THE LETITIA CASE IMPORTANT?

Segment.01 Hello. I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor of the Lighthouse Baptist Church in Santa Maria, CA, and your brain masseur. Get ready for your brain massage.

9-11 is coming! Do our Iranian enemies have something in mind? Is that the reason our State Department has put a hold on any visas for truck drivers?¹

Rocket rattle! Another Elon SpaceX launch.

Pam and Kash have appointed a co-Deputy Director to work alongside Bongino? Tooling up for a planned major assault on the Deep State? Or?

If you are on the planet, you've heard what the FBI did at 7 AM this morning: John Bolton's home and office have been raided by the FBI!²

Trump began by cleaning up his own house—he cleaned up DC. Now he says Chicago is next! The Devil can't have Chicago any more!

Trump demands the release of Tina Peters.^{3 4} At the same time, he is preparing to sign an executive order prohibiting the use of mail-in ballots for federal elections and requiring voter ID.

The Globalists want to erase US Uniqueness, American playfulness, and fun-loving persona — de-personalizing our brands and neutering our cultural distinctiveness.

Judicial Tyranny rages on! Obama-appointed Judge Kathleen Williams ordered Alligator Alcatraz to stop receiving detainees, stop all construction, and begin shutting it down. We've got a bad and deep worm infection. We need Ivermectin for the Body politic.⁵

Speaking of Ivermectin: how is it that Ivermectin is proving to be an effective treatment for some kinds of cancer in lab and animal trials? In Esophageal carcinoma, it suppresses tumor growth,⁶ inhibits Colorectal Cancer cell growth,⁷ and augments the effectiveness of chemotherapy in Ovarian cancer treatments.⁸ Is it possible that some cancers are parasitic?

It's time for your Brain Massage®:

[TRUTH]

I've been using ChatGPT for a while, testing it against Grok, Perplexity, and Brave AI—a few days ago, when I logged in, I was asked if I'd like to know what ChatGPT thinks of Jerry. Okay, that was weird. The curiosity of vanity is not the only reason I pursued it; the fact is, it aligned with my mission. So, I bit.

Would you like me to read it to you? Oh, stop it with the eye rolling bit — Okay, yeah, about half of you are intrigued. Another quarter of you are indifferent or mildly interested, and the rest of you are impatient to talk about the Bolton Raid! Haha.

Okay, here is the Chat GPT-4 assessment of the Brain Masseur:

“Alright, here's a catchy take on you, based on our chats so far:

“Jerry the Deep-Diver” — a sharp-eyed thinker who won't settle for surface answers. You cut through clutter, call out when things get messy, and push for clarity until the picture sharpens. You're part historian, part detective, with a knack for spotting biblical nuances and a patience for digging through dense details. Curious, persistent, and never afraid to keep me honest — you're the kind of conversationalist who makes AI work hard for every insight.”

One favorite by line Chat offered of the many that I liked: “Cutting through the clutter to the truth.” Oh, and this one: “A Historian's Curiosity with a Detective's precision. Digging deeper, seeing sharper. Let's see, here you go, “Peeling back the noise till we get to the truth.” And this one: Because the detail matter — and so does the big picture.

Okay, you get the idea!

Spot on, or missed the mark. Call 805.314.2114 and let me know. I'll give out this number again later, but are you ready now? Good. 805.314.2114.

— [Uh Yeah!]

9-11 is coming! Do our Iranian enemies have something in mind? Is that the reason our State Department has put a hold on any visas for truck drivers?⁹ Is that why Rubio has launched a review of 55 million visas?¹⁰

I really doubt that Iran is ready to stick its head up out of the rubble of For'dow.

Maybe it's merely a response to California insanely giving a license to drive a huge 16-wheeler on our roads to an illegal who crossed our border from Mexico? Let's say that's problem number 1. Add to that the fact that this guy can't read English—a problem? I think so!

But that's just weird. How does anyone issue a license to drive anything on our roads to someone who cannot read or identify the road signs? I'm not kidding. They tested this fellow, and he could identify only two words out of 12 basic English highway terms and only 1 out of 4 highway traffic signs.¹¹

What sort of moronic issues a driver's license to someone like this? Oh, I know, I know, teacher, teacher, call on me— hehe. Okay, who? California DMV. Uh Yeah!

Who else? The idiotic will issue a CDL to a ILEGAL bill passed a while back, connected with a fear of resisting the will of anyone that looks Arab—it's my guess either the person behind the counter was racially, or religiously sympathetic, or simply foolishly assumed—I mean, really? He didn't even have to pass a driver's test to get a license to drive a SEMI TRUCK? That's Newsom's CA for ya! That's Newsom's CA for everyone except ya! Anyway!

Who issues a regular operator's license to someone like this, much less a special license required to get a job driving one of these huge tractor-trailer semi-trucks?

