Segment.01 Hello. I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor of the Lighthouse Baptist Church in Santa Maria, CA, and your brain masseur. Get ready for your brain massage.

9-11 has never been a more important remembrance! It marks a pivot point in the arc of American history.

Iran update, and prediction!

The MEME wars continue, are Canadians too uptight! No, but elitists are, Canuck snobs are as repulsive as snobby Yanks.

It looks like I won't get to the trial today, but catch the LIVEstream of BrainMassage® LIVE Saturday night.

It's time for your BrainMassage®:

[TRUTH]

9-11 has never been a more important remembrance! It marks a pivot point in the arc of American history.

In the beginning of our young nation, 250 some odd years ago, the Barbary Pirates — Muslims all — harassed our commercial shipping enterprises that required then President Washington, weary of war, and leading a nation not fitted for extending the young countries' military across the seas, to sign the naval act in 1794, commissioning the USS Constitution, and the USS Constellation.¹ Meanwhile “negotiating” with the terrorists, involved paying their tribute (blackmail) to keep our commercial shipping industry safe from these blackguards. John Adams continued that policy, initiated treaty arrangements that involved paying the Barbary pirates for peace, and protection—yeah, it was a “protection racket.” He succeeded to conclude a treaty with Tripoli, and was pursuing an arrangement with Tunis.² Adams also strengthened and expanded our Naval fleet to 50 vessels.³ And tested the newfound country's Naval prowess against France in what was called the Quasi-War (1798-1800). The Navy records state that this action prepared the U.S. Navy for engagement of the Barbary Pirates.⁴

Jefferson wanted to take it to the Muslims long before. In fact it was a disagreement between him and Adams. When Adams and Jefferson served as diplomats in Europe, Jefferson encouraged war be waged against the Barbary Pirates, while Adams advised caution and patience since, at that time, the U.S. did not have a proper Navy, or the financial resources to support one.⁵

By the time Jefferson occupied the office of Commander-in-Chief, the Navy was fit and tested for military engagement, and the Muslim menace had gotten excessively greedy, and aggressive. In fact, a Muslim named Yusuf Qaramanli, the ruler of Tripoli, started demanding substantially more money — from $18k annually to a 225k payment and 20k annually from then forward.^{6 7} The Muslim Pirate of Tripoli threatened he would declare war if Jefferson did not comply [IBID.]. He declared war and began attacking American commercial ships. The Muslim mufti sent his soldiers to the embassy, I mean the American consulate in Tripoli and “chopped down the flagstaff” — openly declaring war on America.⁸

Jefferson sent our Navy into the Mediterranean to defend American commerce ships. The Muslim pirate attacked an American Schooner, the USS Enterprise, who returned the fight and defeated the Muslim pirate ship. He disarmed and disabled the ship then released it.

It required about four years of fighting to decisively defeat the Barbary Pirates—finally, Jefferson ordered the USS John Adams to bombard the capitol city of Tripoli.⁹ Later he authorized a land invasion and took the capital, the Muslim pirates begged for peace negotiations, and Jefferson settled with these shrewd “negotiators” to pay them 60k for the release of about 300 prisoners, did not agree to any further payments to the pirates for their protection or permission to transit the Mediterranean waters, we withdrew from Derna, the capitol of Tripoli and left Barbary pirates to fight it out among themselves from there.¹⁰ (Read the treaty here; yeah, right! Only the die hard history buffs are going to go that far.)

I need to leave this topic, but the epilogue is that trouble from Muslim pirates did not end here. This went on until Madison finally ended it in 1815, soon after we concluded the second war with Britain, the infamous war of 1812.

Islam had already been divided into Shia and Sunni for eleven centuries. The Shia Muslims conquered Iran in AD 1501. The Barbary pirates were predominately Sunni: Osama bin Laden Sunni. O, and the Muslim pirates explained to President Washington's diplomats representing America to these Muslim Pirates that the basis for Islamic actions against American ships was justified by Islamic law and their Quran on the basis that "nations that had not acknowledged Muslim authority were considered enemies and that warfare and enslavement were ... [therefore] ... lawful." This is recorded in Adam's report to John Jay, then serving as the Secretary of State.¹¹

September 11, 2001, 225 years after our first official war with Islamist pirates, marked a pivot point in our conflict with Muslim terrorism and America's waffling, wobbling relationship with the GOD of our founding: attack directed at the god of mammon (World Trade Center) attack on the Pentagon (god of forces), attempted attack on our Capitol or W.H. (representing our One Nation Under God), thwarted by Christians who took a stand on the principle: "give me liberty, or give me death." America started singing, "God Bless America," and churches filled with American's turning to God in their concern for the country.

