THE PEACE BROKER-IN-CHIEF

Original Air Date: 08.16.25

Segment.01 Hello. I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor of the Lighthouse Baptist Church in Santa Maria, CA, and your brain masseur. Get ready for your brain massage.

The Peace-Broker In Chief: Trump is at the Alaska Summit happening in Anchorage despite Zelensky's best effort to derail peace.¹

Hillary is singing a new tune! Saying she'll nominate Trump for the Nobel Peace prize if he secures peace between Putin and Zelensky?

The assault of "science falsely so-called" against HUMAN LIBERTIES, FREEDOM, and the right of consent.

What's this? Big Pharma is going to mail the vax! So you got Gates and goons sending the vax to you with mosquito syringes, and now he's preparing to deliver it by tic bite; it's the weaponization of insects—and now it'll be delivered by your local post office. Wow! They really want to stick you with their injections.

But there's hope—Fauci is formally under investigation for perjury for his lies about funding gain-of-function research. That should put them all on notice!

Child predators are prowling for your kids on Roblox — a gaming platform — parents, be alert!

Okay, I think that should do it. It's time for your brain massage®:

The Peace-Broker In Chief: Trump is at the Alaska Summit happening in Anchorage right now as I prepare my show notes—despite Zelensky’s best effort to derail peace.²

What’s that? Oh, you didn’t know Zelensky launched a massive drone attack on Russia the day before—throwing a fit, killing people in the process, all because Trump is meeting Putin without him? For real?

Zelensky’s Euro friends are counseling him. It’s easy to give counsel to someone who wants to do what you are advising. Try telling him the truth and see what you get. Oh, that’s right, Trump tried that.

Europeans, like John Bolton, want Ukraine to become part of NATO, and finally use Ukraine as a base to encircle Putin. All they are going to do is push Russia into the arms of China.

You need to watch the prophecy of Daniel 7. The second beast is a Russia-Iran alliance that has three talking ribs in its mouth saying “Arise, devour much flesh.” It’s the second phase of geopolitical developments that lead to the rise of the man of sin—you know him as the Antichrist.

Anyway, Europe is encouraging Zelensky to refuse any deal that involves conceding land for peace.

European hypocrites — HOW MANY TIMES HAVE YOU PRESSURED ISRAEL TO GIVE UP LAND FOR PEACE?

There is a difference, you say? Okay. I’m listening.

Israel responded to attacks and took territory from their enemies. Putin attacked Ukraine, occupied its territory, and now demands that the territory he occupied be ceded to him.

Ukraine did not attack Russia; Russia attacked Ukraine.

² 1051.6.2-Ukraine ramps up drone attacks on Russia ahead of Trump-Putin Alaska summit - ABC News <https://abcnews.go.com/International/ukraine-ramps-drone-attacks-russia-ahead-trump-putin/story?id=124536033>

Didn't Ukraine provoke the attack by talking about joining NATO.

I don't want Ukraine included in NATO for sure now that I've seen how Zelensky behaves. That idiot would have us in WWII within a month. Otherwise, the problem is that when the Russian Federation disbanded, the deal was that Ukraine would never join NATO. That was the deal! Breaking that deal gives Russia a grievance, and the Biden Admin knew how Putin would respond to Ukraine in NATO overtures, which that Administration sent, openly, almost as soon as they completed the theft of the 2020 election and found the keys to the Oval Office.

The O'Biden-Harris admin encouraged this.

You know, it's almost surreal how openly hypocritical these people are. Obama made a deal that gave Crimea to Russia, and nobody blinked. Europe said nothing. The left said nothing! Nobody cared. Ukraine never officially accepted Russia's occupation of Crimea, but, it is defacto in the control of Russia.

By the way, you must listen to these people very closely. Zelensky declared he would never "officially" recognize Russia's occupation of Crimea, Donetsk, Luhansk, Zaporizhzhia, and Kherson.³ Ukraine has never "officially" recognized Russia's occupation of Crimea, since 2014, that's eleven years ago. So, anyway, Russia occupies about 19% of the country, or over 44k square miles.

