IN THE DAYS BEFORE THE FLOOD / WHEN GOOD SERVES EVIL!

Original Air Date: 11.21.26

Segment.01 Hello. I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor of the Lighthouse Baptist Church in Santa Maria, CA, and your brain masseur. Get ready for your brain massage.

Understanding "good" rightly and "evil" correctly: When "Good" becomes the servant of "Evil," "Evil" takes the place of "Good," and becomes our "Master." A culture mastered by evil becomes increasingly violent. like it was in the days before the Flood.

Christianity and Islam have intriguing points of similarity, with a great many more points of dissimilarity; but there is one major point of separation that makes them polar opposites and incompatible. I'll probably not have time to get to the interesting similarities but we'll show the major point of distinction. I'll address the ways Christianity and Islam are oddly similar in the BrainMassage® LIVE podcast Saturday night, around 8 pm. If you

[TRUTH]

God made the kingdom of man in His image and likeness, and made them to procreate and increase the kingdom. He gave to the kingdom of man dominion over the natural resources of the earth.[1]

He instructed Adam and Eve to exercise their dominion freely, but to reserve one thing to Him. He instructed them not to eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Eve saw this tree and perceived it to be a tree of "good fruit," that would provide a "good thing," — wisdom; so she believed the Serpent's lie that this was the path to being "like God," and accepted the insinuation that God was holding something from her that was good, so, in the name of "good," she sinned and opened the door to evil (Genesis 3). It's been happening just like that ever since.

When "Good" becomes the servant of "Evil," "Evil" takes the place of "Good." A culture shaped by evil becomes increasingly violent; and if unchecked, it become again like it was in the days before the Flood.

After Eve decided to pursue good by doing evil, they were banished from the "tree of life," and so would grow old and die. Outside the garden, there was no organized human government besides GOD, the family, and the knowledge of good and evil guided by natural conscience.[2]

[1] Genesis 1:26-27; this is the kingdom which He gives to whomsoever He will (Daniel 4:17, 25, 32).

[2] See Romans 1:17 through 2:16, and read carefully. You'll notice that man's intuitive sense of good and evil includes the knowledge of both, and the law was given to expose the exceeding sinfulness of sin (Romans 7:13). All men are sinners, but not all men consistently choose evil over good.

After almost 17 centuries, Romans 1:17-32 happened, men turned away from the good and embraced the evil, just like their mother, Eve Mankind became so corrupt that when God looked upon him He saw that the imagination of their heart was "only evil continually," until "the earth was filled with violence."[3] This is how it was in the days before the flood: they were careless, presuming all things would continue as they were accustomed[4] until the Flood (Genesis 6-9). Noah found grace, God saved him and his family, and humanity started over, but this time God ordained government among men to check the spread of evil by the death penalty for capital offenses to be executed by man (Genesis 9:6).

About 150 years later, Nimrod became the first human king and forged the first ANTICHRIST government, the Kingdom of Babel, defying GOD (Genesis 10-11). God intervened, destroyed the tower and scattered mankind who went all over the world setting up kingdoms and making themselves kings to rule them — beginning the era of the kingdoms of men.

God called a Gentile (the word gentile merely means a man from among the nations). This Gentile was called Abram (later God changed his name to Abraham), and he lived in Ur of the Chaldees. God promised that from his seed He would form His own nation. He called His nation Israel. God used Israel to show Himself to all the nations of the world; to be a light of truth to the lost. When Israel turned from the LIGHT, and ceased to be a witness of the truth to the nations, God surrendered them to the power of the Gentiles, and they were scattered among the nations.

[3] Genesis 6:5 And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. Genesis 6:11 ¶ The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.

[4] Matthew 24:38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, Matthew 24:39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

But God prepared a seed that would come from Abraham, He chose Isaac, Abraham's son by Sarah, then Isaac's son, Jacob, and then Jacob's son, Judah, and finally a descendant of Judah named David. From David's seed, God's SON entered the world and was proclaimed the promised KING of ISRAEL, Christ , the second Person of the GODHEAD, manifest in the flesh of man—and by the Father named JESUS.

Jesus was sent into the world by His Father as the LAMB of GOD Who would take away the sin of the world (John 1:29; 3:16). The wages of sin is death,[5] and after death comes God's judgment,[6] and by dying for us, He provided a way for men to turn away the darkness to the Light, and from the power of Satan to GOD.[7] He died on the Cross and broke the power of death and of sin, thus removing the power of death from Satan.[8] JESUS provided the atonement for the sins of all mankind (1 John 2:1-2).[9] He paid our debt for sin and saved us from the eternal banishment that follows.

