IS CHRISTIANITY SOCIALIST? (PART TWO)

Original Air Date: 08.15.26

Segment.01 Hello. I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor of the Lighthouse Baptist Church in Santa Maria, CA, and your brain masseur. Get ready for your brain massage.

Is Christianity Socialist (Part One), an in-brief recap: Christianity is about Faith, and Faith is not fantasy; it's rooted in reality. Socialism is rooted in fantasy and is contrary to nature and to Nature's God.

Is Christianity Socialist? (Part Two): In-Brief! Socialism sees "we the PEOPLE" as a collective, a group. Christianity sees "WE THE PEOPLE" as individuals, each created in God's image and likeness, receiving their intrinsic value and individual human rights from their CREATOR. Socialists define THE PEOPLE in subgroups who derive their rights from their identity within that group.

[TRUTH]

Christianity is not Socialist. Christianity is about Faith, and Faith is not fantasy; it's rooted in reality. Socialism is rooted in fantasy, and is contrary to nature, and to Nature's God.

Christianity is unique among the world's religions in many ways, but chiefly this: The Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost appeal to empirical evidence to support their claims. In one example, Jesus said, "If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not. But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works" (John 10:37-38).¹ Christian Faith is grounded in reality, as God created it (Romans 1:17-32). Socialism is a system built on sand; it's grounded in fantasy, it's believed in the imagination, but it has no support in reality. It's a utopian fantasy that produces the opposite of what it promises.

Furthermore, Christianity says that our Creator became flesh and dwelt among men. This separates Christianity and many false sects calling themselves Christian—we believe that Jesus is God manifest in the flesh, that Christ, our Creator, has come in the flesh of Adam's race.

Christianity sees "WE THE PEOPLE" as individuals, each created in God's image and likeness, receiving their intrinsic value and individual human rights from their CREATOR. ¹ By the way, this is true even of the faith that saves: "Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works. Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? (James 2:17-20).

COMMERCIAL: Sunday morning, during the morning worship service, I'll be showing straight from the Bible the proof that genuine, biblical Christianity is Republican in form and Capitalist in function. It's the reason Christians found a place in the FOUNDING, and in the beginning of our RE-FOUNDING when Jerry Falwell launched Moral Majority back in the day.

In other words, we are going to look directly at the passages liberals use to claim Christianity is Socialist and show that it's an example of Satan using the Bible to tempt Jesus in the wilderness. You need to get your family into church this Sunday.

Right now, I want to offer Is Christianity Socialist (Part Two).

In part one, I laid out the argument that faith is grounded in empirical evidence, whereas fantasy is not. Socialism is a Utopian fantasy. Capitalism is grounded in reality: the truth about man and the physical world he lives in.

There is not a single example of a successful, thriving Socialist nation before Reagan.² The examples. modern Marxists point to include capitalist economic principles: private ownership, profit incentives, competitive market pricing, and foreign capital investment. It's like everything else with these people: the chief operating principle is hypocrisy.

The CCP (Chinese Communist Party) of China was nearly starved out of existence under its founder Mao.

Mao's successor, Deng Xiaoping, initiated aggressive market reforms beginning in 1978. He led the Party to encourage private enterprise, end collective farming practices, and turn farming over to family operations. By 1980, the Chinese people no longer feared starvation.³

Under Xiaoping, the Party commercialized other large economic sectors; manufacturing and industrial enterprises began to flourish: factories were allowed to retain a PROFIT, and production decisions and pricing were returned to the private companies: China's industrial output of privatized manufacturing produced 78% of China's national output.⁴

On the township and village levels, locally owned businesses began to reappear.⁵

The Party promoted private home ownership, and eventually secured constitutional protections for private property.

Although China allowed free enterprise, the Red Dragon kept a watchful, suspicious eye on the people and tightly regulated their freedoms.⁶

America keeps a watchful eye on government intrusion into our inalienable rights. But the point is that China's prosperity is attributable to the degree to which it has capitulated to capitalist principles. It's a Communist dictatorship funded by capitalism: it's the closest thing to Nazism, Hitler's Socialist Party, to rise since WWII. Maybe we should be paying attention; what do ya think?

Vietnam is touted as a prosperous socialist state governed by the Communist Party (By the way, pay attention, you'll notice that countries like China and Vietnam, and North Korea, are governed by “the Communist Party.” It’s the same Party—that’s what unites them: the Communist Party. They always call themselves Socialists, because the economic policies that describe Communism were adopted from the socialist movement associated with Robert Owen in Britain, and some guy in France, Fourier or something.⁷ And also because Stalin and Mao gave Communism a really bad name. But don’t let anyone kid you—Socialism is Communism with the only real difference being Socialism wears a smiley face and uses purple Barney the Dinosaur as its mascot.⁸ (It’s a fitting mascot: a purple tyrannosaurus rex—an LGBTQ identifying Carnivore, which smiles when signing bills that legalize murdering infants all the way to birth. They giggle, and bounce, and dance and sing—about numbers, they’re fun⁹ — like the number 94 million, the number murdered under Socialist/Communism, or, here’s another number the Socialist/Communists can giggle, and dance, and bounce about singing: 66 million babies have been murdered in the wombs of their mothers since 1973 to the end of 2025.) What most Americans don’t understand is the corrosive power of Socialist/Communism on the character of the people.