The O'Biden era had possession of the Epstein files for many years, and never "released them." Now they are calling for their release. Europe and the Left have been content to allow Russia to occupy Crimea, but now they are indignantly criticizing Trump because he is suggesting Ukraine might have to give up some territory occupied by Russia in this conflict.

It sounds very righteous! So simple, even Kamala could understand it. Right? Russia, this great big country, attacked Ukraine, this little country on its border. For Bolton, it's very simple: Russia invaded Ukraine, Russia is bad, and Russia cannot be allowed to gain territory in Ukraine by aggression. There you go! Simple!

So now you get closer! The cultural reciprocity between the specific areas being occupied is such that if you ask the people, they would say they are Russian. Much of the area near the border of Russia identifies culturally with Russia. A few of these regions had a public referendum on the question and chose to be annexed to Russia. I know, the "elections" were not sanctioned or recognized by Kiev. So, they were not "legal." Agreed! But that's not the point I'm making. I'm saying the people in those regions, most of them, don't care about this stupid war or about being included in NATO.

Some do, and these are people who have some historical connection to the issues that brought about the collapse of the Soviet Union. I'm angry at the Biden administration and Europe for agitating this war and giving Putin a pretext to invade. For pretending the Obama solution to give up Crimea for peace was okay, but self-righteously puffing out their chest and pounding their "pulpits" about no land for peace.

The same people who chastised Israel into exchanging "land for peace" when, in their case, they were attacked repeatedly, and acted in self-defense, occupying land that was, by right of the laws of war, theirs to keep. So they gave up Gaza to the "Palestinians," and I have only one thing to say, one date to throw down at your feet, one event that covers your wicked hands with blood: October 7.

So, let me surprise you. The entire business is about getting us into a World War to save the Fed. That's my opinion. I don't have time to flesh it out for you here, perhaps on a Brain Massage® LIVE episode.

I think Putin was not only aware of Hillary’s plan to create the Russia collusion hoax, something we now know to be true, but I think he was read in on the plan. I don’t believe Putin ever preferred Trump to Hillary—and any interference he injected into the 2020 election would have been to help Hillary and hinder Trump.

So the violent, who take power by force, the Bolton types, they don’t understand Trump. They think he is naively conceding to Putin, they think he is naive in his foreign policy dealings.

Let me ‘splain! Habakkuk 1:5, “Behold ye among the heathen (Gentiles), and regard, and wonder marvelously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.” You are going to be amazed at what God is doing among the heathen today. Keep your eye on Daniel 7.

Trump brings a whole new game to the field of foreign affairs. His perspective seems to be leveraging peace through trade—in other words, I think he understands what small minds like Bolton do not — you are not going to resolve the core conflicts between these nations. Bolton is an arrogant twit! No, really! I’m not being mean, I’m describing this guy. It’s in the dictionary, you know, Twit: a silly, annoying person. It’s rooted in middle English, atwiten. and means to reproach someone for being foolish, or simple-minded. It’s from witen, which means to know. But the prefix indicates a pretension to knowing. The term fits Bolten perfectly. He pretends to know, and arrogantly despises Trump, who is running circles around the twit.

Bolten arrogantly dismisses Trump’s achievements in brokering peace around the world:⁴ Armenia and Azerbaijan—August 8; ending 35 years of hostility and killing; in late July, he brokered an end to a raging conflict between Cambodia and Thailand.⁵ In June, he brokered a cessation of hostilities between Rwanda and the Congo [IBID.]. Also in June, our President brokered peace between Iran and Israel—and used some tactics even Bolton would have approved—“Bomb, Bomb, Bomb—Bomb bomb Iran.” In May, India and Pakistan reached a ceasefire after serious confrontations over Kashmir. Tensions between Serbia and Kosovo were escalating, and Trump intervened to de-escalate that before it broke into open war; he also had a hand in brokering a ceasefire between Egypt and Ethiopia.⁶ That’s, what, a peace deal per month. It’s unreal!

