WHY CAN'T WE ALL JUST GET ALONG? / OBAMA: TREASONOUS CONSPIRACY

Original Air Date: 07.25.25

Segment.01 Hello. I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor of the Lighthouse Baptist Church in Santa Maria, CA, and your brain masseur. Get ready for your brain massage.

The "Hulk" goes to Heaven!¹

We've got to watch our own 6 — MAGA be warned!

Kevin Kiley exposes Newsom's plot to subvert CA voters into giving him and his party sole power over redistricting.

Epstein update!

Update on the Vax issue.

Of course, the big news is centered on Obama, Brennan, Comey, Hillary, and Clapper and the conspiracy to overthrow the 2016 Election. Tulsi Gabbard calls it a treasonous conspiracy.

There's a post circulating that claims Tim Allen, the comedian, wrote a post that originated with another by the same name, who posted it on Facebook on August 25, 2019. He was a jewelry technician from Virginia. No one has debunked his statements:

- Women are upset at Trump's naughty words -- they also bought 80 million copies of 50 Shades of Grey.

- Not one feminist has defended Sarah Sanders. It seems women's rights only matter if those women are liberal.

¹ 1048.0.2-(3) Charlie Kirk on X_ _Hulk Hogan left us with many memories, but his greatest legacy is that 18 months ago, he and his wife were baptized and gave their lives to Jesus Christ_ "Total surrender and dedication to Jesus is the greatest day of my life <https://x.com/charliekirk11/status/1948417236940853671>

- Chelsea Clinton got out of college and got a job at NBC that paid $900,000 per year. Her mom flies around the country speaking out about white privilege. And just like that, they went from being against foreign interference in our elections to allowing non-citizens to vote in our elections.
- President Trump's wall costs less than the Obamacare website.
- They sent more troops and armament to arrest Roger Stone than they sent to defend Benghazi.
- 60 years ago, Venezuela was 4th on the world economic freedom index. Today, they are 179th and their citizens are dying of starvation. In only 10 years, Venezuela was destroyed by democratic socialism.
- Nancy Pelosi invited illegal aliens to the State of the Union. President Trump invited victims of illegal aliens to the State of the Union. Let that sink in.
- Bill Clinton paid $850,000 to Paula Jones to get her to go away. I don't remember the FBI raiding his lawyer's office.
- Maxine Waters opposes voter ID laws; She thinks that they are racist. You need to have a photo ID to attend her town hall meetings.

So! It's time for your Brain Massage®:

[TRUTH]

Everybody should have at least one liberal friend. Preferably, one who will engage you in an honest exchange of ideas. I met with such a friend lately and we talked for five hours straight! It was enlightening. I'm going to chat with you about that in my Brain Massage® LIVE episode Saturday night — July 26, 2025. I aim for 7 pm, but it depends on how the day unfolds. He suggested that I have been weaponized by our mutual enemies to agitate for discord and recommended that I adjust my tone to facilitate unity. I promised I would think about that. I did! I've explained the "them" and "us" bifurcation of our culture, also described as the ideological polarization of America. I agree with my liberal friends that this is driven by design and that those driving the hatred we see between manufactured classes and divisions by race, gender, income, religion, and generational isolation—Xers versus Boomers, and so on. Who did this? How did this happen?

I don't think I've gone through a day in fifty years where I was not confronted, assaulted, might be a more accurate term, with someone trying to "pick a fight." I've been called everything from bigot to magot, everything from fascist to racist, everything from — okay, you get the idea.

Hillary called us Deplorables, and Obama disparaged us as "God and gun clingers." We've been dismissed as "fly over country," an intended slight, suggesting that those of us who live outside the hubbub of big Cities, between LA, NY, Chicago, or DC, are irrelevant. This will surprise some! We never cared! I certainly didn't. Their insults never landed. We responded with a yawn and went on with our lives. When it came from Presidential Candidates or Presidents, we laughed at them.

For example, we used to host a Lights On Banquet for our Brain Massage audience, and we offered a door prize called the God Gun Clinger Home Defense kit, which included a Bible and a Gun. Many went around wearing T-shirts that had variations on the theme, like I'm a Proud DEPLORABLE — we had fun with it. But then something changed, and it was no longer "fun." I'm going to discuss that with you Saturday night.