Here’s an interesting thought. God repeatedly commands mankind to spread out over the earth. But man’s fallen inclination is toward collectivism.

The word replenish means to fill, to cover completely.¹⁰ Our Creator commanded mankind to multiply and spread out, to completely fill, or cover the Earth (Genesis 1:28). After the Flood, God recommissioned mankind to spread out and cover the earth (Genesis 9:1).

But men wanted to concentrate in dense population centers and, about 100 years after the Flood, inspired by the first Communist Dictator, Nimrod, built a tower to unite them in their defiance against God (Genesis 11:4). God destroyed their “Tower” and scattered mankind all over the Earth (Genesis 11:8).

But men naturally gravitate toward collectivism, and over 1000 years later, God’s prophet lamented man’s propensity to crowd themselves together (Isaiah 5:8—“Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!”).

I’m sure you’ve noticed that crime, disease, and poverty tend to characterize areas where populations concentrate.

Communism is a form of collectivism that encourages large population centers, and much evil develops within them. (I’ve seen this firsthand when I visited Russia in the aftermath of what Communism did to the wonderful Slavic people.) Living in tightly connected “common” locations breeds crime, disease, discontent, and disaffection. In Russia, the government took the place of the criminals in harassing and stealing from the people.

The same thing happens when all property is held “in common.” It destroys independence; reliance on GOD is replaced with reliance on the “community.”

¹⁰ Today, our word replenish means to fill again. However, the word replenish comes from the Latin, in which language the prefix re- is not understood as again. Re- in Latin, which passed into French and then to English, has an intensive/completive force of meaning, conveying to fully fill or completely fill. Later, replenish in English came to mean fill again.

The collectivist mindset is a fear response; the people in Nimrod's day were motivated by fear of being "alone" in the earth. Fear drives this human huddle instinct, and that is the reason fear is used to drive people toward Communism. Government steps in between God and the people, and demands loyalty belonging to GOD alone! The people become slaves.

Christianity grounds society on the idea that every man is an individual under GOD, with responsibilities to love GOD first, provide for his own, especially those of his own household, and to love his neighbor.¹¹ It fosters personal responsibility!

Segment.02 Hello. Welcome back! I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, your brain masseur, and Paul Revere's lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the church belfry arch, signaling the enemy is on the march—an enemy that would steal from us our liberty.

Okay, we left off by pointing out something very important: The collectivist mindset is a fear response; the people in Nimrod's day were motivated by fear of being "alone" in the earth.

Fear drives this human huddle instinct, which is why fear is used to drive people toward Communism.

Government steps in between God and the people, and demands loyalty belonging to GOD alone! The people become slaves. That's what Socialism does, call it Communism light, call it the porch of Marx's house, call it what you will, it subjugates human dignity and buries the individual in the masses, usurps the PEOPLE'S POWER, and turns individuals into slaves of the State.

¹¹ Mark 12:29-31 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these." See 1Timothy 5:8: "But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel."

Christianity grounds society on the idea that every man is an individual under GOD, with responsibilities to love GOD first, and under God to provide for his own, especially those of his own household, and to love his neighbor as himself.¹² “As himself,” not “above himself.”

Christianity fosters personal responsibility! Communalism turns this upside down. It is premised on the collectivist idea that man's first and only responsibility is to the community.

The care of the individual and of the family is surrendered to the government of the collective. Indeed, collectivism displaces and finally erases the family. Government will brook no competition for its supremacy and demands absolute loyalty to the governors of the collective.

And, by the way, we often speak of those who died for us, for our liberties and so on. It's true, there is no greater love than that a man lay down his life for his friends (John 15:13), but only Christ died for the liberty and freedom of mankind. I would hope our brave soldiers died for something greater: for the ideals of liberty and justice, for a cause that is RIGHT, and for a people willing also to pay the price if called. Friends, he said! Not enemies! Jesus died for friends, and His enemies too.

Genuine Christianity puts God above government, and views government as servant to the individual God-endowed rights of each on the basis that mankind is created in His image and likeness. Christianity is antithetical to every major principle of Socialism.

Take so-called Democratic Socialist. Socialism requires individuals to think and act as a collective, as a group, and that's why Socialists have so much difficulty with fair and free elections.

Socialists have a strange way of thinking about democracy. It's not the rule of individuals; it's the rule of "the people" as understood institutionally, not as individuals. "The People" are seen as a collective, a group; they are not viewed as individuals. Got that!

The expression "the People" identifies the collective vote, not a collection of individual votes. "Democracy" does not occur until after the votes are counted; that's when "the People" have spoken. The process by which they collect the votes actually means nothing to them. That's irrelevant. Controlling the process by which votes are collected is of no interest to them. In fact, that is a threat because it interferes with their ability to protect "the PEOPLE" from those INDIVIDUALISTS who elevate personal rights above the collective. On the other hand, notice that they are very interested in controlling the counting process.