But guys like Bolton and his fellow Trump naysayers point out that he did not resolve core issues in these conflicts—well, he did directly address the core issue regarding Iran—they wanted a nuke and Trump said, Nope! But the accusation is that these peace deals are really more like ceasefires that leave the conflicts simmering below the surface while placing a sort of superficial facade of peace over it.

So, when I get back, I’ll explain what Trump gets that none of these twits understand. Hold on! I’ll be right back.

Segment.02 Hello. Welcome back! I’m Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, your brain masseur, and Paul Revere’s lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the church belfry arch, signaling the enemy is on the march, an enemy that would steal from us our liberty.

Twit Bolton thinks he's smarter than Trump. He is of the "old guard," the people who thought the only way to resolve a conflict between nations was to choose a side and go to war!

There are situations like that. The conflict between Israel and Iran is an example, and Trump has chosen the side he is going to support—Israel. But he would not have bombed Iran only because he supports Israel. He bombed Iran because he understood those crazy people could not be allowed to have a nuclear bomb. Period! So he sent in the Bombers and destroyed their nuclear plant, and that's that! But the way! Not only did Trump act, he acted specifically and targeted the issue of concern, PERIOD! He acted decisively; he utilized the full strength of the US to end the conflict in such a way that there was no drawn-out bunch of nonsense — he just got it done. My guess is that the General Milley's of the past would have argued for some convoluted land war that would have gone on for years. You know, a "measured response." The Twits have been running these scenarios for too long. It's past time to move them aside and let real men address these problems, and smart ones.

Some issues are complex, cultural conflicts that have roots that run into centuries-old hatreds. Like Ezekiel said, "Thus saith the Lord GOD; ... the Philistines (read Palestinians) have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it for the old hatred" (Ezekiel 25:15).

Many of them are simpler, like Ukraine and Russia. Russia wants Ukraine. Ukraine wants to join NATO. Neither is going to get what they want. The issues between Rwanda and the Congo are similar, each side has something it wants and that's not going to change.

Russia is never going to give up on wanting Ukraine, and Ukraine is for whatever reason, I should Zelensky is not going to give up wanting to be in NATO — I don't think the Ukrainians care about being in NATO. I think that's something people with another agenda are pursuing. I think Putin wants Ukraine and Zelensky wants to satisfy his globalist handlers who want to remove Putin from power in Russia.

Trump understands that he is not going to change what Russia wants or what Ukraine wants, he is not going to change what the leaders of Rwanda want or the leaders of the Congo — in other words, he is not going to make any attempt to resolve these issues in many cases, because neither is right in their agenda. It would be foolish to take one side against the other. So he says, in effect, Hey, why kill each other and break each other's stuff. Why not do business together? You've got stuff I need and want, I have stuff you need and want, so how about we work out a deal where you get to enjoy prosperity and abundance, and we can enjoy prosperity and abundance, and we can all live in peace and prosperity. How about that?

Or, if you want to do business with me, you need to stop killing each other and breaking each other's things.

Someone cries, yeah, but what about the issues? You have not addressed the core issues of the conflict, so this is not “real peace.”

And, you know what? You are right! It's “peace, peace, when there is no peace” (Prophesied in Jeremiah 6:14). It heals the “hurt of the daughter of my people slightly,” but I'm telling you it's the closest you'll come to peace until Jesus returns. Look, there is “no peace saith my God to the wicked” (Isaiah 48:22; 57:21). But there can be a cessation of hostilities brokered over mutual interests in trade.

I observed many years ago that prophesy tells us there be a time, a period, I don't know how long it will last, but a time is coming when Israel's neighbors, Ishmael, and the Arabs, will cease their hostilities against Israel, and embrace their brother Isaac for the sake of economic agreements, they will come together over trade.

And GOD has raised up the man to initiate this period of “peace, peace, when there is no peace.”

And I’m telling you, it’s the closest thing we can hope for—and yes, I agree, there is a superficiality to it.