We've got to watch our own 6 — MAGA be warned! "They" are trying to troll us — I used to fish with my Dad, and often we would "troll." We'd put about four or five baited hooks in the water, set them in the poll holders, and depending on what we were fishing for, Dad would set the speed to crawl, or put, and we'd watch the poles for a hit.

A lot of trolling goes on in the social media world, and from news sources, and I've noticed that a lot of insincere people are contriving headlines as "clickbait." Ever hit on "clickbait"? I have, and it's very annoying. That's motivated mostly by the "love of money"! However, a new phenomenon has emerged: some malicious individuals disseminate false information, trying to hook gullible "right-wingers," flooding our platforms with bogus statements that appeal to MAGA types, to make a mockery of the MAGA movement. They want government censorship of social media platforms to control the narrative, and these trolls serve to break down our confidence in the integrity of free speech. It's a message intended to prompt you to abandon trusting free speech as the best check on misinformation and to accept government-moderated speech instead.

We are not going to buy it, any more than we bought-in to their warnings about "Democracy" being destroyed by allowing people to say things the government does not agree with.

Sometimes what happens is a recognizable name throws out an allegation without revealing that it's an opinion, or a concern, or an assumption — it's given as a flat statement of fact — when in fact, it's an opinion, sometimes premised on almost nothing!

The Massie allegations regarding Thune and Johnson serve as a recent example. As you know, Congress has recessed without confirming Trump's appointments to key positions, including about 50 Judges. There has been talk of Trump moving forward with recess appointments. Massie X-posted: "Bad news: @SpeakerJohnson and Leader Thune plan to convene-and-adjourn every 4 or 5 days to block Trump from making those appointments.”^{2 3}

Massie did not say he thinks Thune and Johnson are conspiring to block recess appointments. He declared it as a matter of fact. Well, as a matter of fact, neither Johnson nor Thune has made any statement to that effect. As a matter of fact, there has been talk by Johnson and Thune of possibly calling Congress to the floor to take care of some of these appointments. As a matter of fact, Thune has spoken favorably of some recess appointments.⁴ As a matter of fact, Massie has not been a team player on getting Trump’s agenda passed, so it seems unlikely he said this with any sensitivity favoring Trump’s agenda.^{5 6}

We’ve got to watch our backs! And the President’s, too.

Some have gotten positively livid about this!⁷ (Me too, by the way, until I bothered to look more deeply.)

Turns out neither Johnson nor Thune has officially, or, so far as I can find, unofficially, said anything remotely affirming this suspicion.

The point isn't that Massie is wrong; we'll see! The point is it's irresponsible to throw out this as an assertion of fact, rather than an expression of concern. It goes to the criticism Massie gets a lot of, that he is simply a grandstander clamoring for attention.

Along the same lines, here is a post alleging that Kash Patel received a report from a whistleblower that Judges received bribes from “migrant trafficking funds” that were passed on to AG Bondi. This is not confirmed by Patel, Bondi, or any other source beyond the Social media posters who are spreading this story. — I think “THEY” are flooding social media with such outlandish assertions to break down our confidence in free speech. Whether or not that is an organized agenda, it's what will happen if we don't watch our 6.

Kevin Kiley exposes Newsom's plot to subvert CA voters into giving him and his party sole power over redistricting. According to ABC-7 News, Gavin is responding to a Texas plan to redraw districts to favor Republicans. He wants to take control of drawing District lines to counter this — he wants to redraw the lines to favor Democrats! I don't know the news lady's name, but she said, “Newsom said maybe it's time that California stopped playing fair.”⁸

Gavin Newsom floats redistricting retribution if Texas GOP redraws its maps ahead of midterm elections - ABC7 San Francisco.pdf <https://abc7news.com/post/gerrymandering-gov-gavin-newsom-floats-redistricting-retribution-texas-gop-redraws-maps-ahead-midterm-elections/17123501/>

Here is Representative Kiley's remarks.⁹ In 2010, CA voters took redistricting out of the hands of politicians and placed it into the hands of a Citizen Commission. "They said that voters should choose their politicians. Politicians shouldn't choose their voters." [IBID].

I think Newsom sees the Red wave building in CA, and he wants to take back control of drawing District lines to ensure a continued Democratic majority in California. By the way, he did not announce this as his purpose. What he has said is that if Texas can draw lines to favor Republicans, then CA can draw lines to favor Democrats. Uh, you, Gov. That's why we took this from you jokers in the first place. Unreal!

