THE CURSE ON NEW YORK / CHRISTIAN NATIONALISM & SPEAKER
JOHNSON

Original Air Date: 03.23.24

Segment.01 Hello. I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor of the Lighthouse Baptist Church in Santa Maria, CA, and your brain masseur. Get ready for your brain massage.

Trump's bond, Speaker Johnson's bomb (and the challenge of Christian Nationalism), the spirit of the Palestinian scam made bare, and IVERMECTIN is taking down BIG PHARMA! No wonder they were so afraid of it!

It's time for your Brain Massage®!

[TRUTH]

Pray with me that GOD will provide all Trump needs to beat back these lawless devils that have usurped our government. I've been looking for a fundraiser to help Trump with what little I can toward the outrageous, unjust, 464 million-dollar bond New York is demanding he put up before he can even appeal this obviously malicious abuse of justice. There has never been a more outrageous miscarriage of justice since Jesus' was crucified because He was a threat to the established power.<sup>1</sup> And make no mistake, my friends, that's what this is about.

<sup>1</sup> John 11:48, Jewish leaders said, "If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation." With John 19:12-13, "And from thenceforth Pilate [Roman Governor of Jerusalem] sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, if thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha." Pilate finally released Jesus to be crucified, "Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified" (John 19:16).

We have been sending and will continue to send what we can to his campaign, but I've not seen any fundraiser for his bond.

I did hear that Trump declared he has almost 500 million in cash that he had set aside for his campaign and that the judge knew about this campaign cache, which is why that vile, unjust judge set the bail so high.<sup>2</sup> He wanted to cripple Trump's campaign. No doubt that is the basis of Letitia's spiteful argument that the court denies Trump's petition to move forward with his appeal without posting the entire amount.<sup>3</sup>

It's all about stopping Trump from regaining the White House and making America Great again<sup>4</sup>—it's 100% political, only it's way past dirty politics. This is malfeasance by New York's Attorney General and the Courts. It's criminal encroachments against the Constitutional protections guaranteed by the 4th, 5th, and 8th amendments—Letitia James and Judge Engoron, with the silent consent of the people of New York State and New York City, are destroying a legal system already frayed, with justice hanging on by a single weakening thread. Some Appellate Judge in that state needs to step up, do his or her duty, and stop this.

If the people of New York do not rise en masse and demand their government correct this travesty, then the whole state be damned. [INSERT GASP.2s] I'm not cussing, my friend; I'm saying exactly what I mean. [INSERT GASP.3s]

Oh, stop with the mock horror! The gasps and fluttering of fainting fans — have you never heard Jesus preach? Oh, well, you, over there with the self-righteous look of disdain all over your hypocritical hypo-critical face — good, so you know who I’m talking to! Haha! Lighten up, man! Listen to Jesus.

“Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. BUT I SAY UNTO YOU, IT SHALL BE MORE TOLERABLE FOR TYRE AND SIDON AT THE DAY OF JUDGMENT, THAN FOR YOU.”<sup>5</sup> [GASP.3s] — [UH YEAH — was that Reggie?]

Jesus wasn’t done! “And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell.” [INSERT GASP.2s] [Really? Not only did Jesus use the word, friend, but He created the place. He lit its fire! And He came to die on the Cross to save you from it! He went on against Capernaum.]

“For if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained unto this day. But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.” [IBID]. Sodom burned to the ground, friends! With a fire that fell on it from Heaven!

Alas, New York, New York—if the mighty works that GOD has done in you had been done in Sodom—but you have become Sodom.

Did you know the Second Great Awakening in America was sparked in a mid-1800s prayer meeting in New York City led by a businessman named Jeremiah Lamphier? He decided to “besiege the throne of Grace for the success of the Gospel in New York City.”

New York, like Capernaum, has been exalted unto heaven, but look at it now — it has been “brought down to hell.” [SILENCE]

No one wants to live in that vile city! It's worse than San Francisco, suffering ghetto sprawl, like an LA Ghetto. The only hope New York has today is Donald Trump. New Yorkers had better wake up. [INSERT: WHEN YA GONNA WAKE UP!] Dylan got his big career break in New York.<sup>6</sup> Oh well!

Speaker Mike Johnson was asked if it's God's will that Biden is President! Here is the Speaker's response — I had to edit it for time, but you will find a link in my notes to hear the complete statement:<sup>7</sup> [INSERT: 48s]

Mike is essentially correct and, at the same time, woefully wrong. How can that be? It's true that God is Sovereign and gives “the kingdom,” which is the authority under God to rule over the dominion, defined in Genesis 1 as including the planet's resources. According to the prophet Daniel, God gives this to whoever pleases (Daniel 4:17, 25, 32). He gave it to Jesus—Who declared, “All power (right to rule) is given unto me in heaven, AND IN EARTH” (Matthew 28:18). Satan said all the kingdoms of the world were his, and then Jesus bound him and spoiled his house.

