Segment.01 Hello. I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor of the Lighthouse Baptist Church in Santa Maria, CA, and your brain masseur. Get ready for your brain massage.

Tucker wades into the Christian Nationalism debate. Today's sanitized Christianity would not tolerate Jesus' mean tweets. Does freedom and liberty come from the U.S. Constitution? [See 4.1

Foot Locker closing 400 stores through 2026,<sup>15</sup> and Macy's closing 150 stores.<sup>16</sup> That's all I had time to run down. Is he seeking repentance? Has Judas cast his silver to the feet of his buyers and is now seeking redemption? Or, more likely, is Barr trying to position himself to be brought into Trump’s inner circle again just in case he wins? I smell a swamp snake slithering about; how about you?

criminalize being in Oklahoma illegally.<sup>26</sup> It's a crime, and you'll be booted out of the State. Let's see, Oklahoma can't send them to Texas; Abbott won't tolerate that! Maybe Arkansas, but Huckabee-Sanders might not go for it! That leaves Missouri, Kansas, New Mexico, or Colorado. I say Colorado is the best bet! New Mexico, too. Anyway!

Remember when Schumer encouraged protestors to gather at the home of Justice Kavanaugh? Guess what happened when a pack of Pro Hamas protestors gathered near his home? Yep! They got arrested. It's a binary justice system in occupied DC. One set of rules for the elite, Marxist globalists, and another set of rules for Pro God-fearing America as founded loving patriots.

Okay, let's see, any more touch-and-goes? Oh, look at this. Yikes! Andrew Bridgen, a United Kingdom Parliamentarian, asks his fellows in Parliament if they are okay with the discovery that British hospitals were injecting Midazolam into elderly patients suffering from COVID symptoms — this drug restricts respiratory function, it's a drug used in the death cocktail injected into prisoners meeting the end of their Death Sentencing. You know, after their last meal.

And while we are talking about COVID, Fauci is experiencing Isaiah's prophecy concerning the wicked: "There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked."<sup>27</sup> He has been grilled for two days lately about the now infamous emails revealing his duplicity and complicity in the COVID coverup.<sup>28</sup> It was all hush-hush behind closed doors, and I understand they were politely bearing down hard on his former testimony. Okay, I need to finish my touch-and-goes here, so, one more look — oh, yeah, as a public service announcement, I need to alert you that FBI director WRAY warns of a coming coordinated attack on the homeland. Here is his statement: “Foreign terrorists, including ISIS, al-Qaeda, and their adherents, have renewed calls for attacks against Jewish communities here in the United States and across the West in statements and propaganda. The foreign terrorist threat and the potential for a coordinated attack here in the homeland, like the ISIS-K attack we saw at the Russia Concert Hall a couple weeks ago, is now increasingly concerning. Oct. 7 and the conflict that's followed will feed a pipeline of radicalization and mobilization for years to come.”<sup>29</sup> ISIS and al Qaeda — really? No wray man! Not Hamas, or Hezbollah? We have a terrorist watch list right? What's it for? To “watch them cross our border”? To wave them across, like the Capitol Police wave in the “insurrectionists”?

Wray also warns of cyberattacks from the CCP, Russia, and North Korea. No wray! Yes, Wray! Wray, actually said that the CCP were throwing every thing they've got against “the rule-of-law world.”
[LAUGHING SQUIRREL]

When you learn how to listen to these snakes you understand that their judgment is pronounced out of their own mouths: Jesus said, “Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant” (Luke 19:22). If you have ears to hear, you know these people are pronouncing their own judgment and declaring their own guilt almost every time they open their wicked mouths. For example, when NBC's Lester Holt asks Wray: “Trump has said that if he's re-

Would you be a party to that?”<sup>30</sup> Wray answers with blarney about the FBI always only follows the rules and the laws and enforces those “without fear or favor” [Laughing Squirrel) — faithful to our core values. I watched it; Wray had a subtle smirk, but did not betray any signs that a conscience is operative in his foul heart. These are lovers of darkness, my friends; and that’s because their deeds are evil. — Jesus, John 3:17-21.

