraine — the man is evil!

I would say more than Biden. He said, “Not since President Lincoln and the Civil War have freedom and democracy been under assault here at home as they are today.” I would say that at no time since Jesus was tried and convicted before a Roman court by wicked men of Belial — and unjustly nailed to a cross, at the cheering of a mob made insane with jealousy, envy, and hatred has any other man come so close to such an inglorious display of raw human depravity as has been hurled upon President Trump by these wicked and perverse people.

In the hands of Biden and his ilk, freedom is soiled, and their beloved democracy has devolved into a tool for oppression — where now, the Democracy they hold dear is threatened by the Constitution — well, let me bring you in on a little secret.

Democratic MOB RULE crucified Jesus. Democracy was despised by our founders because they knew it always devolves into lawlessness which always evolves into Tyranny. When you hear a Democrat cry about “saving Democracy,” understand what they are saying: they are in a panic to save the Democratic Party from the JUSTICE OF LAW! In the name of Democracy, they have destroyed personal freedom and liberty — and they know the Constitution is against them. The MOB cannot run over the “minority” precisely because of the Constitution. And that’s why they hate it! We are a Republic! A land governed under LAW, whose laws are framed by officers appointed by the people. If there is a weakness, it’s in the tendency toward laziness—the disinclination to be vigilant and diligent in watching the ELECTIONS, like a praetorian guard, protecting the sanctity of the ballot box, the integrity of our elections.

Because we don’t have the government we deserve if we don’t have the government that we chose. Democrats want to break down every law that protects the integrity of our elections because they want mob rule — in which the mob rules without rules. They want the political mobsters to be able to take over our elections. I say it’s past time we bring the Mob and their bosses to face the LAW of JUSTICE and JUDGMENT.

Democracy invariably creates a tiered legal system in which the “majority” holding power is treated differently—they get a pass on the laws they pass on others. Only in a Republic is it possible to provide everyone equal footing before the law.

This Republic will only survive if the Democrat’s vision of Democracy fails and we restore the rule of law.

So, on that one point, I think we would agree with Biden—our liberty is at peril. And that’s why Biden MUST BE DEFEATED!

I’ll have to pick only one more and address the other stuff on Saturday night during the Brain Massage® LIVE at 8 PM. Catch me on Rumble or Facebook.

Biden is a warmongering president! He picked the fight with Putin and purposely triggered him with invitations to Ukraine to join NATO. He knew exactly what he was doing.

Biden is such a phony — he is literally called the “Anti-Reagan president.” He invokes Reagan in his speech, reminding us of his famous call to Gorbachev, “Mr. Gorbachev, tear down this wall.” He contrasts that to Trump, saying, “Now, my predecessor, a former Republican President, tells Putin, ‘Do whatever the [hades} you want.’ And he characterized this as Trump “bowing down to a Russian leader.”

I don't need to remind you that Trump's comment was a warning to NATO that their NATO dues were wayyyyyy past due, and if they expected America to carry their water with any conflict arising from Russia, they had better PAY their SHARE. Well, they did! So, it worked!

Biden characterizing this as Trump bowing to Russian leaders is the standard Democrat device of projection — putting their own stink on someone else to get the hounds off their trail.

You see, it was not a former Republican President who bowed to a Russian leader; it was Biden's former boss, a Democrat President named Obama. Remember this exchange, picked up over a hot mic when Obama was visiting with then Russian President Medvedev, in Moscow? Here is how that went.

Obama: "On all these issues, but particularly missile defense, this, this can be solved, but it's important for him to give me space."

Medvedev: "Yeah, I understand. I understand your message about space. Space for you..."

Obama: "This is my last election. After my election I have more flexibility."

Medvedev: "I understand. I will transmit this information to Vladimir."<sup>7</sup>

It was Biden's former boss, President (alleged-1) Obama, who simpered and, with syrupy sycophancy, leaned into then-Russian President Medvedev, whispering like a snake: "After my election, I have more flexibility."

And now, many are openly wondering if plans were not being put in place then for the eventual gifting of Ukraine to Russia. [IBID] Yeah, it's being suggested that the deals Obama made with Russia directly contributed to Russia being able to invade Ukraine, and then, as we all watched, the Biden admin literally called Putin out on Ukraine on the NATO issue, openly calling for the inclusion of Ukraine in NATO—something America specifically promised they would never do! I think the deal went sour somewhere along the way. Probably, it all broke down over who would control the money laundering operation and the sex trafficking trade that has since flourished under Ukraine's corrupt leadership, making it a very valuable asset to the corrupt leaders in the US and making Russia a competitor. But, anyway!

No one should listen to Biden cry about protecting Ukraine without remembering his dirtied connections to that country!

I wrote a song when I was a kid that I played in the mess hall of Fort Ord Army base while there — it was a favorite among my fellow soldiers. It reflects what should be the natural aversion every humane person should have toward war. Keep in mind; I do believe Romans 13 specifically states GOD's intention that His nation should use the sword of military might execute judgment against the Hitlers as they appear in history—and a defensive war to protect our liberties, like our War for Independence, is certainly just. I'll close the first segment with this — I'm working on having it fully produced as part of a project I'm working on right now. Enjoy!

[INSERT ONE EARLY MORN—2:40}

Segment.02 Hello. Welcome back! I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, your brain masseur, and Paul Revere's lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the church belfry arch, signaling the enemy is on the march, an enemy that would steal from us our liberty.

