Nimrod's tower and synthetic Christianity. Watching God tear down the globalist's tower—again! The present restraining power is unleashed until removed!

Middle East: A bogus bogey: Israeli warplanes patrolling Middle Eastern skies.¹ No confirmation supporting that rumor! Israel is, however, officially exercising restraint and deferring to the U.S. regarding any further response. However, Isaac's sons are expressing sympathy for his brother Ishmael, and declaring solidarity with the protestors.² What will Trump do? Mexico just got its bell rung! Sheinbaum is taking the absurd position that the US declaring war on the Mexican Cartels' drug trafficking operations across our border is "illegal and goes against human rights."⁴ Well, actually, she framed her opposition to the US entering Mexico to attack the drug cartels that run her country as an encroachment of Mexico's sovereignty and a violation of Mexico's rights.⁵ So, what will Trump do? He will do exactly what he said he will do.

Okay, my friends. Come on by the Lighthouse and let's get personally acquainted.

[TRUTH]

Nimrod's tower and synthetic Christianity. Watching God tear down the globalist's tower—again!

Nimrod was the first man to make himself a king, and to establish a kingdom in direct opposition to GOD (Genesis 10:8-10). His kingdom was called Babel, and came to be called Babylon.

He led the people westward to a plain where he established his kingdom. Up until then, the people used natural stone and clay-based mortar for building. But in the plain, in the kingdom of Babel, the people learned how to create synthetic stones, called bricks, and secure them together with a synthetic material made from slime: they decided to use these synthetic materials to build the city of Babel. Under Nimrod's direction, they began construction on a tower that would "reach into heaven," and be a token of their rebellion against God. It was the symbol of their rebellion against the rule of GOD and subjection to the rule of Nimrod over a one-world government.

God came down and looked into this operation and said that unless He intervened, nothing would be beyond the reach of these clever rebels; their rebellion would lead humanity into a devastating clash with the Divine power. Satan knew this; he wanted God to destroy mankind from the planet. He almost succeeded when he corrupted man till God repented that He ever made him, and sent the Flood to wipe them out, but "Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD."

God destroyed the tower and splintered Nimrod's kingdom into multiple kingdoms all over the world, divided by language and geography. Thus came the "kingdoms of the world." Ever since the fall of the tower, Satan has worked in and through the children of disobedience to recreate the one world government ruled by a man dedicated to him — a "man of sin," and hater of GOD. These are the builder's of Nimrod's Tower and the material they make great use of is synthetic Christianity — the synthetic Church — the true Church made of "lively stones," but the synthetic one is made of bricks for stones, and held together by slime for mortar. These "churches" worship at an altar of hewn stone.⁶ The tools of flesh have put their mark on these stones.

Satan, through his chosen agents⁷ uses every means possible and employs artifice, or synthetics, to mimic God's creation. He builds his world empire: brick in the place of stone, and slime in the place of mortar.

But every time he almost succeeds at getting his tower built, God intervenes and brings it all crashing down. History is the record of this cycle: men under God, seduced out from “under God” to be brought under some man usurping the place of God in their lives. These creative devils produce a synthetic world, fake, out of alignment with reality, in order to establish a power structure in opposition to the Creator, and to bring man and the resources of the earth under the power of his chosen chief rebel, his Nimrod, who then proceeds to subordinate. to subjugate man to the planet that GOD told man to subdue, and to come under the rule of the creatures God put under man, and all the while, the goal is to eliminate mankind from off the planet—to replace him with synthetics. To replace human intelligence with artificial intelligence, and human bodies with robots.

When Satan gets near his goal, which is to bring all mankind out from under GOD and instead under the rule of his chosen Nimrod (hint: the Antichrist), God intervenes to disrupt the plan and to bring down the synthetic tower, and break man's strength, to expose the synthetic alternative Satan has crafted to separate them from God's reality.

We might never know how close our enemy came to setting the capstone to this latest effort to revive Nimrod's tower. But God heard the cry of His remnant, the true Church, the authentic lively stones, and came down, and raised up a champion to expose the synthetic construction, to destroy Nimrod's tower, and deliver us from the oppression and tyranny of those who "take the kingdom by force and violence," and oppress, stealing, killing, and destroying all who oppose them.

You are watching Nimrod's latest tower crumbling before your eyes. Here is a look at some of the deconstruction work underway right now.

Middle East: Iran is erupting in nationwide revolt against the tyrannical Kahameini. This is by far the largest revolt we've seen since the Jihadi Islamists took over.

Israel is officially exercising restraint and deferring to the U.S. regarding any intervention, while expressing brotherhood with the protestors.⁸ What will Trump do? Whatever he says he will do, and he has made it very clear what he is prepared to do! Khamenei might want to remember June 22, 2025. [ENTER SOUNDS OF BOMBERS DROPPING HUGE BOMBS!]

From Amnesty International Deputy Director for Middle East and North Africa, Diana Eltahawy: "People in Iran daring to express their anger at decades of repression and demand[ing] fundamental change are once again being met with ... security forces unlawfully firing at, chasing, arresting and beating protesters, in scenes reminiscent of the ... uprising of 2022." We watched blithering do nothing, Obama puppet Biden, with all talk and no action, reflecting Obama's response to the 2009 uprising in Iran,⁹ where the brutal, murderous regime used violence to deny human rights to Iranians. But, what will Trump do?