Segment.02 Hello. Welcome back! I’m Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, your brain masseur, and Paul Revere’s lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the church belfry arch, signaling the enemy is on the march, an enemy that would steal from us our liberty.

Tucker invited pastor Doug Wilson, Christ’s Church, in Moscow, Idaho, writer of Mere Christendom, the case for bringing Christianity back into modern culture.<sup>31</sup>

His opening statements are very pointed and direct. After pointing out that Biden has nothing to recommend himself to voters and that there is not one measurement in which Biden’s administration improved anything in America, but instead, everything, even American life expectancy, has gone DOWN, Tucker points out the obvious: Biden must run against something, and what he has chosen to run against is Christianity. We see it; it’s obvious! Of course, as Tucker pointed out, you are not going to say you are running against Christianity, so you frame it as against Christian Nationalism. And he makes an astute observation: “Which is a way of making Christianity seem like a threat to the country rather than the principal on which it was founded.” And, of course, Biden (two-toothed traitor) has the full cooperation of the government propaganda media, the Democratic Party and much of the Republican Party—apparently even the Republican Speaker has gained favor with Pelosi and Schumer, and is taking photo ops with Der Bidenmeister himself — so! Anyway!

The pastor did what I consider to be a fair job of explaining Christian Nationalism to Tucker, and I certainly have no desire to undermine him—here is a pastor taking the hits and the heat for taking a stand in this war, and he is standing with us in this fight!

He offered that he can explain it in two minutes. He referred to Stephen Wolf’s book The Case for Christian Nationalism; I will assume then that this pastor believes this book defines the term. I’ll get the book and let you know what I think.

Pastor Wilson then references the statement by Heidi Przybyla (Shoe-By-Yah) on MSNBC’s All in with Chris Hayes, on a segment How Christian Nationalism Could Shape A 2nd Trump Term, when she defined Christian Nationalism as NOT CHRISTIAN, that’s something “very different” and explained the difference: Christian Nationalists believe our rights do not come from man, from our Constitution, from human authority, but they come from GOD. She points out that this is coming from “men” who are telling us what GOD says — so she is implying that it’s a manmade system or a man-contrived belief. It’s obvious she really does think she’s got this sewed up and that her argument is airtight. You can view her statement here.<sup>32</sup>

The responses to her statement have pushed her into a corner, and she is clearly looking for a way out. Thousands upon thousands of Christians, hundreds of thousands, have said, effectively, well, if that’s Christian Nationalism, sign me up!

<sup>32</sup> <https://www.christianpost.com/news/god-given-rights-are-christian-nationalist-heidi-przybyla-says.html>

Friends, it's a statement taken out of our Declaration of Independence: All men are CREATED equal and endowed by their CREATOR with certain inalienable rights." She effectively defined this scary, evil movement as including ALL THE FOUNDERS OF AMERICA!

And she is right! Indeed! Her definition is spot on! That is what, at a fundamental level, differentiates "them" and "us."

But she has since begun to back-peddle.<sup>33</sup> She does not like being an effective recruiter for National Christian political engagement. This introduces my point of difference with the good pastor on this question.

He makes an excellent point that what this does is give us something we can actually answer. How do you answer slurs like, you are racist, or You are a white supremacist — even though everyone who knows you knows that is not true, the only answer you can give is, no, I'm not! And unless you are very well known, or somehow hundreds of your friends surround you and contradict that accusation, you are defenseless, other than to ask for a definition of their charge and the insist the show the proof — but what this does is gets us into rabbit chasing in a circular argument that goes nowhere — but if they want to engage us on the question of the validity of the Declaration of Independence — great! Let's Roll!

If I'm a Christian, and I love my nation, then I'm a Christian Nationalist. There is a problem with that because someone can self-describe as a Christian who loves his nation and yet not believe Jesus is KING over all kingdoms on the earth today, not believe that God ordains all power and directs how it is to be used, and that men who abuse power are not of GOD and not authorized to act out from UNDER HIM.