According to Kiley, Newsom "initially proposed simply ignoring the [CA] commission, ignoring the Constitution, and overriding his maps with those that he and the legislature drew." Kiley figures someone told him that his scheme would be struck down in court, so he changed his plan. He intends to call for a special election "where they will use confusing ballot language and other means of deception to try to ... fool voters into dismantling the ... independent commission that they recently established." [IBID].

Meanwhile, Newsom's wife says, "It's time for America to follow California's lead." Really? What should the rest of America follow — how about the hundreds of thousands leaving our state, fleeing to RED States? Are those the Californians you think the rest of America should follow?

How about crisis homelessness, increased by 31.6% despite spending over 24 BN on this issue. CA accounts for about 1/3 of the U.S. homelessness population even though it's only a 12th of the population.

How about the rising crime rates in CA. The nation is approaching the lowest death rate in our history under Trump. CA spiked at 13% in 2022, while the national average decreased.

High Cost of Living — the worst in the nation. Job growth has lagged, State growth is an abysmal 0.1% in contrast with the year-over-year national average of 1.5%. CA has the world's fifth-largest economy with a 20 BN deficit.

A housing crisis, Education crisis, unemployment fraud crisis, immigration and sanctuary policies that have created an illegal alien invasion crisis, shall we talk about the High-Speed rail mismanagement, or the draconian COVID-19 response and his hypocritical, in your face, elitist snobbery snubbing CA during this crisis—there has never been a greater FAILURE of a governor than Gavin Newsom. None. And we're not done! Election integrity issues and his derelict failure to manage our wildfires.¹⁰ Lady, the only example California provides that the rest of America should heed is STAY AS FAR AWAY FROM NEWSOM AS POSSIBLE.¹¹

What will Ghislaine reveal? It is interesting that Maxwell was never offered any sort of “plea deal.” Jeffrey got a huge plea deal break—from charges amounting to 20-to-life down to 18 months with work release, and only a 1-year registration requirement. This is unreal — and now they have Ghislaine, his pimp, and no one even thinks about offering her any plea deal for names? I don't think they wanted her testimony; they wanted to bury her. They did not want to know who Jeffrey's team served! Someone said Ghislaine knows if she gives bogus information, whatever plea deal she gets is off the table. We'll see! The CIA/Mossad/MI6 client list is going to be a challenge — but GOD is able to EXPOSE this — if our CIA, or Mossad, or MI6 or anyone else has fed children to the appetites of perverts to gain political power over them, I want them to be tethered to the same millstone hung on the perverts necks and have them cast into the sea — or the swamp, together.

I read this meme that said, “If you're cheering on the idea of impoverished migrants being attacked by alligators, you are a certifiably bad person.”

Really? If you take people who are making a joke seriously, you are a certifiable idiot. One of the biggest problems with libs is they don't seem to have any sense of humor—except when they are holding a mockup of Trump's severed head, or yucking it up over a remark from an actor that it's been a long time since an actor assassinated a President — maybe it's something we should think about — and about 100 other dark anti-Trump jokes.

Besides, I've never heard anyone say such a thing, even as a joke—I mean, not from MAGA, anyway. No one thinks it's funny to say, oh look, “an impoverished migrant has just been swallowed by an alligator—teeheehee!

Hey, you who wrote this, did you hear any MAGA person say anything like that at all? Or anyone, for that matter?

I would never make such a joke! Except, I must say, when it comes to pedos and rapists, what happens to them when tethered to a millstone and cast into a swamp of alligators and crocs is justice. Oh, and if you think this is equivalent to “cheering on ... impoverished migrants being attacked by alligators,” you are beyond an idiot; you are a wicked false accuser who has been weaponized by the left to agitate discord with lies. Hmmmm!

I’m going to have to do the Vax update during the Brain Massage® LIVE episode Saturday night.

The big news is Tulsi Gabbard, Director of National Intelligence, has got the receipts: Obama, Brennan, Comey, and Clapper conspired to overthrow the 2016 Election. Tulsi Gabbard calls it a treasonous conspiracy. That’s because the goal was to perpetrate a coup against the duly elected President of the United States — the Commander In Chief of our Military, the Constitutional Leader of our country — the only elected official appointed by the whole of the people to his office. They wanted him removed—and they hatched this conspiracy to get it done.