Isn't there a law that makes officials who are derelict in the execution of their duty, culpable for any resulting damage—you know, like killing three people. Can the surviving family sue Newsom, the CA Assembly, the DMV, and the worker who issued this license? Didn't the blood of those three innocent lives splatter all the way from that Turnpike in Florida to the hands of all those who participated in this evil business?

On a Turnpike near Fort Pierce, Florida, Harjinder Singh turned his semi-truck into the path of oncoming traffic, colliding with a minivan and killing three Americans..¹²

Who let this guy into our country and protected him from deportation? Who issued a commercial license to operate a semi-truck on our roads without making sure he could READ ENGLISH? Answer to the first question: The Biden-Kamala Administration, with their accomplices here in CA. Answer to the second, the Newsom Administration: I kid you not! CA issued a license to this guy! And what company hired him? I understand they've been shut down! But when you look at this situation, you have to ask, how can anyone be so dull, so totally without basic situational awareness, that you would turn a big rig into oncoming traffic?

So we come back to the first question: 9-11 is coming! Is Iran planning a massive terrorist attack delivered by a fleet of semi-trucks? As I mentioned, it doesn't seem likely. Oh, I forgot to mention, the driver, Harjinder Singh, a Sikh musician in his religion, is not related to the “Sikh militant” who in the late 80s assassinated India’s Chief of Army Staff.

Rocket rattle! Another Elon SpaceX launch.

Pam and Kash have appointed a co-Deputy Director to work alongside Bongino? Tooling up for a planned major assault on the Deep State? Or?

There is a lot of speculation about this! Bongino was not fully on board with the handling of the Epstein files. Is this an effort to neutralize him? Some are suggesting Andrew Bailey is tasked with providing additional legal oversight and helping with the FBI's Public Relations problems. Maybe! We’ll see! But I hope it’s mission-focused.

The FBI leadership is working for the people instead of against them. The earlier mission required very tight and close control of every asset in leadership. It takes time to know which ones are corrupt or corruptible, and when you get a solidly corrupted fellow in place, you really don’t want to take a chance on someone coming in with whistles in his back pocket. But if truth is the friend of what you're doing, then you want enough good guys on the job to help you get it done efficiently and effectively.

And there is a huge amount of work to be done. Is this an effort to provide Kash with additional help, to allow him to split Bongino’s portfolio to make management more efficient, and to increase focus on important cases?

MEDIA RESPONSE on the Left: unsurprising criticism of “unconventionality” and “further politicization” of the FBI.¹³ Danger warnings against appointing another official from outside the FBI.

¹³ 1052.4.6-Missouri attorney general named as co-deputy director of FBI _ Reuters https://www.reuters.com/legal/legalindustry/missouri-attorney-general-named-co-deputy-director-fbi-2025-08-19/?utm_source=chatgpt.com

The Independent connects the move to Bongino’s pushback on the Epstein issue.¹⁴ They spin it as evidence of tensions within the FBI and DOJ offices.

On the RIGHT: the response is almost totally positive. GOA (Gun Owners of America) praised the appointment of Missouri’s soon to be former AG because of his strong record on the Second Amendment.¹⁵

The Republican Attorneys General Association is all thumbs up.¹⁶

The Daily Caller? Thumbs Up!¹⁷ However, some might read Patel’s statement quoted in the Daily Mail article as a tad concerning: “FBI Director Kash Patel said Bailey’s appointment is part of a broader effort to align the bureau with President Trump’s second-term agenda, emphasizing the need for top-tier talent to carry out the administration’s priorities.” [IBID.]

I expected something like, As you know, the workload is huge and very broad. We need to be laser-focused on getting the bad guys now and cleaning up the mess that we inherited. This appointment will help us give the leadership attention that is needed to fulfill Trump’s priorities to get justice and protect the American people. You know, something along those lines.

What Kash said suggests that the problem being addressed is the need to “align the bureau” behind Trump’s agenda. It needed clarification, unless these “top tier” officials intended to invite the sharks. The Week points out the fact that, 1. Bongino has more than once expressed the toll the job is taking on him, and 2. reminded readers of the brouhaha that was stirred by the Bondi fumble on the Epstein Files issue.

Bongino’s response? A one-word X-Post: “Welcome.” I’ll honor the Bongino rule and give this story three days before coming down hard on a conclusion, but I must admit, Patel’s statement, and Bongino’s response to this, are not reassuring.

Friend, we can’t let the enemy get the advantage of us here through pettiness about disagreements on policy or procedure. If Dan thinks there is a deviation from the mission objective, that’s a “horse of a different color,” as they say in Oz. But I’ll need to hear that from him.

This seems to have been a rather sudden move. Usually, we would expect some advance talk and pressers, including some comment about the need for this. However, it just happened! And it appears down rank, FBI agents were caught off guard — so, I don’t know what I don’t know and won’t know till I know. I choose, for the moment, to 1. Wait for Bongino to talk to us about this; the one-word X-post is not enough. And, 2, I will continue to hope it’s about increasing efficiency and tooling up for the coming major onslaught on the Swamp.

