[TRUTH]

Hegseth has announced his intention to publicly execute Islamist Jihadi Nidal Hasan, convicted and sentenced to death for the murder of 13, on the Fort Hood base. Twelve of whom were military service members, and one a civilian working on the base. (Here are their names, and the order for Hasan's public execution at the Base where he committed the massacre, November 5, 2009.)³ Thirty others were wounded. Private First Class Francheska Velez was shot by this man shouting Alahu Akbar, who killed this woman crying out for her babies life: "My baby! My baby!"

Hillary Clinton called the plan "a barbaric idea, beneath our dignity as a country."⁴ I don't know, I think the Oval Office shenanigans of your husband is beneath the dignity of our country; and what's with that long list of mysterious deaths you and hubby Bill drag behind you, and Epstein, and ... let's talk about Benghazi, and Uranium One, and ... you know what lady, I think you need to sit this one out.

For the Muslims who fear a public execution of a Muslim traitor and murderer, complete with Allahu Akbar — hey, did this guy do this to purchase entrance into the presence of Mohammad for all of his family — or was he motivated by the promise of 70 virgins — or any of the seven Mohammad incitements to kill infidels in the name of Islam — Listen, I think October 7 and the failure on the part of Islam to openly condemn Hamas is responsible for any Islamaphobia you might find. Fear triggers "fight or flight," and the. Islamo-fascists are going to be very surprised if they think any red-blooded American is going to be cowed into surrendering their liberties to your tyranny.

Here is an Instagram post you should see. It's created by SI, but presents each of those murdered by Hasan at the Base and in uniform.⁵ (Thank you FarmGirlCarrie—I agree, Francheska Velez's life was taken far too soon.)

The only problem I have with any of this is that it took sooooo long to see judgment come upon this servant of Hell. Beginning with his fellow Islamist, Obama, who called the event “workplace violence.”

Demon-crats celebrate the very graphic public criminal execution of Charlie Kirk, but cringe at the planned legal public execution of Hasan as “barbaric.” The Dove and I were talking about this and we wondered “Why can't they ‘see’ themselves? Blind leaders of the blind! Later, as I pondered this, I realized they do! They see themselves in Nidal Malik Hasan, the mass murderer in the Fort Hood massacre. It's like Jesus said, we love others as ourselves.

Odd! The only time Demon-crats show sympathy is when it's in support of evil. They show heightened compassion for perverts, and murderers, and show none for the innocent victims of these perpetrators of evil in our society. To understand this, we need to understand what Jesus said: “Love your neighbor as yourselves.” Jesus appeals to the natural instinct to see our selves in our neighbors as the foundation from which sympathy moves. Our pity, and compassion, naturally move toward those with whom we can identify.

Eleven of the twelve jurors in the Lindsay Clancy trial identified with Lindsay, and so their sympathies were drawn to her support. The one juror who could not agree with the eleven, had his sympathies drawn to the murdered children. The eleven sympathized with the murderer because they saw in her something with which they could personally identify. So their sympathies went to the murderer, and were alienated from the murdered. That is corruption of the conscience at the deepest possible level.

Think about it! What evokes sympathy in you toward others? It's when you can personally identify with them on some level. When it touches your humanity, what you hold in common with your neighbor. When someone inspires you by their heroic example, or excites some recognition in you of a time you experienced some affront, or offense: your memories of your own experience connects you to the experience of the other, and a natural bond is felt. We really do love others "as our selves."

The Demon-cratics—wait, I think it's time to bring some new listeners up to speed on the BrainMassage® glossary of specialized terms.

A Demon-cratic is a supporter of demon-cracy. As you know, democracy is a Greek term made from demas and cracy. Demas refers to people, and Cracy refers to rule, or governance. So Democracy refers to the rule of the people. Demon are devils. So a Demoncracy is rule by devils. The Democrats today embrace the rule of devils, and so they are demoncratic.