¹⁴ 1048.4.3-FULL TEXT Tulsi and Karoline Expose Evidence Implicating Obama et al in "Treasonous Conspiracy" <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=trWKVfwygCU>

Key takeaways:

We have a document, signed by Obama, revealing that for “special” findings, or reasons, they would not accept the Intelligence Community Assessment that had been prepared, and Obama ordered another one. The one that was rejected included statements from Intelligence that Russia had no credible impact on the election, and it did not make any connection between Russian interference and Donald Trump.

The new ICA included not only that Russia interfered in the election to help Trump win, but also that Trump was in collusion with Russia on this scheme, and per Brennan’s insistence, the infamous Hillary campaign-funded Russia Dossier, was also included, over the expressed objections of key Intelligence officials who knew the dossier was full of lies and from disreputable sources.

In other words, Obama said, effectively, we don’t want that ICA that totally debunks the Hillary narrative, make a new one. Clapper contacted the “team” and said, “Per the President’s direction” — and assigned them the tasks to create an ICA that met the needs.

The need was “actionable Intel” suggesting Trump colluded with Russia to steal the 2016 Election.

Tulsi brings out that Russia had intel on Hillary that would have been damaging to her campaign. Russia expected Hillary to win. They held this back and did not release it because they expected her to win. Release of this material would have compromised Hillary in a major way.

If Russia wanted Trump to win, they would have released it.

The whole idea that Putin was working for and with Trump was totally unfounded — Hillary got the idea rolling during the campaign with her Fusion GPS produced Steel Dossier and when she lost, Obama decided to use that to excuse the loss and set up a plan to get Trump Impeached and removed from Office.

We all lived through that nonsense — I don't need to tell you what the bitter poisoned man Obama and the bitter poisoned soul of Hillary did to this country.

This is going to get to Hillary eventually. I think Trump will save that as the icing on the “cake” he is preparing for American JUSTICE!

We'll see! Her culpability will have to be more than hiring GPS Fusion to create the Steel Dossier — it'll come up when we discover a meeting between Hillary and Obama in which it was decided to use the Russian collusion hoax to remove Trump from office and insert her into the Presidency. Wait for it!

By the way, as an “aside”: Remember Uranium One! Russia donated $0.00 to the Trump campaign. Russia donated $145,600,000 to the “Clinton Foundation.” Just sayin'! — Here you go. Read the evidence for yourself. You'll hit a paywall on those prefaced by an * (asterisk).¹⁵

SNOPEs concurs with Hillary. :)

Putin NEVER WANTED TRUMP TO WIN, he was waiting for Hillary and planning to disrupt her to manipulate her.

Remember, Obama gave Crimea to Russia, Biden set up Putin with the excuse he used to move in to take the rest of the Ukraine—the whole NATO thing—the Democrats have NEVER been enemies of Russia or Putin — going back to the days Teddy Kennedy colluded with Russia to undermine President Reagan — the liberal politics of America have always been influenced and infiltrated by Russian Communists.

Probably the most poignant moment came with a reporter, first name, Emily, asked “Do you believe that any of this new information implicates former President Obama in criminal behavior?”

DNI Gabbard replied: We have referred and will continue to refer all of these documents to the Department of Justice and the FBI to investigate the criminal implications of this.

REPORTER: For even former President Obama?

GABBARD: Correct. The evidence that we have found and that we have released directly point to President Obama leading the manufacturing of this intelligence assessment. There are multiple pieces of evidence and intelligence that confirm that fact.”

Do you believe Obama is complicit in the crime of treasonous conspiracy? CORRECT!

APPENDIX: OBAMA'S TREASONOUS CONSPIRACY:

Statement by DNI Tulsi Gabbard at White House Briefing Press Conference:

TULSI GABBARD: Thank you very much good afternoon.

At President Trump's direction and with the support and coordination with the House Intelligence Committee chairman Rick Crawford today we've released a declassified oversight majority staff report that was produced in September of 2020.

The stunning revelations that we are releasing today should be of concern to every American.

This is not about Democrats or Republicans; this has to do with the integrity of our Democratic Republic and American voters having faith that the votes cast will count.

There is Irrefutable evidence that detail how President Obama and his national security team directed the creation of an intelligence community assessment (ICA) that they knew was false.

They knew it would promote this contrived narrative that Russia interfered in the 2016 election to help President Trump win, selling it to the American people as though it were true. It wasn't.

The report that we released today shows in great detail how they carried this out.

They manufactured findings from shoddy sources.

They suppressed evidence and credible intelligence that disproved their false claims.

They disobeyed traditional trade craft intelligence community standards and withheld the truth from the American people.