Speaker Johnson did a fair job of representing the truth of God's Sovereignty to give “the kingdom” to whomever He chooses. He acknowledged the fact that we have free will and choose our leaders. So, he recognized the biblical principle of the right of consent of the governed.

He got it wrong by assuming that since the Bible does say God raises leaders and puts them down, every person holding power holds it by the “will of God.”

The fact that God raises leaders and puts them down does not mean that every leader in power was put there by God or that every leader deposed was deposed by God. His allowance for free will is not His approval or assent to everything done with it.

Sometimes, things happen on earth among men that are NOT God's WILL. Otherwise, why do we pray, "Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven"? Obviously, it's because not everything that happens on earth is GOD'S WILL—and it was undoubtedly NOT GOD'S WILL that Biden stole the office of President. God's enemy, and ours, the Devil, comes to steal, kill, and destroy!

But, as I said, there are theological philosophers who, in their arrogant vanity, reason from Scripture to the point where they have left Scripture altogether and contradicted it. Seducing spirits use many devices to achieve this; one of them is the paradox. God has all power and can stop anything from happening He does not want to happen; he does not stop some things from happening that He says He does not want to happen; ergo, it must have been God's will for the event to occur since He could have stopped it but did not. God's unwillingness to stop something is not God's will for it to happen. He unwillingly subjected the creature to vanity in pursuit of hope for something better from the creature (Romans 8:20).

Hosea spoke by the Spirit of God when he said, "They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off" (Hosea 8:4). The Bible does not say God raised every ruler!

Here is another important thing to consider: Sometimes, God raises a man to power and then takes him out! Saul is an example of that.

Romans 13 tells us that "all power" is ordained, and He has told us how that power is to be used: "He that ruleth over men MUST BE JUST, ruling in the FEAR OF GOD" (2 Samuel 23:3). And that's what Romans 13 says — all ordained power is used to execute wrath against the evildoer. We know for a fact that many who take power in this world use it contrary to the will of GOD as stipulated in the famous Romans 13 passage.

And finally, have you ever thought about what Jesus said when He told us that from the time of John the Baptist, violent, wicked, evil men and women take the kingdom by force?<sup>8</sup>

Theological philosophers often do sloppy work. On the assumption that Sovereignty is an attribute inherent in the nature of GOD and not an office He holds by right of creation and power, they theorize that God's will can never be thwarted or defeated. Yet, even God sometimes acts contrary to His will — His Spirit, through Jeremiah, revealed that “God does not afflict willingly” (Lamentations 3:33). Many Scriptures testify to God setting affliction upon the wicked in judgment and the righteous in chastisement — but according to the Bible, He never does this willingly. He “will have all men to be saved,” according to the Spirit in 1 Timothy 2:4, and is not willing that any should perish (2 Peter 3:9). But some perish!

I welcome the conversation regarding these issues. It's been a long time coming. Get my book, God's War; it lays it all out for you.

I need to take a break, so hold on; I'll be right back.

Segment.02 Hello. Welcome back! I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, your brain masseur, and Paul Revere's lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the church belfry arch, signaling the enemy is on the march, an enemy that would steal from us our liberty.

Christian Nationalism is the coming debate and will likely be the defining issue of the 2024 election. It is not a clearly defined term, and probably more Christians are afraid of it than secularists — and that's because many Christians are secularists. I don't merely mean they are secularists politically while they are Christians morally or spiritually — I mean they are secularists. They believe the world belongs to Satan and that Christians have no part in its politics. They are opposed to Christian Nationalism because they think it degrades Christianity into a political movement. But by removing Christian influence, light, and salt from politics, they leave it entirely in the power of Satan and his children of disobedience. When that happens, you get a prosecutor like Letitia James coordinating with a judge like Engoron to charge Trump for fraud because, according to them, he inflated the value of his property to secure loans from a bank that examined the claims, accepted them, and made the loans, that were paid back with interest, by the way, making the banks very happy — so happy, they reached out to Trump to do more business with him. And this they testified to in court, by the way.

<sup>8</sup> Matthew 11:12 And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

No one was defrauded! These bankers are not children; they have experts on hand to look at property value claims. Has Letitia ever bought a house or sold one? No department of house prices decides these values. The bank's underwriters accepted those claims; the loans were fully repaid.

Guess what? Another New York City company has been discovered to have fraudulently overvalued its building to obtain a mortgage and defaulted on the loan. New York Attorney General Letitia James is NOT GOING TO PRESS CHARGES. She is siding with the company, working to PREVENT THE LENDER FROM FORECLOSING ON THE BUILDING. Huh!

Oh, here you go! This explains everything. The company is a political ally of Letitia James.<sup>9</sup> That's New York justice, my friends. It's all about POLITICS!

Remove light, and all you have is darkness; remove salt, and you have corruption. Christians who argue that Christians should not get involved in politics are arguing against the authority of Jesus Christ—He said to go “into the world” and to be “light and salt” in it! He specifically prayed that we would not be removed from the world but kept from the evil that is in it (John 17).