Here is a timeline of protests against the oppressive Islamist regime.¹⁰ The takeover of Iran by Islamists in 1979 was met with mass protests quelled by the murderous regime with brutal violence: totally ignored by Carter.

The student uprising of 1999-2000, cried “Down With Tyranny, and Hail to Freedom” and “Khamenei, Shame On You” and “The Mullah’s Regime Must Be Ousted,” and as that regime ratcheted up the murder of protestors:¹¹ “We will Kill, We will Kill those who killed our brothers,” while President Clinton said NOTHING, and did NOTHING. He was too busy diddling Lewdinsky.

They tried again in 2009-2010, but Obama answered their cry for freedom with platitudes and no action. [IBID]

I mentioned Biden’s insipid Obama-like response to the 2022-2023 riots in Iran, his pious platitudinous responses mocked the Iranians' scream for FREEDOM. [FREEEEEEEDOMMMMM]

What will Trump do? Well, in response to the Iranian protests in 2019 he declared sanctions targeting Iranian leadership, their banks, and oil exports. Responding to the current wide spread revolts, Trump has said the US is “locked and loaded and ready to go” — in the context of warnings to intervene militarily if Iranian authorities violently kill peaceful protesters.¹² Read this article

I’ll continue with my “Tower” deconstruction that is underway when we get back. How do Greenland and Mexico play a part? [Fade out]

Segment.02 Hello. Welcome back! I’m Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, your brain masseur, and Paul Revere’s lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the church belfry arch, signaling the enemy is on the march—an enemy that would steal from us our liberty.

Pete Broberg is the leader of the Greenlandic party that wants to separate from Denmark and have direct talks with the US regarding Greenland’s future.¹⁴ What will Trump do? You know! He is very transparent about his intentions. He will do exactly what he says he will do! What has he said?

Look at a map of the Arctic Circle, and you will immediately see what Trump means when he says Greenland is critical to the national security of the US. Denmark claims Greenland is part of the Kingdom of Denmark. As Greenland’s opposition leader, Pete Broberg has said, when everyone is looking, Denmark says Greenland belongs to the people of Greenland; when responding to the US about the strategic importance of Greenland to US national security, Denmark speaks of Greenland as if it belongs to Denmark. They can raise a legal objection to any agreement between Greenland and the US by International Law, claiming Greenland as a colony of the kingdom of Denmark.¹⁵ However!

Democrats oppose everything Trump does because it's Trump doing it. [Yawn! That's getting boring!] Some foolish Republicans are chastising Trump for saying he intends to explore a full range of options, including military action.¹⁶ But Trump has never been vulnerable to manipulation like that — he's not going to rule out any option.

Some of our allies in NATO also object to talk of a military option, including Italy's Prime Minister, who usually stands with Trump.¹⁷ Some weak, short-sighted, and not-so-smart Senators and Representatives have made the asinine argument, namely, that Trump's rhetoric about acquiring Greenland is “not an appropriate way to treat an ally.”¹⁸

Okay! I agree! Denmark is an ally, and for them to refuse to take seriously the need to secure Greenland against the enemy of an ally is abominable behavior, a foul and vile way to treat their US ally. We are offended at Denmark for inviting Russia and China to occupy their ports and establish a presence on an Island so near the US. It's a violation of an understood alliance. If Denmark wants to be a proper ally, it should discourage and even deny any permanent settling of Russian or Chinese presence. Me thinks Denmark doth protest too much: have Russia and China been allowed to secretly place arms in Greenland? That's something I would like to have investigated.

We must have Greenland fortified against enemies of the West, and a NATO member who refuses to allow that is NOT A PROPER ALLY.

Look. You have neighbors, right? A property line separates your properties — if a neighbor began building cannons along his property line aimed at your house, I think you would have something to say about that.

If your neighbor began allowing your enemies to array assets on their property line or establish a presence near your property line, you would have a legitimate beef with that neighbor.

At the national security level, the Russian and Chinese presence in Greenland is the same thing—Denmark is a lousy ally that has neglected the responsibilities and duties of a true ally for far too long.

At this point, not only has Denmark done NOTHING to secure the West from encroachment and endangerment of the US and Canada from the extension of Russian and Chinese power into our territory, into our “backyard,” but at this point Denmark clearly does not have the will or the resources to adequately protect our national security interests.

But I will guarantee you that should hostilities break out with our enemies and they were threatened, they would be expecting the US to protect them. That's when they would start carping about being a member of NATO since 1949, and blah, blah, blah. — ENOUGH OF THIS NONSENSE AND THANK GOD TRUMP HAS PUT THE SPOTLIGHT ON THESE ISSUES.

Like the Panama Canal kerfuffle. After all of Panama's posturing, defiant rhetoric, and chest-pounding, about Panama's ownership, and rights, and all that—even though the original agreement stipulated America had the right to insert itself if there was a concern about United States security, at the end of the day, Panama did exactly what the US demanded: ended its participation in China's Belt and Road Initiative, increased coordination with the US on Canal security and strategic oversight, and limited Chinese influence over terminals and ports.