Okay, back to the point: The demoncratics are among the first to spout Jesus' maxim: "Love your neighbor as yourself." Yet they cheer the public execution of Charlie Kirk, and condemn the public execution of Nidal Hasan. For the Demoncrat (embraced by virtually all Democrats today—so, you know what, I'm going to say Democrat from here on — actually, I, no, this is the literal truth, I coined the expression demoncrat about twenty-five or more years ago specifically to differentiate the truth hating, America despising Democrat from the old-guard Democrat—but it's all come out now, and now we know the Democrat Party has always been the party of Jim Crowe, KKK, racism, and Slavery, with their sympathies inclined toward Communism—but at least they used to at least publicly cherish the first amendment and love Freedom)—anyway, Nidal is their “neighbor,” but Charlie is not.

This raises the question asked by a lawyer when Jesus said, “Love thy neighbor,” and the lawyer quipped: “Who is my neighbor?” Jesus’ answer is very important, please listen. This exchange is recorded in Luke 10:25-37.

Jesus described someone who had been beaten and wounded by thieves, stripped of his clothing, and left half dead in the streets. A priest (a teacher of the Law), and a little later, a Levite (of the tribe through which God gave the Law that Jesus had quoted), came by, saw the wounded, half dead man, and both of these crossed the street to avoid encountering the abused man. Then a Samaritan came along, carried the wounded man to safety, bound up his wounds, and covered the cost of his recovery. The Samaritan was someone this Lawyer, the priest, and the Levite in Jesus’ story, would despise for their heritage. Jesus asked the Lawyer, which of these was “neighbor” to the abused, beaten, robbed man, and the Lawyer got the point and he answered rightly: the Samaritan was neighbor to the wounded man. Jesus told him, there you go, do that and you’re on your way to the truth.

Notice that Jesus did not focus on the thieves, the robbers, the muggers, the criminals in this story. He focused entirely on the victim of criminal assault. Depending entirely on the political views of the victim, the Democrat today would sympathize with the criminals! They would interview Jesus and ask, was the victim a Republican, and was he wearing a red hat?

Jesus did not apply the “Love thy neighbor” rule to the thieves, the criminals, the abusers—His focus was 100% on the victim of the crime.

The Democrat today rejoiced in the public criminal murder of a free speech advocate who wanted to engage in a conversation with the “Left” and condemn as barbaric the public legal execution of a man convicted for a massacre—including a pregnant woman who pled for her life on behalf of her baby! That's right, this monster murdered in cold blood a pregnant female soldier — and the sympathies of the Democrats today are with this fiend of hell, giving himself to the dark forces of Hell, to murder, even murder his fellow soldiers—soldiers who would have laid down their lives for his in combat.

Public executions are biblical, and serve an important purpose. Hold on through the break, I'll explain in a moment.

Segment.02 Hello. Welcome back! I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, your brain masseur, and Paul Revere's lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the church belfry arch, signaling the enemy is on the march—an enemy that would steal from us our liberty.

Demoncrats cheer the public assassination of Charlie Kirk, and the assassination attempts on the President of the United States, but cringe at the notion of a Muslim who as an enlisted soldier in our U.S. Army, massacred 12 fellow soldiers and one civilian working on the base at Fort Hood in Texas back in 2009. The Islamist Jihadi who massacred 13 on November 5, 2009 beginning at 1 pm, shouting the Jihadi signature — Allahu Akbar — was tried, convicted, and sentenced to death for his crimes, and now, seventeen years after the Jihad rampage, and about 13 years after his conviction August 23, 2013 on 13 counts of premeditated murder, and 32 counts of attempted premeditated murder, the military court-martial panel sentenced him to death on August 28, 2013. And yet his execution was repeatedly delayed, you know Obama was buying peace from Iran for over a billion in cash, and he was not going to have a fellow-Islamist terminated for “workplace violence,” and knew he could not get away with pardoning the monster, so left him living at tax-payer expense with better health care benefits than any of us has.

Trump did not address it in his first term, and Biden was too busy making sure his puppet master's Jihadis in Iran got 16 Billion dollars to continue the struggle to bring down the "Great Satan" — America! So now Trump wants to take care of the business and the left goes into outrage mode when Hegseth announces the execution will be by firing squad and broadcast to the entire world.

Public executions are biblical,⁶ and serve an important purpose. God said it serves as a deterrent (Deuteronomy 13:11; 17:6-13; 19:15-21; 21:18-21). Solomon said, by the Spirit, "Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil" (Ecclesiastes 8:11). Not only is it an effective deterrent, God specifically prescribed the death penalty for any who murder another human being who bears the image of GOD (Genesis 9:6). It underscores the value of human life. Every murderer who is not executed for his crime cheapens the lives of all he murdered and the value of every human life living.