Since then, Muslim pirates have slowly worked their way into our country through policies implemented by our first Muslim President, talking about Obama, that led to a Muslim/Communist becoming Mayor of ground zero of the Muslim Pirate's attack on 9/11 — so this September 11 remembrance in New York will be blighted by the spectacle of a Muslim Mayor presiding over the ceremonies. But the bane is now much more serious!

Before 2001, there were virtually no Muslim officials holding office in the U.S. from Mayor and up. Only three: a Mayor in Texas, a member of the General Assembly in N. Carolina, and a New Hampshire state legislator.¹² No adherent to Islam served in the U.S. Congress before 9-11-2001. The Muslim-Christian imposter Barack Hussein Obama was elected to the U.S. Senate in 2005, his Muslim buddy, Keith Ellison, was elected into Congress in 2006. Islamic adherents' representation in U.S. government gradually increased until 2022 when it exploded: 189 Muslims were elected at all levels of State and Federal government in 2022, and by 2023, that increased to 235.¹³ Today, that number has been updated to 255. [IBID.] This includes 46 state legislators and 11 mayors.

Every Islamic politician holding office in the U.S. was put in place after 9/11/01. And we are beginning to be confronted with candidates who associate themselves with many who advocate for violence, and others, like Hasan Piker, who promote anti-semitic sentiment and say America “deserved 9/11.”¹⁴ In June, this year, Piker endorsed Abdul Mohammad El-Sayed, the Muslim candidate to represent Michigan as one of their Senators.¹⁵ (By the way, Sayed has not disavowed Piker's endorsement. In fact when asked if there were any views expressed by Piker that Sayed disagreed with, he said, "I'm not here to disavow people's views.") As chameleons always do, Sayed is blending into the political landscape and distancing himself from Piker, we must pray GOD will open the eyes of Michiganders to see the truth. Pray for Mike Rogers and help him if you can. He has already misstepped, in my opinion, asking AIPAC (American Israel Public Affairs Committee) not to campaign on his behalf. If you have to hide what you believe to get elected — well, the fact is, if this guy's election depends on the Muslim vote in Michigan and he thinks he's going to get any of that, see what I mean? And if he thinks he's going to get any of anti-Israel liberals, or the Tucker Carlson/Candace Owens crowd, come on! If he wants the demon-possessed vote, he's not going to get it.

And that tells you everything you need to know about Michigan. I would never advise anyone to seek and use subterfuge to trick people into voting you into office. I'd go straight at it and make it part of my campaign.

In Texas we have a professing "Christian" running against an evangelical Christian, Paxton. Talarico has said he has learned as much about spirituality from mystical Islam as he has from Christianity. He says God is "non-binary" and tortures the Holy Bible into service to his heresy. I addressed this thoroughly in my pulpit this past Sunday, and I've also talked extensively about this on my BrainMassage® LIVE podcast.

I know you've heard enough about the Learing Center; isn't it great when a single image carries the entire message—the amount of fraud perpetrated in this country by the Somali Muslims in

¹⁵ <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=On6oqduzkvs>

Minnesota and Middle East Muslims¹⁶ in Michigan, and what is being uncovered in California, added to all else I've brought forward and one thing is obvious, one thing in CLEAR: we are under attack, it started openly 9-11 and it hasn't stopped. America depends on the remnant of Christ's kingdom to WAKE UP and pull down the strongholds of darkness that have served as the FOB (forward operating bases) or the "staging areas" from which the soldiers of darkness have launched and continue to launch their attacks on America as founded. Christ's FOBs are His churches, and if you keep supporting churches that refuse to enter this war aggressively, and will not obey Ephesians 5:12-21, and RESIST the devil and his forces, and not assist them, if we refuse to be filled with the SPIRIT and with the Sword of the Spirit "reprove the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment," you are part of the problem.

I get this nonsense all the time about "well that's not the way to build a church," all I can say is I'm not interested in recruiting or attracting salesmen, I want soldiers.

Iran update, and prediction!

This is becoming a much larger war than many have thought - it's amazing how Trump is able to see the exact critical issues and how strategically to approach dealing with the world's problems; it's a testament to the power of prayer. He has made statements lately declaring he is done reaching out to the Mullahs and he is going to crash them with the moola. He's going to Moola bomb the Mullahs. It's working.