I think we will have time to discuss the key issue between Biden and Trump—Christianity! And not just any “Christianity.” I'm talking about the “Christianity” that believes our rights come from GOD, not from the government or any human authority. Here is how Heidi Przybyla (Shoe-By-Yah), a journalist for Politico, explained it:

[INSERT AUDIO CLIP: 21 seconds]

You might remember Trump's first campaign and his first term. He regularly invoked God and welcomed people of faith into his circle. Throughout his campaign for reelection, he maintained that attitude and, I think, demonstrated some growth in this area of his life.

Trump acknowledges Jesus Christ as LORD above all the earth and this country in particular. His first Easter speech was awesome. No president, not even Reagan, offered so clear a statement concerning the death, burial, and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.

This is the exact opposite of Biden. Biden is the antichrist president. He is corrupt, whereas a Mafia Mob boss testified that after several attempts to corrupt Trump, he gave up, advised others not to bother with the attempt, and warned them they might end up arrested. He said Trump is incorruptible.

Trump's base is Christian conservative Patriots. Biden's base is compatible with the world and its philosophy — it's essentially Baalism — the belief that everybody's version of God is equally valid. These are the same so-called “Christians” who reject the Bible as having absolute authority; they chaff at Jesus' statement that He is the way, the TRUTH, and the LIFE and that He is the only way to GOD. They reject the notion that there is only ONE WAY to Heaven. They also reject the Bible doctrine of the Scripture's inspiration and do not believe Christianity should have any role in politics beyond a cautious allowance of Christians to participate— You might remember Feinstein's remark to Amy Coney Barrett cautioning her that her “dogma lives loudly within you”!<sup>8</sup> We commit her to her reward; hopefully, she was prepared to meet her Maker. Let's hope Garvey beats out Schiffy Schiff to replace her. Did you see the vote flip Tuesday night? Suddenly, Garvey loses half his votes, and Schiff surges into the lead — it's called the glitch switch. We saw it in 2020. Nobody likes Schiff!

But, back to Christian Nationalism — essentially, it's the idea that Christianity should characterize our national identity. About half the country wants America to be a “secular state.” The other half are comfortable with America being called a Christian nation.

So, we might say the divide is between those who believe we should be a Christian Nation and those who believe we should be a Secular Nation. Because we are talking about politics, we might focus that in a bit more and say some believe Christians should be involved in politics, and some think they should stay out of politics. The Secular Humanist is the aggressive, militant arm of the Secularists who want to push all faith out of politics; and, apparently, according to Heidi, any Christian that believes our rights descend from GOD and not from government or human authority is the “militant arm of the Christians,” and this is how she defines Christian Nationalist.

Heidi and Biden, too, characterize Christians who oppose the government as a threat to Democracy. Isn't that interesting?

<sup>8</sup> 976.31.3-'Dogma lives loudly in you' - What happened at Amy Coney Barrett's 2017 confirmation hearing | Catholic News Agency <https://www.catholicnewsagency.com/news/45896/dogma-lives-loudly-in-you-amy-coney-barretts-2017-confirmation-hearing>

Democracy is the rule of the people unless the people are Christians. Then those people don't count.

Essentially, the idea that we are a Christian nation is at the heart of this issue. And this open assault on Christianity began with Obama. It's been going on for a very long time, but I said the OPEN ASSAULT — the DIRECT ATTACKS on our Christian identity as a nation broke out into open conflict when Obama became President, actually, during his campaign.

Obama famously made that declaration: “America is no longer a Christian nation ...” He followed that with a long and very pregnant pause before he clarified: “at least not just.” And he proceeded from there to say it was a Muslim nation, a Hindu nation, and so forth.

He was talking about the people groups that occupied the nation and perhaps making an observation regarding the decline of Christian influence, along with tipping his hat to the influence of religious pluralism here. But I am convinced that Obama made this declaration as part of his campaign to transform America. He acknowledged that America WAS a Christian nation, but not any longer. And he made this announcement as if it were a positive thing. He does not want America to be connected to her Christian heritage.

That's why Merry Christmas began to be discouraged, and that holiday, in particular, was denigrated. It really did get so bad that if you said “Merry Christmas” in town, people would literally glare at you, grumble, and often rebuke you for saying it.

Obama literally committed what is tantamount to blasphemy against Christianity in his White House celebration of it.

Another clear evidence of the open antipathy of the Obama/Biden Administration toward Christianity was their inability to get the Declaration statement regarding right right!

Obama got that wrong literally every time he referenced it. Biden did the same thing. He got closer to it than ever since Obama came along when, in his SOTUS, he said, “The very idea of America, that we are all created equal and deserve to be treated equally throughout our lives”—so close! I still remember when he got all flummoxed trying to quote the famous line and said, “You know, the thing.” How charming! Everyone giggled!

It happens to be the bedrock of our liberties, and no other religion, not Muslim, not Hindi, not even Judaism has the equivalent: it’s uniquely a Christian perspective: ALL MEN ARE CREATED EQUAL AND ENDOWED BY THEIR CREATOR WITH CERTAIN INALIENABLE RIGHTS!

If the left believes this is what defines a Christian Nationalist, she is in for a rather big surprise at how many people she just recruited into that political force. And what she revealed is that they believe America is divided over that proposition — the CORE PROPOSITION OF OUR FOUNDING!

That’s where the battle line has been drawn. So, what side are you on? It’s a time for choosing. And I choose our Christian heritage.