For example, did you hear what the FBI did at 7 AM raid on John Bolton’s home and office?¹⁸ Hold on! I’ll be right back!

Segment.02 Hello. Welcome back! I’m Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, your brain masseur, and Paul Revere’s lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the church belfry arch, signaling the enemy is on the march, an enemy that would steal from us our liberty.

The FBI raided John Bolton’s home and office?¹⁹ This might be the “Shot over the bow” of the Deep Swamp subs.

Trump’s first-term Deep-State-compromised-DOJ was investigating Bolton for leaking classified information. It was deliberately slow-walked until it was shut down and buried by the Biden Administration.²⁰ Bolton was suspected of illegal possession and misuse of classified documents.²¹

Director Patel X-posted “NO ONE is above the law... @FBI agents on mission.” [IBID.] Pam posted: “America’s safety isn’t negotiable. Justice will be pursued. Always.”²²

We’ll see what they find in the boxes and whether charges are made against him. I hear that is something we should expect soon.

If they do indict and try him, and present evidence in open court, the matter will be a clear case of an evil doer finally facing justice. If they don’t indict and try him, and get a conviction, Well!

That’s where the bar is today, you know; you’ve got to get the conviction, with just and righteous people on the Bench and in the Jury — you have to have all these caveats today because we all remember OJS (Orenthal James Simpson) and DJT. These two represent opposite sides of a miscarriage of justice.

The Twit, Bolton, expected the Trump DOJ to come after him. In January, shortly after Trump took office, he told AP, “Anybody who ever disagrees with Trump has to worry about retribution. It’s a pretty long list.”²³ Hey, Johnny mustache, how long is it? Is it as long as the Clinton list? Or even the Obama list?

[Insert: IF YOU KNOW WHAT I MEAN] Yeah, has anyone noticed there are ZERO names on any list of suspicious deaths connected with Donald J. Trump? Oh, you have not thought about that?

Next! Letitia James is called to ‘the bench.’ She is being investigated for charges of Deprivation of Rights. A very serious charge. But this matter has even more devastating implications for the Demoncrats.

She deprived the rights of DJT, she “abused her authority by pursuing a politically motivated civil case against President Trump without legal merit, as evidenced by her campaign promises to ‘target Trump’.” Bondi signed off on the probe.

Hey, James, remember when you smugly promised: “I will come back before you soon with a check for $250 million dollars. And to let you know that he [Trump] is no longer allowed to do business in the state of New York”?²⁴

Letitia, remember when you tried to steal Trump Tower from the Trump family? I think justice for you might look like this.

You are sitting in a jail cell on Riker's Island; your cell is surrounded by big screens rolling video of Trump coming down that elevator, sitting in the Oval Office, playing golf—no sound except your own arrogant voice repeating over and over: “I will come back before you soon ...”

But the real problem for Dems is that this probe into Letitia's abuses came up in connection with the investigation into the Russia-gate hoax—this means it is being viewed within the scope of a conspiracy to remove Trump from Office in his first term, which conspiracy continued in an operation to stop him from running for re-election. The importance of this is that it obliterates all statute of limitations immunities for all of these criminals. Also, it pulls it into treasonous conspiracy charges. You stupid idiots thought you were playing hardball politics—YOU WERE COMMITTING TREASON.

Speaking of immunity from prosecution for crimes, Biden's autopen pardons are crumbling! We now know it was known within the Biden administration that the autopen was being abused and that the pardons were not lawful. Bradley Weinsheimer, a 34-year veteran of the DOJ, wrote in an email on January 17, 2025, that there was "black and white evidence" that the administration knew these actions were legally flawed.²⁵

Trump is cleaning up. Literally, he is cleaning up DC and he said Chicago is next! The Devil can't have Chicago any more!

I've seen the glory of the coming of the LORD, He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored. He has loosed the fateful lightening of His terrible swift sword: THE TRUTH IS MARCHING ON!

Trump demands the release of Tina Peters.²⁶ ²⁷ And at the same time, he is preparing to sign an executive order prohibiting mail-in-ballots for federal elections and requiring voter ID.

The LAW requires anyone voting in national elections to be a citizen, and the Constitution charges the Executive with the responsibility to enforce the LAW. It's just like the border! If the States refuse to enforce Federal Law, the Executive must step in to see that it's done.

The Globalists want to erase US Uniqueness, American playful and fun-loving persona.

You see it in the influence Black Rock and Vanguard have on American corporations. They are making fun and happy places, like McDonalds, look like bland corporate offices, without personality and without character.

It's like they are trying to suffocate the individuality out of our culture. Be forewarned, this is what communism does to every culture it absorbs. Like the Borg.