In the book of Judges, the free people of Israel, thriving under the divine order of patriarchal leadership with leadership diffused through the various tribes and organized around the family unit — you know, that system of GOVERNANCE ordained by GOD that goes like this, GOD the Head of CHRIST, and CHRIST the Head of man, and MAN the head of the Woman — 1 Corinthians 11:1-4). Repudiate the DIVINELY appointed order and you get, well, just look around. You get Learing centers, and baby murderesses, and the paralysis of judgment leading to the total collapse of JUSTICE leading to the rise of a dictatorship that will OPPRESS YOU.

Well, Judges is a testimony of the cycle: a people under GOD living free and prosperous, becoming lax and aloof toward God and turning their back on His ways and adopting the ways of the heathen, are let go under oppression because that's what happens to a nation that forgets GOD, it is turned into Hell (Psalm 9:17). That nation comes under the oppression of foreign rulers and foreign laws, and it gets so bad, God's people remember Him, and cry out to Him in repentance and faith. God mercifully hears them, and raises a remarkable leader who is distinguished before all other world leaders by GOD showing His divine favor upon his leadership, and by this He delivers the people from their oppressors. Gideon is a perfect example, he was flawed (remember the Ephod), he was hesitant at first, he was extraordinarily bold, and obeyed the biblical principle of acknowledging GOD, and trusting in HIS WORD, and never balking at "the odds." Qualities our own intrepid leaders display every day.

Okay, I need to take a break. Hold on, I'm coming!

Segment.02 Hello. Welcome back! I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, your brain masseur, and Paul Revere's lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the church belfry arch, signaling the enemy is on the march—an enemy that would steal from us our liberty.

The MEME wars continue, are Canadians too uptight! No, but elitists are, Canuck snobs are as repulsive as snobby Yanks.

If I did not know so many fine, godly, upstanding, Canadians of good character and principled, I'd be tempted to think it a nation of welshers and supra-grifters.

My friendships there check my reaction to —

I'm forced to admit we've got some looney tunes here who support policies that welsh on the promise of our government to protect freedom of speech, assembly, conscience, and self protection, and privacy from undue invasion by the government into our personal lives — and THEY ARE NOT AMERICA!

They are NOT AMERICA because they have repudiated AMERICA AS FOUNDED and desire to "TRANSFORM" U.S. into a nation our Founders would not recognize. It's the Canadian government and the people who support that government, not the Canadian people—Aye?

So don't get your shorts in a knot over the naming of a lake that borders both our countries. 330 miles of the shore line of the disputed lake borders the United States, and 305 miles borders Canada—so get out of my face about "Lake America" versus "Lake Ontario."¹⁷ Standing on our shores, and looking out across that lake, we see LAKE AMERICA. Standing on your shore line and looking out across the lake, you see LAKE ONTARIO.

We've never had a problem with Canada calling it LAKE ONTARIO — so back off bucko? (hehe). Get a sense of humor!

But there is significance to this event. It arose in the midst of negotiations with Canada about our trade arrangements, where Trump has looked at the numbers and sees that Canada has been ripping off the U.S., for decades. Well, it's time for an adjustment, and Carnival-carny Carney, doing his "side-show" shuffle, tries to shift our attention away from his government's Supra-grift swindle of the U.S. to what he expects North Americans will find boorish behavior on the part of the MAGA Yanks!

I said Canada has been ripping us off; well that is if you think dumb people are solely to blame when they are taken advantage of by another — like the dummies in America who voted self-serving traitors into power who negotiated on behalf of the interests of globalists who sold out American's national interests in service to globalist intrigues — you know, mantras like free markets must accept the free movement of labor — which pushed for and implemented the border policies that nearly destroyed our national identity, our culture, and our liberties. Anyway, naive Americans, assuming their leaders would protect America's interests, were not aware of what their leaders were doing, and so were betrayed by their leaders and taken advantage of by our neighbors — so, Trump comes along and says, no! We're not doing that any more.

So, check your own moral compass on this. When some huckster takes advantage of an elderly couple and sells them what he knows they don't need, and tricks them into signing a contract they don't want — is that a swindle, and a cheat? If your moral compass reads true, then you know that what Canada's government did in its agreements with us was a swindle and a cheat aided and abetted by our Benedict leaders.

As for what our own duly elected officials did, they betrayed the American people and sold us out.

The biblical principle is “Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others” (Philippians 2:4). That's a good ole Christian principle, what do you think of it?

I think that's a pretty good way to do business, think honestly and fairly about both sides of any agreement.

Now, for the scoundrels here in America, who took no thought for what's in the best interests of America, here is a biblical principle for you to consider: “If any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel” (1 Timothy 5:8). The word infidel means unbeliever, it’s in the word infidelity, and you know what that means: betrayal, let’s say, treason.