Anyway, the pastor states we don't want to resist these people in the NAME OF CHRIST because we don't want to launch a bunch of religious wars. But that is nonsense and it's a trap. We certainly do resist them in the NAME OF JESUS CHRIST.

So, to summarize, the pastor defined Christian Nationalism as, in fact, centering on one question: is there a GOD above human government? And he makes an excellent point. Remove God, and what happens? The government takes His place. And the god that steps in is going to be Satan — going back to the original temptation, ye shall be as gods, and he did not get into it farther, but likely believes Satan is operating in the children of disobedience in his attempt to set his throne above the stars of God. In fact, he made clear allusions to that.

But Christians cannot go forward in their battle WITHOUT DOING SO IN THE NAME OF CHRIST.

He does not want a political movement that is engaging on a political level, in the NAME OF CHRIST.

But Christians do everything they do in the name of Christ.

Christian Nationalist must be identified as a movement of Christ's ambassadors for His kingdom authority in the world over all rulers in the earth. JESUS CHRIST IS LORD, and His WORD is TRUTH, and HIS SPIRIT is administrating His kingdom in the world today. His truth gives us FREEDOM and His Spirit brings us LIBERTY, and that's the source of freedom and liberty. Not a piece of paper called the Constitution. That document only acknowledges our freedoms and our Liberty, it does not create them.

I'll offer more tomorrow in my pulpit, but the fact is, our RIGHTS COME FROM GOD — but not just anyone's deity. Our rights don't come from Allah or Buddha (I know Buddhists are not comfortable referring to Buddha as a god, but they worship him as a god. nonetheless, anyway), or any of the many thousands of Indian gods in Hinduism. Our RIGHTS come from the GOD and FATHER OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST. Freedom only comes from the TRUTH and Jesus is the WAY, THE TRUTH, and the LIFE. Our LIBERTIES come from CHRIST'S SPIRIT — where the Spirit of the LORD IS, there is LIBERTY.

A Christian Nationalist, if Christian, subscribes to Cromwell's famous motto: NO KING BUT CHRIST.

But what sort of Christianity! It must be a Christianity that represents CHRIST. Again, be in church tomorrow to hear me flesh this out.

The reason we can't get Christians in public office who have the courage to stand against the devil's crowd, and call them out, and speak authoritatively the TRUTH that makes us FREE in the power of the SPIRIT that brings and secures LIBERTY is most Christians today have no idea Who Jesus is. I don't have time to do more than introduce this to you. But think about it!

If Jesus were here today, and Tweeted (X-filed) any one of the following statements He did make when He was here, most Christians would not want to be publicly identified with Him. Imagine Jesus posting any one of the following on His social media:

He called people hypocrites to their faces. So imagine Him writing the name of someone and then saying, "You hypocrite ..." "you draw nigh unto me with [your] mouth, and honoureth me with [your] lips; but [your] heart is far from me."

He identified an entire party as hypocrites who shut up the kingdom of heaven against men. He openly mocked those who make long prayers for show, who fed themselves on widows houses; he publicly rebuked people as being "white washed graves full of dead men's bones."

He often warned people personally that they were going to Hell where their worm dieth not and the fire is not quenched.

He called King Herod a “fox,” and told Pilate “you don’t have any authority over me except what my Father allows,” He told people, to their faces, they were “of their father the devil,” he warned entire cities that they were condemned to a fate worse than that of Sodom and Gomorrah, He once answered a question in which He said if I answer the way you want me to, then I’d be a LIAR LIKE YOU!

Twice, He took a whip and went into the Temple swinging it demanding the moneychangers leave the house of GOD, and chastised them for turning His Father’s House into a den of thieves — shall I go on? Do you get the picture?

Jesus was almost nothing like a squishy, spineless, wishy-washy Mike Johnson — but was more like a rock solid Eliasha who told the King of Israel that only because of his respect for King Jehoshaphat would even look at that wicked thieving Ahab — “Surely, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward thee, nor see thee” (2Kings 3:14).

Once on a train ride from Moscow to Minsk, Belaruss I met a Muslim man they put in my car with me. —

Today’s sanitized Christianity would not tolerate Jesus’ mean tweets!