Understand this, and you understand everything. Democratic Socialists believe they "are" "The People." Therefore, "they have the power," not you! You don't have any right to rule. Unless you vote in lockstep with them, your vote is illegitimate. The votes they throw away, or otherwise disenfranchise, for example, by canceling your vote with illegal ballots (including votes cast by illegals, and multiple ballots cast by Democrats, and the fraudulent ballots shipped in from China), they have no prick of conscience: these are not the votes of "THE PEOPLE."

Remember what they did in 2020—boarding up the windows where they were counting votes and dragging boxes of ballots from under tables, and rescanning ballots multiple times, and ... the fraud was obvious! The election of Biden was about as legitimate as the election of Maduro in Venezuela, where they rigged the Smartmatic voting technology (see the connection to Dominion here¹³). Remember Bernie being pushed out illegally to secure Hillary's nomination?

In the mind of the Socialist-Communist-Democrat, this wasn't wrong because it was in the interests of "THE PEOPLE."

Remember Biden's sudden removal and the abrupt installation of Kamala contrary to the will of "THE PEOPLE? Even their own PEOPLE are not "THE PEOPLE." The only PEOPLE who are "THE PEOPLE" are the PEOPLE that rule THE PEOPLE.

This exact same thing happens every time Communism prevails. Everybody is equal, but some people are more equal than others. Everybody in the Democratic Party is equal, except Hillary, Obama, and the others who are more equal.

The Democratic Party has zero respect for the core notion of Democracy — all the People deciding who is given political power within a government ostensibly appointed by the People to protect their rights. There is nothing democratic about Socialism.

You can't trust or force people to vote collectively, so you have to take control of the election in order to impose a guaranteed collective result. So they are against free and fair elections, and object to voter ID and proof of citizenship to register, while they support it virtually everywhere else: driver's licenses, ID required to buy alcohol, to attend their assemblies, to enter government facilities—Mamdani wants to card people using his government commissaries, gotta prove you are a New Yorker, to have access to his government run grocery stores, right? But you don't need to prove you are an American to vote?

Nothing is clearer than that Democrats fear a free and fair election because it threatens their ability to control the outcome, to control the “will of the people.”

Only stupid people can watch the Democratic Party openly snub their votes and push into power whoever they choose and not see that these people are the opposite of democratic.

The Democratic Party is not democratic. It's anti-democratic. But this does not disturb their conscience, because it is seared with the hot iron power-lust. But stupid people are their mainstay; they depend on stupid people. Because only stupid people can be convinced something called Democratic is democratic, because, after all, that's what it is called, and so that must be what it is.

The same people who can believe that because a man calls himself a woman, therefore he is female can believe the Democratic Party is democratic because it says it is.

Language for the Demoncrats is a shell game. The ball is power, and the shells are words. The words are irrelevant; it's the ball inside it that counts. They hide the ball inside a collection of key words and shuffle the ball around from shell to shell until you are bewildered and forget where the ball is, or even what the ball is.

Authentic Christianity is not socialist because authentic Christianity believes the PEOPLE are made up of individuals created in the image and likeness of GOD, each with inherent dignity, worth, value, and voice. By the way, that includes the stupid people. We want every legal vote counted because Christians believe in law and respect rules. Christians are not socialists because Socialists don't believe in any of this. They don't believe our rights come from GOD and that these rights are endowed individually.

You know how we believe only Americans have a right to participate in American elections? Guess what, they believe only Socialists, or Democratic sympathizers have a right to decide elections. Since they cannot openly deny a ballot to you, they cancel your vote with illegals, they replace your vote with fraudulent ballots, then control how they are counted, and count until they get the result that serves “THE PEOPLE.” You see, they think the PARTY is “THE PEOPLE.” After all, it’s called THE PEOPLE’S PARTY, right? Beginning to catch on?

No wonder the Socialists-Communists and Islamists have moved to take over the Democratic Party: Each of these sees itself as “THE PEOPLE,” and everyone outside their respective group as the ENEMY OF THE PEOPLE. That way, they can commit any atrocity imaginable by evil men against the “Non-People” — remember the holocaust. Dehumanize the Jews, then cook them in ovens.

Gotta wrap it up!

Remember, I told you evil always comes in like a FLOOD, and it seems overwhelming. Satan sends out his GOLIATHS—Christian soldier, do you understand that GOD always sides with the weak and lowly? The Goliaths and Giants in the Land, that boast their strength, it serves two purposes: on the side of Satan, it serves to intimidate the only people whose prayers can bring GOD into this mess, so if he can get them to cower in fear, or curse God in wrath and doubting, he can defeat them because of their unbelief, and he wins, not because he is stronger than you, but because he has convinced you that he is stronger than GOD.

But what is GOD doing when He allows the enemy to come in like a FLOOD? He is saying humble yourselves under the MIGHTY HAND OF GOD, and He will lift you up!

Never has 2 Chronicles 7:14 been more appropriate or needed: “If my people which are called by my name humble themselves and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land.”