Christian Nationalism as a political movement has yet to be clearly defined. But I can tell you this: if it’s Christian, it’s not white supremacist — because Christians believe “all men are created EQUAL and endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights.” If it’s Christian, it’s not about hate; it’s all about love — but that perversity the world has made out of love.

For example, take the border issue. Mary anointed Jesus for His burial in the house of Simon the Leper (Matthew 26:6-13) with costly ointment.

The disciples became indignant toward Mary for wasting the ointment that could have been sold for much to feed the poor. Jesus’ response might surprise you. He said, effectively, the poor can wait; you will have many opportunities to minister to them. But there was an urgency to the matter at hand: Jesus was about to be crucified, and it was needful to anoint Him for His burial. Their self-righteous attitude closed their eyes to the significance of the moment. It’s a good thing to help the poor, and Jesus would have us do so, but we must not let our general concern for doing good blind us from the good that needs to be done that is immediately before us.

That’s analogous to the whole border crisis thing today. The left wants to shame us as being selfish and careless about the poor because we are concentrating on a more immediate and urgent matter: national security. Criminals and the lawless are overrunning our nation, but all they can see is the pitiful “migrant.” We can help the migrants after we have addressed the immediate concern.

Then, there is the fact that their pity for the poor was insincere. The source of this contention on the disciples' part came from Judas, who earlier expressed a similar attitude when Jesus was anointed with expensive oil on another occasion (John 12:1-6). Judas resented what he considered a waste of expensive oil because, he said, it should have been sold and given to the poor. But the truth was that he cared nothing for the poor, “but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein” (John 12:6).

Judas was greedy! He disguised his greed behind charity toward the poor. However, His deceitful complaint touched the other disciples' sincere but misguided sentiments. They could not see through his subterfuge. So the next time this happened, all the disciples got caught up in Judas' blindness. They did not know what manner of spirit they were of (see Luke 9:55).

Today, the leaders of the wicked rulers in America are using feigned concern for “the poor” to disguise policies that are destructive to our liberties and even our security. But their argument succeeds in deceiving many who are not paying attention. Their sensitivities are easily played upon, and wanting to be seen as “good” and appear “righteous,” they get carried away into following an evil spirit.

The Judas politicians prey on the simple, whose feelings are easily manipulated. We must not lose sight of the urgent matter immediately in front of us, blinded by a problem that Jesus said “would always be with you.”<sup>10</sup>

Tell you what, I'm going to strip the Palestinian ruse naked and discuss the triumph of Ivermectin during the Brain Massage® LIVE on Saturday night, 8 PM. Catch me on Rumble, Facebook, Twitter, and Restream.

Let's conclude by looking at the problem with Christian Nationalism. First, it's a definition problem—Heidi from Politico clarified this. She said what differentiates a Christian Nationalist from a “real Christian” is that Christian Nationalists believe our rights come from GOD and not from government or any human authority. Yep! She said that right out loud in front of GOD and everybody else. So, according to her, a Christian Nationalist believes in the founding principle of our Republic — the Declaration of Independence, which represents a Christian view of man and human rights. All men are CREATED EQUAL and endowed by their creator with certain inalienable rights.

Christian Nationalism is traditional God and Country patriotism, the kind George Washington encouraged when he said to all his troops he would encourage them to add to the honorable title patriot, the greater title of Christian. A Christian Patriot is a Christian Nationalist. Patrick Henry rose in Congress and declared America was founded upon the GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST — the Gospel of the KINGDOM — the declaration that Jesus Christ is LORD, and our ONLY KING, that all men everywhere are commanded to repent and believe on JESUS CHRIST — to confess He is LORD, believe He arose again, and call on His name to be saved. Christian Nationalism calls for all rulers to lay down their scepter at Jesus’ feet and to come under the command of CHRIST JESUS.

Those who do are translated into the KINGDOM of GOD’S DEAR SON, which Kingdom presides over all the world's kingdoms. And as an Ambassador for CHRIST, we declare the terms of surrender to the conquering KING JESUS, who defeated Satan and has emancipated mankind from slavery to Satan. He has granted repentance to all — so that whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

That’s the TRUTH that will make you free and the foundation of our FREE REPUBLIC.

A Christian Nationalist desires to hold our country true to our FOUNDING and deliver it from the control of these wicked perverts who refuse to acknowledge the rule of Jesus Christ.

But here is the problem. Many who would call themselves conservative Christians and even profess they believe America should return to her Christian heritage are themselves living a secular life. They want a Christian nation to afford them the liberty to live a secular or worldly life.

Many “Christians” complain about these PROGRESSIVES who ignore our Constitution, and they are deeply offended that they disregard the rule of our laws when they live their personal lives heedless of GOD’S WORD and disrespecting His commandments.

How dare any Christian despise God’s WORD in their personal lives and then complain to GOD about the wicked who despise their Constitution in their political lives.

A Christian Nationalist must first and foremost accept the bands and cords of Christian values and principles in their personal lives if they expect those values and principles to control our politics.