In doing so, they conspired to subvert the will of the American people who elected Donald Trump in that election in November of 2016.

They worked with their partners in the media to promote this lie ultimately to undermine the legitimacy of President Trump and launching what would be a years-long coup against him and his administration.

We're here today because the American people deserve the truth, they deserve accountability, and they deserve justice.

The records that we released on Friday that were ODNI records Senator Chuck Grassley's released on Monday of what is known as the Clinton Annex which was an appendix to the Department of Justice Office of Inspector General's 2018 report as well as the House Intelligence Committee's oversight, majority oversight report that we're releasing today all come back to and confirm the same report.

There was a gross politicization manipulation of intelligence by the Obama administration intended to delegitimize President Trump, even before he was inaugurated, ultimately usurping the will of the American people.

I'm going to go over the key findings from the House Intelligence report, which investigated the claims that were made by an intelligence community assessment ordered by President Obama and published in January of 2017.

First, Putin's principal interests relating to the 2016 election were to undermine faith in the US democratic process, not show any preference of a certain candidate.

In fact, this report shows Putin held back from leaking compromising material on Hillary Clinton prior to the election, instead planning to release it after the election to weaken what Moscow viewed as an inevitable Clinton presidency.

In the January 2017 intelligence community assessment that President Obama ordered, John Brennan, who was CIA director at the time and the intelligence community, intentionally suppressed intelligence that showed Putin was saving the most damaging material that he had in his possession about Hillary Clinton until after her potential and likely victory.

The report goes into great detail about the information that Russia and Putin had on Hillary Clinton, which included possible criminal acts like secret meetings with multiple named US religious organizations in which State Department officials offered, in exchange for supporting Secretary Clinton's campaign for the presidency, significant increases in financing from the state department.

They also had documents that showed the patronage of the State Department to State Department employees who would go and support Hillary Clinton's presidential campaign.

There were high-level DNC emails that detailed evidence of Hillary's "psycho-emotional problems, uncontrolled fits of anger, aggression, and cheerfulness" and that then Secretary Clinton was allegedly on a daily regimen of heavy tranquilizers.

Then CIA Director Brennan and the intelligence community mischaracterized intelligence and relied on dubious substandard sources to create a contrived false narrative that Putin developed a "clear preference for Trump."

Brennan and the I.C. (Intelligence Community) misled lawmakers by referencing the debunked "Steel dossier" to assess "Russia's plans and intentions," falsely suggesting that this dossier had intelligence value when he knew that it was discredited.

The intelligence community excluded significant intelligence and ignored or selectively quoted reliable intelligence that contradicted the intelligence community assessment's key findings on Putin's alleged support for Trump.

Including this intelligence reporting would have exposed the ICA's claim as implausible, if not ridiculous.

The intelligence community assessment omitted reliably sourced information such as how some Russian intelligence officials were "planning for candidate Hillary Clinton's victory," while others assessed neither Trump nor Clinton would respect Russia's interests.

As was reflected in the ODNI documents that we released on Friday, multiple intelligence community assessments released in the months leading up to the November 2016 election concluded that Russia had neither the intent nor capability to impact the outcome of the U.S. election.

On December 5th of 2016, the FBI and ODNI gave the House Intelligence Committee its first post-election classified briefing in which there was no mention of Putin aspiring to elect Trump by either agency.

The presidential daily brief, drafted on December 8th of 2016, stated that no Russian or criminal actors impacted vote counts. This document was pulled just hours before it was to be published due to "new guidance." If it had been published, it would have been briefed to both President Obama and President-elect Donald Trump.

On December 9th, 2016, a National Security Council meeting was called to gather President Obama's senior national security officials, which included CIA Director Brennan, then Obama DNI James Clapper, Susan Rice, and others. Following that secret meeting, DNI Clapper's assistant sent an email to the intelligence community with the subject line "POTUS Tasking on Russia Election Meddling," tasking ODNI leaders to create a new assessment per the president's request.

The House Intelligence Committee oversight report that we released today reveals that "unlike routine intelligence community analysis, the intelligence community assessment was a high-profile product ordered by the President, President Obama. It directed senior intelligence community agency heads and created an intelligence community assessment limited to just five analysts using one principal drafter. This is not something that occurs in the normal path of producing an intelligence community assessment that reflects the views across the intelligence community. The production of this intelligence community assessment was subject to unusual directives directly from the president and senior political appointees, especially the former director of the CIA, John Brennan.