Any politician given power by the people who uses that power to promote their personal wealth or for other, perhaps more nefarious reasons, turns that power against the legitimate interests of the people he is elected to serve is committing political infidelity against the WHOLE PEOPLE, not merely a subset of them. Crimes against the People are crimes against the interests applicable to the people generally, not specially some privileged group isolated from The PEOPLE. Here is an example!

Laws that allow males to participate in female sports might seem to be in service to the pathetic males so worthless they would take advantage of their elevated physical power over the females, and rather than protect, instead prey upon them to service their own distorted appetite for dominance. But in fact, it is no service to anyone to encourage delusions, and it’s especially vile when it allows injustice against the innocent to go unchecked; to protect the vile in their predation upon the innocent is abhorrent to all men of conscience. Only those whose conscience is seared, can become so fixated on the pitiable plight of a fool to ignore the suffering inflicted by that fool upon the innocent.

What sort of morality sacrifices the careers of young and honest women working hard to excel in their sport on the altar of societies temporary insanity, accommodating the deranged and self-deluded who are taking advantage of stupid people who support this nonsense allowing them to abuse their biologically weaker opponents — Well, in a manner of speaking, that’s what the Canadian government did — they took advantage of unfair trade deals hidden from the American people too naive to ask questions, whose trust in their own government was being betrayed by INFIDELS.

No, by people WORSE than INFIDELS — worse! Consider well! The phrase worse than translates a Greek word that means aggravated evil, as in aggravated assault — it is an offense that calls for punishment for correction that goes beyond the usual penalty for an offense. GOD says these people are WORSE THAN INFIDELS. That should make all such offenders glad we are not Shia Muslims charged to sentence every infidel to death.

Hey, Canadian so-called Liberal Party, under the Globalist's Carney "Barker" with his "Bally"-hoo calls to a "one world order" under the Christ haters assaulting the bands and cords the LORD and His anointed (Psalm 2) — by the way, most Canadians, liberals or conservatives alike, do not support males in female spaces, particularly in sports.¹⁸ So, hey "Globalist government of Canada" Carney Barker — you can wipe off that smug, arrogant self-righteousness cutesy mask thinly veiling the violent, envy driven hatred you have for America—

[INSERT Carney's quit-meme threat —¹⁹ 12.CARNEY - STOP DOING MEMES.]

American's despise a pompous gas-bag, and especially one that can't take a joke or a jibe. Has this guy never hung around a locker room, or did he ever hang out with blue collar working Canadians — has he always been an elitist snob! Well, looky here, he played Hockey for both Harvard²⁰ and Oxford²¹ — I mean, even third string goalie, Hockey is seriously a man's game, and he's never pretended to be some Hockey star, he once said, he held the gate open for some really good Hockey player — I like that Carney better than this character — so, by the way, why don't we ever see a woman transition to a man in order to compete with men on men's Hockey teams, or men's boxing teams — ever notice that? It never goes that way; hmmm. Odd how the “trans-gene” works, don't you think. What about that smug and snide Carney face explaining how that works—whadduya say Carney ole boy. Aye?

I'm playing around with this. I know I have listeners in Canada, well, I hope I still do — but let me ask you a question, outside of the seriously vile memes that have made fun of Trump, mostly his distinctive hair style, on the heads of Canadian ducks — hahaha — no, that's not a good example for the point I'm trying to make, but beyond a MEME calling for the execution of a political leader or something like that, nobody here would become offended if some Canuck created a clever MEME to tease Americans about Trump, or even about our culture. You know what would happen? Nothing! Well, that's not true, you would see an avalanche of good spirited return jibes. You might even get a few, back pats, and compliments for a good MEME, if it was particularly clever. But we would never interrupt serious negotiations by telling Canadians to quit doing memes—yah, maybe he meant to tell Trump to quit doing memes — [Laughing squirrel — right, that's hilarious.]

You might think such behavior is below the dignity of the high and revered position of those cloistered in the ivory towers of their self importance — but real Americans, and I think the Rugby tough Canucks too, are not impressed by that sort of sophistry.

You don't need me to tell you, Trump is greatly esteemed here, and taken very seriously by leaders all across Nimrod's plains. But in America, we don't do kings; we are a nation of kings, and we don't take ourselves so seriously we can't take a joke or make one, about ourselves, and anyone else. We laugh at ourselves a lot, you know.

We enjoy mimics, and get a kick out of some of the idiosyncrasies of our most beloved personalities. I think Trump's down to earth, friend of the common man, antics, like serving in McDonalds, and driving a Trash truck approach to working America elevates and does not demean him. But, let me warn you, when these stuck-up aristos try this, it fails because it's obviously phony, but with Trump, it's a sincere recognition of the real value those jobs bring to the American people.