[6] Hebrews 9:27 "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment."

[7] Acts 26:18 "To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me."

[8] Hebrews 2:14 "Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil."

[9] 1John 2:1-2 "My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: And he is the propitiation [payment, satisfaction of a debt, atonement] for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world."

Now, He commands all men everywhere to repent[10] and believe on His Son,[11] and promises to all who obey the gospel that they will be saved from the wrath to come, and receive the gift of eternal life.[12]

He sent His Spirit into the world to dwell in the believer,[13] and through the believer to reprove the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment.[14]

After JESUS arose from the dead, He declared that "all power [exousia=right to rule] was given [to Him] in heaven and in earth" (Matthew 28:18). He was declared by the Spirit through Paul to be "Far above all principality (the Divinely appointed steward of the kingdom — Romans 13:1), and power (divinely established authority, right to rule), and might (the strength, or force to enforce the law), and dominion (all governments, or realms of power), and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come."[15] And by the Spirit through John we are told that

[12] John 3:16 "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

[13] Ephesians 1:13-14 "In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory."

[14] John 7:38-39 "He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)" Called "the Comforter": John 16:7-8 "Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment."

[15] Ephesians 1:20-23 "Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all."

JESUS is, right now, PRINCE (the PRINCIPAL POWER, the OVER ARCHING AUTHORITY) of the "kings of the earth" (Revelation 1:5). And JESUS has saved all who have called on His name, confessing He is LORD, believing He arose,[16] translating them into His kingdom,[17] and appointed them to be His ambassadors, representing KING JESUS to all nations.[18]

Jesus said we are the light of the world and the salt of the earth. What does this mean? Particularly, what is our role as "salt."

As the light, we show men who live in darkness the way out of that darkness into the glorious light of the GOSPEL — the good news that JESUS CHRIST has come in the flesh, broken the power of death, and hell, and presents Himself to all mankind as the way, the truth, and the LIFE:[19] repent and believe on Him to be saved from the wrath to some. Confess that JESUS IS LORD! Christ is KING.

Salt was required to season every sacrifice of any meat offering: "with all thy offerings thou shalt offer salt" (Leviticus 2:13). No offering would be acceptable to God that was not presented with "salt." Our lives musts be holy before God or else it will be unsavory, un acceptable to Him.

[16] Romans 10:9 "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." Romans 10:13 "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

[17] Colossians 1:13 "Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son."

[18] 2 Corinthians 5:20 "Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God." Luke 24:47 "And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem." Matthew 28:18-19 "And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen."

[19] John 14:6 "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me."

Salt also serves as a preservative against decay, or corruption. The salt retards the progression of decay.

Jesus said we are the SALT of the EARTH; all our offering to Him are made acceptable by our sanctification, and holiness[20]—our separation to Him and keeping ourselves unspotted from the world.[21] Else when we present our bodies a living sacrifice to Him He will refuse it, for it is not "holy, acceptable to God."

When this condition prevails among the believers, we lose our preserving influence in this world; we are no longer a retardant against the progression of corruption in our culture and in the earth. It will spiral away into decay, and culture will fall into darkness, and become as it was in the days before the flood. Remember the prophecy of the "perilous times" (2 Timothy 3) — the world sinks into the quicksands of wickedness and becomes fully engulfed in sin when the righteous lose the savour of their salt. JESUS said that when this happens, He will cast the salt under the feet of the wicked in this world: "Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men" (Matthew 5:13).

This is what happened to Judah when they became so much like the world they were no longer of any use to preserve the land, or show the Light of GOD to the heathen.

How much salt will be needed to preserve this "One nation, under God" from being turned into Hell (Psalm 9:17)? Enough to overcome the corruption, to check it.

There are many factors that caused us to lose the midterms—to allow the wicked to triumph over us, and mockingly scream—

Hold on, Christs is COMING — and I'll be right back!

Segment.02 Hello. Welcome back! I'm Dr. Jerry Scheidbach, pastor at the Lighthouse, your brain masseur, and Paul Revere's lantern lighter, lighting the lamps in the church belfry arch, signaling the enemy is on the march—an enemy that would steal from us our liberty.