The House Intelligence Committee oversight report also shows how later that same day on December 9th, Brennan ordered the publication of "substandard reporting on Russian activities," which had previously been withheld from publication of prior assessments because the information was judged "to have not met long-standing publication standards." Some of the information later used in the Obama ordered assessment over the objections of veteran CIA officers was "unclear or from unknown sources." The Intelligence Committee's oversight report reveals that CIA Director Brennan overruled senior CIA officers who challenged the Obama ordered intelligence assessment, stating "we don't have direct information that Putin wanted to get Trump elected."

Yet the Obama directed assessment was published on January 6, 2017, which explicitly stated "we assess Putin and the Russian government aspired to help President-elect Trump's election chances, when possible, by discrediting Secretary Clinton and publicly contrasting her unfavorably to him." The CIA and FBI, then led by John Brennan and James Comey, expressed high confidence in this judgment, while the NSA expressed moderate confidence.

Yet as the report we released today shows, the ICA, the Intelligence Community Assessment, did not cite any report where Putin indicated helping Trump win was an objective. The opposite is true. With regards to the Steele dossier, we now know that one of the source documents that the Obama administration used in the creation of this intelligence assessment in January of 2017 was none other than the discredited, unverified Steele dossier. The House Intel report states "contradicting public claims by then CIA Director Brennan that the dossier was not in any way incorporated into this intelligence assessment. The dossier was referenced in the intelligence assessments main body text and further detailed in a two-page assessment annex.

John Brennan lied and he denied using this dossier in this intelligence assessment that President Obama ordered because he knew it was discredited. It was a politically motivated, manufactured document. He directed senior CIA officials to use it anyway. CIA officer told the House Intelligence Committee staff as they investigated this, "the director of the CIA, John Brennan, refused to remove it and when confronted with the dossier's many flaws responded, 'Yes, but doesn't it ring true?'"

Even the bipartisan Senate Select Committee on Intelligence report published in 2020 criticized the FBI's handling of the Steele dossier, noting its completely unverified nature and purposeful sidestepping of intelligence community procedures in its use. Now President Obama, Hillary Clinton, John Brennan, James Clapper, James Comey and others, including their mouthpieces in the media, knowingly lied as they repeated the contrived narrative that was created in this January 2017 intelligence community assessment with high confidence as though it were fact. John Brennan, as CIA director, stated in a memo to his agency staff in December of 2016 saying, "There is strong consensus among us on the scope, nature and intent of Russian interference in our presidential election." This was reported by NBC News confirming that Brennan, along with James Clapper and James Comey, agreed with the CIA's assessment that Russia intervened to help Trump win the presidency.

As Obama's Director of National Intelligence, James Clapper was tasked with overseeing the creation of this assessment in January of 2017 by President Obama and he expressed confidence in its findings. In a 2018 interview with the Harvard Gazette, he talked about how he provided Trump with the same classified assessment that President Obama received, which included the high confidence judgment that Putin directly ordered the hacking and election interference. Clapper then went on to add, "I think they, the Russians, actually influenced the outcome." This is a brief summary of the details that you'll find within the House majority staff's report in their investigation into the Obama-directed January 2017 intelligence community assessment that leads us to the very same conclusion that we announced in the release of our documents on Friday. The implications of this are far-reaching and have to do with the integrity of our Democratic Republic. It has to do with an outgoing president taking action to manufacture intelligence to undermine and usurp the will of the American people in that election and launch what would be a years-long coup against the incoming President of the United States, Donald Trump.

Thank you.

Notes on the Vax Update:

[RFK is concerned about the rise in allergies and the possible connection to elements included in vaccine injections, such as aluminum, and the claim that this can cause allergies to “materials that are in the ambient environment at the time the vaccine was given.” Research shows that vaccinated children are 30 times more likely to show symptoms of Allergic Rhinitis as children that are not vaccinated. Nobel Laureate Charles Richet “demonstrated over a hundred years ago that injecting a protein into animals or humans causes immune system sensitization to that protein.” Subsequent exposure results in allergic reactions or anaphylaxis. The Institute of Medicine confirmed in its 2011 report that food proteins in vaccines cause food allergies. The same companies that created the allergy epidemic make billions more by selling the solution: Claritin, Allegra, Zyrtec, and Xyzal — for examples. It’s also known that these products cause depression, which they solve with other prescriptions, like SSRIs.