Public executions put our values on public display, where the sympathies of good men are stirred to protect JUSTICE through the execution of proper JUDGMENT, which serves to align the people's sympathies properly—with the victims and not with the criminals—and showing the value we place on every life by removing those who take a life, just like GOD told us after the flood: Genesis 9:6, “Whoso sheddeth man’s blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man.”

Charlie was a man made in the image of GOD. Tyler Robinson, who is accused for killing Charlie, was made in the image and likeness of God. God says that when one of those created in His image murders another created in His image, the murderer is to be killed by “the people.” The People should demand that because life is so precious, those who commit murder against another must face the ultimate penalty for their crime—execution by the “sword” of civil Justice (See Romans 13:1-6). It should be public because it is the Public that is charged with the execution.

Democrats, today, see themselves in the hurt feelings of the perverts, the murderers, the rapists, and that’s why their sympathies are excited by their “suffering.” Their emotional bond with evil makes them insensitive to the impact of evil on the innocent.

Here is a simple example. Democrats can totally identify with those criticized by others for their bizarre choices in attire, or expression; they identify with it because they want to connect these people to their cause: literally, they prey on the outcast, the rejected and join them in their grievances. To polarize these against their enemies, they overlook physically assaulting a MAGA patriot simply for wearing a MAGA hat. And ignore the killing of Muslim women for daring to go into public without their Burka.

Their sympathies for the criminal are based entirely on his or her political alignment. When they view crime and punishment, it’s through the lens of their political beliefs. A leftist committing an assault on a MAGA American moves them to accuse the MAGA Patriot, the victim, for “triggering” the assault with his or her hat. And then the same hypocrites condemn a rapist who says the woman’s attire provoked him to his actions; that is, unless the perpetrator is a Muslim, or other illegal immigrant, then they “understand” the provocation argument. This is insanity: you see, their compassion moves in the direction of their political sympathies.

This is the stuff of the Holocaust, this is the stuff of a Mao dse Dong, this is the politics of genocide: identify a people group with whom you disagree then call for their elimination as enemies of “the people.” It’s an Islamist way of thinking: they are the religion of peace, and so make peace by surrendering, Islam as a verb. Then we will have Allah’s peace.

The Pedo who believes his sexual feelings of attraction to children are pure and loving, finds a place of connection with Demon-crats whose sympathies are stirred by the common ground they feel—but this is dangerous! Beware, they “love others as themselves.” They identify with these outcasts and feel their suffering. But, friend, some people deserve to be outcasts! Like Jihadi Muslims who are committed to killing all infidels who refuse to Islam—that is—submit to be ruled by the Mullahs.

There is a weirdness⁷ in this—a spirituality that is very dark. The Spirit that moved Jesus to relate the story of the good Samaritan is no where to be found in the Democrat Party. The spiritual darkness that directs them hates the good and loves the evil.

The Democrats today are always on the side of protecting the evil, at the expense of the good.

⁷ On board Dictionary: adjective: 1 suggesting something supernatural; unearthly: weird, inhuman sounds. We usually use the word in its informal sense, indicating something or someone very strange; bizarre: a weird coincidence. I’m using it in its original sense, as defined in Websters’ 1828/1913: Weird (wērd), n. (noun) [OE. (Old English) wirde, werde, AS. (Anglo-Saxon) wyrd fate, fortune, one of the Fates, fr. weorthan to be, to become; akin to OS. wurd fate, OHG. wurt, Icel. urthr. See Worth to become.] 1. Fate; destiny; one of the Fates, or Norns; also, a prediction. [Obs. or Scot.] 2. A spell or charm. [Obs. or Scot.] Sir W. Scott. Weird, a. (Adjective) 1. Of or pertaining to fate; concerned with destiny. 2. Of or pertaining to witchcraft; caused by, or suggesting, magical influence; supernatural; unearthly; wild; as, a weird appearance, look, sound, etc. “Myself too had weird seizures.” —Tennyson. “Those sweet, low tones, that seemed like a weird incantation.” —Longfellow. Carlson Tucker has been “weirded” out! —Scheidbach. :)