Speaking of wicked and unreasonable rulers:

Gavin wanted to facilitate the doxxing of ICE agents by making it illegal for them to wear masks. Trump's DOJ sued, and Newsom's lawyers caved: case closed, ICE agents may protect themselves from Newsom's doxxing policy.[24]

Now the "Pompous Pontiff with a Pompadour" who commuted the sentences of 548 death-row inmates to life without parole is being sued by local CA DAs, and victim rights groups for thumbing his nose at the voters and blaspheming GOD with his nonsense about these murderers, and child rapists, and repeat offenders among them, including the like of the "Southside Slayer" and the "Hollywood Ripper" dying in prison "but not by our hands," but who is all in for supporting those who murder babies in the wombs of their mothers—that guy! Who would "withhold his sword" from the blood of murderers but release it to support the murder of babies.

Mamdani the New York Commie born in Uganda[25] is quickly turning the Big Apple into a mini-Uganda: wearing a mask that looks like a Constitutional Republic as thinly veiled-Communist Uniparty rule with centralized power at the top, a corrupt election system, and dictatorial leadership. He is stripping aways every protection against evil and doing it in the name of good. He is closing Rikers Island prison, releasing 40% of the jailed criminal population back into the public, and abolishing a key counterterrorism NYPD unit, intending to replace their riot control function with a citizen de-escalation force. Sounds like he is preparing New York City to be delivered to Islamist power, finishing what they started on 9-11—he might want to talk to his people in Uganda about that, who are at war with militant Islamists.

to conquer New York City. FBI's New York Joint Terrorism Task Force, the one Mamdani wants to neuter, continues to monitor this activity; not only of Al Qaeda, but also Iran backed Hizballah activity in New York — remember the attack on Manhattan synagogue — an ISIS inspired activity — I mean, it's not like New York City is a terrorist target or anything![26] [27] [28] [29]

The voting machines in New York are aware of Mamdani's background: his parents have consistently expresses negative, anti-American views, rooted in the colonist propaganda, and "anti-imperialism" rhetoric of the typical America hating immigrant, whose reason for coming to America had nothing to do with any search for freedom or romantic response to the invitation, "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to be free"; these two came to criticize, harangue, and shame America and Americans: spewing the usual tired tropes of God hating, America despising antichristian bias. And the voting machines knew about his mother, too: who in an interview described her son as "not American at all." She said Mamdani identified as Ugandan, an India-Indian, and insisted that her family be recognized as rooted culturally outside of full American identity.[33] [34]

Requirements for naturalization include attachment to the "principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the United States."[35] To this end, Mamdani could not become a naturalized citizen of the U.S. without swearing an oath that included a promise to "Support and defend the Constitution and laws of the United States of America against all enemies, foreign and domestic," and to "bear true faith and allegiance to the same."[36] [37]

President Trump signed an Executive Order clarifying the oath. He signed it into Administrative Law on Jan. 20, 2025 — his first day in the Oval Office for his second term. To protect the United States from "foreign terrorists and other national security and public safety threats," he ordered Immigration enforcement to receive immigrants who "do not bear hostile attitudes toward [U.S.] citizens, culture, government, institutions, or founding principles." He instructed that aliens must not "preach or call for sectarian violence, the overthrow or replacement of the culture on which our constitutional Republic stands."[38] Why did he include the word preach? Setting the hook to catch Mullahs preaching "Death to America."

Anyway, Americans are beginning to be poked out of their long sleep about all this. More than 200 Georgians packed a city council meeting when they discovered the city leaders quietly approved a 20,000 square foot Islamic center in their town. Some residents objected that "Allah teaches violence, murder, and pedophilia." All true, by the way, assuming Allah inspired Mohammed's writings. When the council refused to put the matter up for a second vote after hearing the concerns of the community, the place got heated.[39] [40]

A similar outcry was raised in Berkeley County, South Carolina. The council public meeting house was packed with locals raising their concerns: "This is not a religion," said one, "It's a hostile ideology that seeks to destroy our society and replace the Constitution." Those defending their way of life in South Carolina mentioned Dearborn, and Sharia—those who expressed equivocation on the issue of religious liberty were shut down by the aggressive response that Islam is an anti-American political movement masquerading as religion. In fact, it's a religion driven assault on our country, that is incompatible with our Christian based political system. They are here to conquer and espouse an ideology that calls on its members to kill the "infidel."

Freedom of religion is a good thing, these wicked people, who fully reject the principle of religious freedom, are using our goodness to conquer us and replace our goodness with their EVIL. When goodness becomes the servant of evil, evil takes over and destroys that goodness.

This is the lesson God is teaching us regarding the knowledge of good and evil. Eve was deceived into thinking God was afraid man would be like Him, and so was keeping something from her that was good. Pursuing something "good" she opened the door to "evil."

Eve's Ill afflicts us today!

If only women understood how powerful they already are, and would use that power of influence for good, and not for evil!