Trump would do the same thing for Greenland: let Denmark sound tough and independent from their big brother Ally, who cares, so long as they took meaningful action to secure the US's national security interests. The problem is, Denmark does not have the capacity to do this without turning Greenland's security over to the US. For some reason, they balk at receiving this service.

At the bottom line, Denmark is angling for something from the US it has no claim on—THE LOVE OF MONEY IS ALWAYS AT THE ROOT OF SOUL ROT. And that would be the best-case scenario. The worst case is that Denmark is secretly betraying its obligation to its US ally in service to our enemies!

The resolution in this matter rests with the Greenlandic people. They need to call Denmark's bluff and declare Independence—with America standing behind them, this will not be a problem.

It's not enough that Greenland, as a territory of Denmark, is within the protections of the NATO. Denmark's NATO membership is worthless if this ally is unwilling to contribute to its allies' security interests. Trump is right, again!

Mexico just got its bell rung! Sheinbaum is taking the absurd position that the US declaring war on the Mexican Cartels' drug trafficking operations across our border is "illegal and goes against human rights,” said one X-poster.¹⁹ Well, actually, she framed her opposition to the US entering Mexico to attack the drug cartels that run her country as an encroachment of Mexico’s sovereignty and a violation of Mexico’s rights.²⁰

We have here a similar problem to the neighbor lining guns up along our shared property line, only in this case, our neighbor is aiding and abetting criminals crossing my property line to bring illegal drugs, and to distribute them on my property! NO CAN DO!

The problem here is that Sheinbaum is either unwilling or unable to get the Cartels in her country under control. Her unwillingness to aggressively and meaningfully address her drug Cartel problems would be a problem for her to address IF IT WERE NOT THAT THE US IS THE TARGET OF THE MEXICAN CARTELS SHE IS REFUSING TO CONTROL.

French philosopher Frederic Bastiat (Bahs-Tee-ah) famously said, “When plunder becomes a way of life for a group of men living together in society, they create for themselves in the course of time a legal system that authorizes it and a moral code that glorifies it.”²¹ Those pondering this and other statements by Bastiat have summarized it succinctly: “When the State does not fight criminals, it is because the State has become the criminal.” OR, when Mexico refuses to fight criminals it is because Mexico has become the criminal.

Romans 13:1-6 teaches that any “power” that refuses to deploy the “sword” of judgment against evil doers has removed itself from under its ordaining authority, and therefore has lost its divinely ordained capacity. In other words, when a government uses its power to protect the evil and punish the good, it has lost all legitimate authority.

I return to the good neighbor illustration. The prior US leaders who did nothing about border security and the Mexican Cartel's operations across our border were acting in the interests of the Cartels, and if you traced it to its roots, you would find the roots of that policy getting nourished in narco-terrorist money.

Trump is dedicated to the interests of the people of the United States of America, and serves this country, giving his paycheck away—he is doing it entirely out of his love for this Country and his fellow countrymen.

It's all very simple! Sheinbaum, you are a LOUSY, GOOD FOR NOTHING neighbor. You do nothing about these cartel devils and expect us to sit around and take it. We're done! You've had more than ample time and opportunity to show aggressive diligence to take care of these evil people in your country and stop them from peddling their evil, murderous business here in our country. You nurture them, you protect them, you aid and abet their wicked business. You won't, or can't, take care of it, so we will.

Oh, look at this! Now you want to “urge closer US coordination,” after “Trump threatens attack on cartels.”²² Maduro tried that! That sudden fall trick doesn't work on him. You can't play around with this President. When are you guys going to figure that out?

Anyway, the New York Times (try the Sun, it's more honest), the New York Times reports that Trump secretly signed a directive authorizing the immediate use of military force against the Cartels.²³ So, the clock is ticking, Sheinbaum! Nevertheless, I hope, for your sake, El Presidenta, that Trump is amenable to some serious cooperation from you.

If you haven't figured it out yet, let me help you. Trump always tells you what he needs you to do, and it's always the right thing that should be done, and should have been done long ago. If he starts talking about the use of military might to encourage you to do what you know is the right thing to do, trust me, he has already laid out the plan for execution. He never deals in "threats," and he is uninterested in intimidation. He is never going to play "Mexican stand-off" with you! When he says we are "locked and loaded," and "we are ready to go," it means exactly that. It's not a threat, it's a fair warning! It's not intended for intimidation; it's intended to give you notice that you need to do the right thing. He fully intends to pull the trigger on his promises.

That's the way this President rolls! He will never waste time on "posturing," chest puffing, or braggadocio. You'll never see him try a Maduro dance, screaming Come and get me, or such nonsense. It's very straightforward. What you are doing is wrong; you need to stop it. You are refusing to stop it, so here is what I'm going to do about that! Sometimes he will include a specific timeline. If you fail to execute on your word, he will execute his. I would think these people would not be so slow to catch on.

I have lit the lamps in the Church belfry arch, and now you let me know if you see them.