We want lawfully protected elections; they fight to protect election fraud. We believe if some man is convinced he is a woman, he's crazy, but that's his business; yet that same man forcing himself into my wife's personal space, like the women's restroom, now you've crossed the line into my business. If a man wants to call himself a woman and play basketball, let him play with other men who call themselves women—guess what will happen? You know what will happen—these same men will lose interest in Basketball because they want to dominate women, and can't compete with men, and no matter how much they pretend otherwise, the fact is they know the difference. They want to dominate women, they don't want to compete with men, so if you said, play with other trans women, they would lose interest! They know that competing with men pretending to be girls is different from competing with biological girls. Why do we never see a woman transition to be a man and insist she be allowed to play in male sports?

Democrats cheer Charlie's public assassination, and make remarks about the attempts on Trump's life like, "it's too bad he missed."

After Charlie's criminal and very public execution, Samantha Marengo, a special education teacher in Massachusetts, videoed herself singing in a celebratory manner, "God Bless America" next to a TV newscast announcing Kirk's death. Patrick Freivald, a physics teacher in New York, likened Charlie to Goebbels, and said he was "interrupted by a bullet to the neck which quickly cured him of HVLD*, and shortly thereafter he became a good Nazi." He explained that HVLD referred to a high-velocity lead deficiency, which was cured by the murderer's shot to his neck; and he explained that "the only good Nazi is a ..." Leaving you to fill in the blank! Clever guy! Right? Not so cryptically saying Charlie deserved to be murdered. He concluded his bitter and hate-filled post saying, “Good riddance to bad garbage.”⁸

Democrats focus on the murderer’s life, and not the lives of those Nidal Hasan murdered in the Ft. Hood massacre. They sympathize with rioters, murderers, rapists, drug abusers, women beaters, you name it.

And that’s just “weird.” — The word refers to the occult, witchcraft, strange phenomena, spell casting — these children of disobedience are under the “spell” of Satan’s devils. Nothing else explains this. And it is what happens when someone abandons truth, separates themselves from objective reality, opening themselves to seducing spirits and embracing doctrines, notions, ideas, thoughts, that come from devils. Soon, these people find truth has become the enemy of their fabricated world view. When truth becomes the enemy, they begin working against freedom, even their own. The Bible speaks of the spirit of error and the Spirit of Truth. Jesus is “the Truth,” and they hate the biblical Jesus; that’s why they make up a fake one. When truth becomes their enemy, they become the enemy of FREEDOM. When they surrender to the control of the “spirit of error,” they become the enemy of the Spirit of Truth, and so become the ENEMIES OF OUR LIBERTIES.

Okay, that’s enough on this topic for now.

Talking about a man who has become an enemy of truth, and so an enemy to freedom, who has submitted his mind and soul to the spirit of error, and so is the enemy of the Spirit of LIBERTY:

Todd Starnes show said: “AB 1803 is poorly written and a stretch by another liberal California legislator attempting to create bias against conservatives.” Well said!

Gov. Gavin Newsom signed AB 1803 on Sept. 27. Beginning Jan. 1, 2028, employers with five or more employees covered by California’s existing harassment-training requirements must include guidance on recognizing, reporting and confronting workplace speech that “vilifies, humiliates, or incites hatred” based on protected characteristics. In other words, this does not apply to everyone, it applies to specially defined grievance groups, like Queers, illegal immigrants, trans athletes, and so on. All human rights must apply to all humans, equally. These special rights do not apply to all humans and so they are not God endowed inalienable rights. They are special rights which invariably infringe upon someone’s human rights — every time.

Our Evangelist to Sacramento, Brock Campbell has repeatedly asked the Assembly and Senate leaders who promoted this Bill to define “Hate Speech.” They refuse to define it. So, let me define it for you: it’s an unpleasant “feeling” you get when you hear certain expressions you don’t like. It’s anything, and anyone that demeans others who have demeaned themselves by perverse behavior. Their sympathies line up with whatever constitutes sin as understood by Christians, or as defined in the Context of the Bible. Righteousness, on the other hand, is hated by these same people, because righteousness demands judgment upon the wicked. The Democrats identify with the wicked; they see themselves in the wicked, their sympathies are drawn to the wicked, because they find common cause with them: let us break their bands asunder and cast away their cords from us.