But there is something more dangerous than a superficial peace, and that is constant open war, and the arrogance of assuming anyone can force peace on earth. Only CHRIST can bring genuine and lasting peace.

The internal peace of GOD, and the fraternal peace with GOD, only comes by the GOSPEL OF PEACE. This thing that will have everybody talking “peace, peace, when there is no peace” might include significant reductions in open hostility. Still, it will be only a cessation of open hostilities for the sake of prosperity.

However, according to prophecy, it will include a period of time when religious freedom will prevail (Micah 4:5). It will occur in the “last days” according to Micah 4:1. The Spirit says, “All people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God” (Micah 4:5). That’s not the millennium. In the Millennium, the rule will be Zechariah 14:9 “The LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one” (Zechariah 14:9).

In these last days, before the “end comes,” every nation in the world will hear this GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM (Matthew 24:14). I believe there will be a great harvest of souls for the Kingdom of God’s Dear Son.

When this gospel of the kingdom is preached in all the world for a witness to all nations, Jesus will come for us and remove us.

Then the creep who is going to impose a peace on earth is going to rise to power and force a one WORLD GOVERNMENT compelling everyone to yield to his rule and receive his mark of loyalty in your right hand or forehead, and use access to the world's economy as the way to enforce his "peace."

Resolving the Palestinian conflict is not going to happen by removing the inborn, inbred enmity, the old hatred, as Ezekiel called it.

The reason "reason" cannot prevail in the matter of Gaza or among Palestinians generally is that virtually all of these people support Hamas' irrational hatred for Israel. There is a deep-rooted spiritual enmity between them (the spirit of antichrist hates the Spirit of Jesus Christ), and the matter is not as simple as there is something I want and there is something you want — it's irrational and founded upon the "old hatred":

Ezekiel 25:15 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it for the old hatred.

So, here is what God is going to do!

Ezekiel 25:16 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will stretch out mine hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast.

No difference between Hamas and the so-called Palestinian, they are the same.⁷

There is an Arab, styled a "son of Hamas," whose name is Mossab Hassan Yousef. He openly condemns Palestinians who pretend they have some righteous "cause" against Israel while they refuse to condemn the genocidal agenda of Hamas. He warns, like a prophet, that this will blow up in the faces of so-called Palestinians.

He says there are no Palestinians, there are only tribes, and he names the tribe of Hamas and several others, and says the only thing keeping these savage people from killing each other is their.

⁷ <https://x.com/VividProwess/status/1956174003770671472>

mutual hatred for Israel. He says this cannot continue. He said, “Since October 7, I don’t differentiate between Hamas and so-called Palestinians.” He flatly declares: “The ‘cause’ must die!”

My point? In the same way the disparate and hostile groups find common “cause” to turn their attention from the hatred for each other to hatred for Israel, which does not resolve any of their tribal rivalry or hatred, but does give them a different focus which forces a sort of ceasefire between these tribes, Trump is attempting to provide a common interest that will supersede their petty tribal conflicts — TRADE! A mutual ambition to prosper appealed to in order to trump their petty differences, motivating them to their own destruction. They will be at peace, but in the same way these savage people temper their hatred for one another to band together in their hatred for Israel—Trump wants to give them something else — prosperity! “Winning!”

Jesus’ Spirit - I have come that they might have life and that more abundantly.

Antichrist spirit — I have come to steal, kill, and destroy.

That’s it. Simple! If you pay attention to prophecy, the period of “peace peace when there is no peace” is driven by concessions agreed to in the interests of trade, prosperity, and abundance. Isaiah 2 and Micah 4.

The core differences will not be sorted out until JESUS RETURNS. And even then, it’s only subdued by the iron rod rule of KING JESUS, together with the banishment of Satan into the bottomless pit for 1000 years. When Satan is loosed, he immediately begins his insurrection efforts again and stirs up the world against Christ. And then, that’s it — it’s all over! Here comes the fire that melts the elements with fervent heat, the Great White Throne judgment, and the New Heaven and the New Earth — Rev. 19-21.
